

VETERANS' REUNION ENDS

OLD SOLDIERS HAD GREAT TIME. The boys in Gray Capture Columbia and Are Accorded Royal Entertainment—Three Hundred School Children Visit Tent—Mrs. E. G. Glenn of Asheville, Delivers Address of Resolution. Have Confederate Rolls Printed—Sons of Veterans Also Meet—Statehouse Commission Lets Contract for New Roof for Capital Building.

Observer Bureau, 1209 Main Street, Columbia, S. C., May 17. The reunion is fully what was promised it would be. The city is crowded as on the biggest day of fair week and the town is all bustle and hurry, the noise of band music, spelling tables and country cousins, social functions, speech-making and various forms of convention hurrahs and hand-shaking politicians and other usual demonstrations and stunts which characterize such occasions.

But the best part of the whole business is the fact, that sticks out through everything, that the old veterans themselves, the battle-scarred, gray old heroes, who proved themselves the wonders of the world in the fighting life who were no less successful many of them in a business way, who are being entertained and fed and quartered free, are having the times of their lives. Many of them have nothing to spend, but this has made no difference in the way they have been treated. None has gone hungry nor been neglected in the matter of quarters. The tent has been perfect and tent life has not even upset a one so far as can be learned. The free dining room on Main street is crowded for eating money, but none is turned away, and the free beer and lunch counter, open constantly in the vacant lot across the street from the Y. M. C. A. building is doing a large business.

SCHOOL CHILDREN VISIT TENTS

The feature of to-day's session of the reunion was the visit to the tent of about 300 children from the city schools. As the children passed along the streets in double file, dressed in white and blue uniforms, and attending the convention gathered to see them pass, and such hurrahs and rebel yelling have not been heard since the first time the tent was opened to the public. The visit of the children filled up the tent and great crowds stood at the flaps unable to get in. The singing and reciting of the children were well done and aroused great interest. A number of the old veterans being overcome with emotion and weeping as they heartily cheered. Alma Dunning, a beautiful little girl, led the singing, and did it well. There were a number of Confederate songs, including "Dixie" and "Swanee River." Miss Kreps attractively recited "Music in the Camp." A earnest plea for the children followed with the "Heart of a Child."

A splendid address was that of Mrs. E. G. Glenn, of Asheville, formerly Miss Elizabeth Lumley of this city. She has made similar addresses in practically every Southern State and has been active or honorary sponsor to practically every patriotic organization as the general organization. She is a woman of great talent in this respect and her eloquence aroused the old veterans to great heights of enthusiasm.

TO PRESERVE CONFEDERATE ROLLS.

A resolution was introduced by Gen. C. I. Walker and adopted looking to having the Confederate rolls printed and put in permanent form in the interest of history. An earnest plea was made to have all relics in the possession of veterans and others turned over to the keepers of the roll room at the Statehouse, here in order that they might be better preserved. The session closed with the annual address by Gen. James W. Moore, of Hampton, who spoke with great earnestness and eloquence, whose remarks were received with hearty applause.

SONS OF VETERANS MEET.

The State division of Sons of Veterans was called to order in the Y. M. C. A. building this morning by A. M. DePass acting as Commander. J. Porter McMaster, of the local camp, Mr. McMaster being absent on account of the funeral of a relative. The meeting was opened with prayer by Rev. Melton Clark, chaplain general of the Second Brigade, after which the meeting was turned over to Commander George Bell Zimmerman, of the Second Brigade, who after a clever response, turned it over to the commander of the First Brigade, George Douglas Rouse, of Charlotte, who introduced Governor Heyward.

The Governor made a stirring talk, which greatly pleased his hearers, after which Division Commander Davis of Alabama, addressed the convention in an interesting way. George Bell Zimmerman, commander of the First Brigade, was elected division commander to succeed J. J. McSwain, and appointed Col. D. A. Spivey his chief of staff. The brigade commanders were elected in the persons of G. D. Rouse for the First Brigade; Dr. William Weston, of this city, for the Second Brigade; and W. C. Harton, of Laurens, for the Third Brigade.

