TOO MUCH MONKEY.

A Tiny Little Girl Han a Bad Night After Witnessing the Dog and Pony Show—She Saw the Honkey Doc-

There lives in the fourth ward a tiny little girl, full of high-strung nerves and just 31 months old. Like all sprightly children of her age this tot wanted to see the dog and peny show. She had not been real well for a week but had recuperated her strength until she looked about as usual. Friday morning she witnessed the parade and was delighted, especially with the monkeys. After dinner her mother dressed her in her very prettiest clothes and took her to the show. The crowd, especially the other babies, the dogs, the ponies and the monkeys bewildered her; she had never seen such a lively scene. The monkey horse doctor seemed to impress her more than any other feature of the programme but no one could tell whether she was pleased or displeased with that great man-like won by the invincibles in the basket-ball tournament of the Young Men's Christian Association, is on exhibition in the window of the Stone & Barringer Co.

The cup is ten inches high and gold lined and silver plated. It is properly engraved and presents a handsome appaarance, having the letter 'T' enameled on it in the team's colors, orange and black.

This cup was won by the Invincibles after a hard fought series of games with three other teams, all members of the local association. This was the most successful tournament ever played by the association and the trophy-cup is a fitting reward to the men who played these very interesting games.

The cup will later be placed on exhibition at the association building. Below is a record of the games played by the teams competing for this cup:

Big Fire Companies

The big English and Scotch Companies of this space have no trouble in paying their losses. I am advised that The Liverpool and London and Globe will pay its loss with funds from England (this without impairment of reserve) besides leaving untouched their funds in U. S., where their surplus remains over $5,000,000.

The Scottish, after paying its losses, will still have the amount of over $1,000,000 surplus in U. S. alone. The Piedmont is, as ever, able and sound. Let me hear from you—if you want solid insurance—which insures.
