it occurred in the afternoon and was so violent as to shake down movable articles in houses, and formed a memorable epoch in the annals of the country.

1660.—Mary Dyer executed. She was a Quakeress, who had been banshed from Massachusetts, and on her return was sentenced to death for "rebellious sedition and obtruding herself after banishment on pain of death."

1764.—The French carried off all the inhabitants of Turks' Island, in the West Indies, with nine English vessels.

in the West Indies, with nine English vessels.

2774.—Boston port bill went into operation. Business closed at noon, and the harbor was shut against all vessels. The citizens, on a short notice of 20 days, were deprived of the means of gaining a subsistence. Contributions were raised in other cities for their relief, and the inhabitants of Marblehead offered the merchants the use of their wharves. Universal indignation spread through the colonies against this high-handed measure of the British King and Parliament.

1780 .- American privateer Pickering, 16 guns, Capt. Harridon, cap-tured British ship Golden Eagle, pecial to The Observer.

Winston-Salem, May 31. — Sam Kobre, William Plean and J. E. Whitbeck, Indicted for the murder of Henry Kobre, were acquitted in Superior Court this morning without argument to the jury and upon instruction of Judge Peebles to the 12 men who were called to pass upon the innacence or will of the upon the innocence or guilt of the three defendants. It was after 11 o'clock when counsel for the State and defense an-nounced that all of the evidence they wished to submit was in Judge Peebles then ordered the release of Sallie Stewart from jail and the dis-charge of all the witnesses. His honor instructed the sheriff to take the jury out for a few minutes. Judge Peebles then asked the counsel for the State to show him where they tured British ship Golden Eagle, had any evidence incriminating any of the defendants, outside of that — John Adams, the first Minister given by Sallie Stewart. "I would not let a yellow dog be hanged on the testimony of Sallie Stewart," said his honor, who, continuing, added that none of the evidence tended to corroborate the evidence of Sallie. "If a verdict should be returned against these men I should set it aside," said Judge Peebles. "One or more of these men may be guilty, but you haven't proved it," said his honor, addressing the counsel for the prose-

JUDGE ADDRESSES THE JURY. Addressing the jury, after the 12 men returned, Judge Peebles said: "I have followed the evidence in this case very closely, but failed to find any to support the testimony of Sallie Stewart and I do not think any 12 general, died. PRISONERS LIBERATED. The counsel for the defendants asked for a discharge of the prisoners, Solicitor Graves said he had nothing further against the men. The court then ordered the discharge of Kobre, William Plean and J. E. Whitbeck. The three men arose and shook hands with their counsel. Plean embraced his wife, who had sat by him throughout the trial. The men then left the court room with relaives and friends.

After the prisoners had been reeased some of their friends in the court room started to express their pleasure by ciapping their hands, but Judge Peebles gave notice that such would not be permitted and that he would punish all who attempted it.

It is estimated that the trial has ost the county not less than $2,000. After the Kobre case had been disposed of Julius Farrish, colored, indicted for burglary, was brought in and his counsel tendered a plea of burglary in the second degree. FOURTEEN YEARS FOR GLENN. Rev. N. L. Glenn, colored, convicted in two cases of carnal knowledge of two girls under 14 years, was brought in for sentence. Motion for new trial was over-ruled and his ap-pearance bond was fixed at $1,000. The defendant was given six years at hard labor in the penitentlary in the first case and eight years in the second, the latter sentence to begin at the expiration of the first. Counsel for Glenn plead guilty in the other two cases against him and Judge Peebles suspended judgement. Glenn announced that he was not guilty and refused to submit to such procedure.