On motion of Mr. Zimmerman amendments to the constitution were adopted going away with annual dues and making an initiation fee of $2 to answer all purposes. The funds to be raised to be placed in the hands of a board of trustees to be announced later to pay the expense of the division. Also on his motion the basis of delegates to the State convention from the camps was changed to 10 members instead of 20.

D. M. Felder and L. W. Haakel were appointed a committee to confer with a similar committee from the veterans to memorialize the Legislature in the matter of collecting and publishing historical data. Gen. C. I. Walker, from the veterans' convention, addressed the gathering in an entertaining way.

CONTRACT FOR STATEHOUSE ROOF.

The Statehouse commission has awarded the contract for putting a new roof on the capital building, the Lidbly Tilling Company, of Savannah, getting the work in a contract with less than half a dozen others. The contract for re-enforcing the roof girders was also awarded the Jeffords Company, of this city, getting this. The commission would not name the price agreed upon in either case. The contracts call for the completion of the work within four months from the time it is started, which will be in about 46 days. The present roof is of gravel, and the fault found with it was one of the chief reasons of the $200,000 suit the State brought against the contractor.

THE SUIT HAS NOW BEEN DROPPED, AFTER A MISFEASANCE.

No satisfaction equals that of a clear triumph, tender-hearted, long-haired woman, just as there is no picture like a beautiful girl. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea, 5 cents a box, 50 cents a dozen.

AMUSEMENTS

Few of the young stars of the American stage have as many successes to their credit as Mr. Chauncey L. Southern, who will be the attraction as the Academy for one week, commencing Monday night. (Except Tuesday.)

Observer Bureau, 1209 Main Street, Columbia, S. C., May 17. The reunion is fully what was promised it would be. The city is crowded as on the biggest day of fair week and the town is all bustle and hurry, the noise of band music, spelling tables and country cousins, social functions, speech-making and various forms of convention hurrahs and hand-shaking politicians and other usual demonstrations and stunts which characterize such occasions.

CHAUNCEY L. SOUTHERN.

Mr. Southern has played parts ranging from Mr. Hyde, in "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde," to Little Billie in "Tribby." He has a pleasing manner and possesses the one attribute which lacks in so many actors of today, personal magnetism. This combined with the fact of his being a close student, is the reason of his success. For instance, if Mr. Southern is to play an Italian, a person might find him for two or three weeks in and around the settlement in New York known as "Little Italy," studying the habits and mannerisms of its inhabitants. Once when he had to play an "opium fiend" his friends were very much worried because he could not be found for several days at his usual place in the city, but he turned up all right. He had been closely observing a "fiend" in the joints in Chinatown, and when the evening arrived Mr. Southern made such a favorable impression that many newspaper critics insisted that he is a "dope fiend." Ladies from Monday night accompanied by one paid $5 cent ticket, if purchased before 6 p. m. at Jordan's.

CHARLOTTE'S 20TH OF MAY

The Celebration Will Be One of the Biggest Things Ever Pulled Off in North Carolina. Wilmington Dispatch. Those very few American citizens, who can only be distinguished by the use of a magnifying glass and whose contention should be extinguished, who are "doubting Thomases" about the truth of the Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence, should forget their troubles and visit the Queen City next week. Though not authorized to extend an invitation yet, we feel confident that we can say to them that they will have a glorious time and that the people of Charlotte will treat them as royally as if they had never doubted and that when they leave they will be sorry that the declaration has not been signed every day in the year and celebration transpiring accordingly.

For our part we are willing to pin our faith to what has been handed down by our forefathers about the Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence and their deeds alone attest to the fact that they must have spoken the truth. We believe that person may as well doubt the signing of the American Declaration of Independence as to doubt the signing of the Mecklenburg declaration and when an analysis is made people will find that they have not one small straw to cling to if their spirit be one of doubt, much less denial. What evidence have they in support of their position? None.

