

DETACHED COUPONS SOLD.

Mr. C. W. Wadsworth Purchases $5,118 of Detached Coupons of the Bonds of Stanly County for $3,500.

Detached coupons of the bonds of Stanly county representing interest due in the sum of $5,118, were sold in front of the court house yesterday afternoon by Mr. J. C. Springs, executor of the estate of H. G. Springs, deceased.

The coupons were first bid in by Mr. C. H. Dula, in lots of 25 each, for $2,950. When offered for sale in the aggregate, they were purchased by Mr. Charles F. Wadsworth for $3,500.

Years ago, Stanly county issued $100,000 in 5 per cent bonds. After their issuance, the question of their validity arose.

There is some question as to the amount that these coupons really represent. The accrued interest on the whole issue amounts to a little less than $7,000.

JUST BACK FROM THE EAST.

Mr. R. F. Crist, Special Agent of the Department of Labor and Commerce, in the City—Something of the China Trade.

IN THE CITY POLICE COURT.

"Big 97" Sent to Jail for Dispensing Bug-Juice for Privileged Persons in Sessam Centers Around the Advertisements of Isadore Robinson's Billy Goat—Other Cases.

Interest in the city police court yesterday morning centered around the adventures of a billy goat. There were other cases with interesting features but Billy's appetite was responsible for the appearance of the star defendant in court.

Allice Allen, a partly colored dame, more familiarly known as "Big 97," was arraigned on the charge of dispensing bug-juice as a means of accumulating coin.

John Robert Sims and F. H. Counts, two blind baggage tourists who had been induced by Deputy Policeman Pike to make a sojourn in the Queen City, were charged with violating a State law by riding on the outside of a car.

Simp Linder, Joe Sharp and Will Hayes were given another degree in the Order of Unregenerated Boozers Artists. The fee was $10 in each case.

CAUSE OF FALLING HAIR.

Dandruff, which is a Germ Disease—Kill the Germ.

Falling hair is caused by dandruff, which is a germ disease. The germ in burrowing into the root of the hair, where it destroys the vitality of the hair, causing the hair to fall out, dig up the cuticle in little scales, called dandruff or scurf.