SUITS AGAINST WESTERN UNION.

Three Instituted at Spartanburg, Amounts Aggregating $6,000—Two For Mental Anguish. Special to The Observer. Spartanburg, S. C., May 17.—Three damage suits in the sum of $2,000 each have been filed against the Western Union Telegraph Company by Stanyarne Wilson, attorney. The suits are those of Y. L. Batton, Amon Brannon, of Cowpens, and Mrs. P. H. daughter of Brandall. All the plaintiffs allege negligence on the part of the telegraph company in delivering messages. The complaint of Batton is that a telegram was sent to him from Wellford to King's Mountain offering him a position and the failure of the company to deliver the message caused him to lose the situation. He seeks damages to the amount of $2,000.

The allegation of Brandall is that he sent a telegram to his daughter, Mrs. Fish, apprising her of the dying condition of her mother. The message was delivered two weeks later, after her mother had died. For this he seeks $2,000 damages.

Mrs. Fish seeks damages in the same amount against the company alleging that through the failure to deliver the message, at a proper time and by her father notifying her of the condition of her mother, she was unable to attend the funeral and in addition suffered mental anguish.

SUICIDES IN HOTEL.

D. E. Burch, of Farmville, Takes Morphine and Dies in Hotel Farrar at Tarboro. Special to The Observer. Tarboro, May 17.—Last night D. E. Burch, formerly a hotel keeper in Washington but later a resident of Farmville, registered at Hotel Farrar. About noon to-day he was found dead in his room. Investigation by Dr. Thigpen, the coroner, disclosed the fact that he had committed suicide. An eight-ounce morphine bottle was found in the room with only a small quantity of morphine therein. Deceased has a family living in Farmville.

CHAIN OF JOURNALISM

Hampden-Sidney College, Virginia, to Make an Experiment—Davidson College Graduating Class. Correspondence of The Observer. Davidson, May 15.—Rev. Dr. Graham, who returned from his visit to Union Theological Seminary and Hampden-Sidney College a few days ago, reports among other things of interest to this city, that North Carolina would care to hear. The first is that a rich and generous friend of the seminary has promised Dr. Moore $1,500 for five years to be used as salary for a tutor or instructor in Hebrew, who will teach the first or fall term and in the second term act as field agent for the seminary. Dr. Moore carrying on the class work. Mr. Gilmore, who has made a fine success in canvassing this past year, $42,000 or more having passed through his hands, was appointed to the place.

The second item is that old Hampden-Sidney, that has such a proud and brilliant history of more than a century, thinks it has made a gain in securing a handsome endowment for its new chair to be established this fall for training young men in journalism. The experiment, for such it is, will be watched with interest by all the colleges.

Mr. E. J. Erwin, of the present graduating class at Davidson, has been awarded the medal offered by the literary societies to the writer of the best fiction contributions to the Davidson Magazine.

Mr. R. Gillespie will again this summer act as field agent for the college. He begins his work next Monday.

Chief Marshal Jackson and his assistants are busy distributing the commutation invitations. These are in the latest design and, while plain are very handsome.

The Munroe-Letton Drug Company and the J. A. Wina Company have arranged to consolidate their business and will hereafter be constituted as one firm. The consolidation will be effective about June 1. The firm will occupy the former business premises.

The following constitute the graduating class of Davidson College: Joseph Lawrence Adams, Asheville; Willis Farran Bailey, Greenville; Herman Louis Cathey, Charlotte; James Franklin Coleman, Soddy, Tenn.; Joe Barrett Denton, Dalton, Ga.; Edward Jones Erwin, Mountain View; Wellington Faison, Charlotte; Andrew Pierson Hassell, Hickory; Andrew Hutson Hay, Liberty Hill, S.
