Secretary Loeb to-day gave out the following summary of the letter President Roosevelt wrote Chairman Wadsworth regarding the inspection of meat products:

GIST OF PRESIDENT'S LETTER. "In the letter to Mr. Wadsworth the President stated that almost every change in the proposed House amendment was a change for the worse as compared with the Senate amend-ment, and that, no matter how unintentional, it was, in the dent's judgment, so framed as to min-imize the chance of rooting out the evils in the packing business; that the President feit it would doubtless sui those packers who objected to a ther ough inspection, but that he also fel ough inspection, but that he heavy it would be in the long run a heavy blow to the honest stock-raiser and the honest packer; that the proposed the honest packer; that the proposed amendment would hamper the Secretary of Agriculture in doing the work appointed him to do, and would simply defer the day when we could restore the foreign and filter-State trade in meat to a satisfactory position. The President has explained verbally that he is far loss concerned with the question as to whether the packers or the government should pay for the inspection than with cer-tain other features in the bill.

After an informal conference this morning of the members of the agricultural committee who voted to re-port the substitute meat inspection bill to which the President objects, Chairman Wadsworth consulted with Speaker Cannon on the Subject. Mr. Wadsworth declined to make any statement, but the Speaker, upon be ing asked regarding the situation, has cipal points of objection to the sub-stitute in the report.

After stating that the packers are to blame for existing conditions, the report says: "Can it be tolerated that those whose acts have endangered the public health and underminded the public confidence shall escape from the condition which they created without penalty of any kind and with the added premium of $2,000,000 annually from the Treasury of the United States to pay the expenses

COURT REVIEW DENOUNCED. The court review provision of the substitute is characterized as "a sword over the heads of the inspectors engaged in the discharge of their duties, and to cripple materially the efficiency of the service." Under this provision the report says a Federal circuit judge can review the finding of any inspector, and of the Secretary of Agriculture, whether on a point of smaltstion or with respect to the con-

Chairman Wadsworth has written a letter to President Roosevelt in reply to that received by him from the White House last night.

It is pointed out by Representatives Adams, Brooks and Lorimer, members of the committee, that the lack of night inspection to which the President calls attention as being a fault of the substitute, is provided for in two paragraphs of the substitute bill. In one place the language is, "said in spectors shall have access at all times to every part of said establishment." In another, referring to the inspection to be made, the language is, "during the night time as well as during the day time when the slaughtering of said cattle, sheep, swine, and gosts or the preparation of said food products is conducted during the night time,"

Well, I came down here expecting to hear the finest intellectual scrap on that colored clergy question that ever took place in the ate. It meant the final settlement of the matter. Yesterday was the warmest debate ever heard on it, but the colored men took no part, as they did last year, Spruill and Bux-ton leading it. Hon. John S. Hender-son made a very fine speech on the matter and Rev. W. L. London opposed him in a very sensible speech There were a few other "who also" spoke. And there were still others who meant "also" to speak to-day They slept on their thoughts. But the matter was quickly settled by Dr. Murdock, who introduced the resolution. Major H. A. London yesterday had the floor for this morning, but was gracious and, anticipating Dr. Murdock's resolution, surren-dered it. He withdrew it, but therein lies the whole story. The colored people indicated to Bishop Cheshire their desire to bring up the matter at their next convention. They saked that the convention postpone further consideration of the matter therefore, and Dr. Murdock moved that the question be deferred until next convention. And all who were tocked and primed for debate are now in position to say that the speeches made yesterday were nothing com-pared with those that were not de-WILL NEVER BE VOTED OUT. The matter, in a word, is this-the colored clergy will never be voted out of the North Carolina Diocese. They have noticed the growing disatisfaction of the Diocese and, satisfaction of the Diocese and, at the next meeting, they will ask the division themselves. There is yet a strong sentiment in the Diocese against the separation. There are a few clergymen in the Diocese to whom the argument of the Southerner against racial differences and prejudice in no wise appeals and their talk on the floor and privately yesterday was much too broad for North Caro-lina yet. And then it was very evident that Mr. Spruill remembers many of his pretty periods in his campaign speeches of 1900. His address was unfortunate and intemperate, wonderfully eloquent.

Washington, June 15 .- By a vote of 110 to 36, the House to-day at the end of a two hours' debate on the appropriations for the Panama Canal, decided that the canal should be of a lock type. After listening to the speech of Mr. Burton, of Ohio, in favor of the lock type and consuming an hour in the discussion of the amendment defining the type as presented by Mr. Littauer, of New York, the House in committee of the whole, expressed its opinion in favor of a lock canal. By a decisive vote, the House refused to sanction the purchase of materials in the markets of the world for the Panama Canal, tion commission. The latter, as is the general position of the Republicans being that as the canal was to be built by American taxes, the American workingman and the American manufacturer should have the advantage. Mr. Sullivan, of Massachusetts, and his associates on the Democratic side of the House attempted to put a limitation on the money voted for the further continuation of the Panama Canal by compelling the Isthmian Canal commission to accept the lowest bid as a result of advertisements in the manner established by the canal commission. Mr. Sullivan offered a proviso to that effect, which created an extended discussion.

Both Mr. Dalzell and Mr. Payne insisted that as the Panama Canal was erican people they believe that the American workingman and the American manufacturer should have the enefit of the markets this afforded. Mr. Payne, of New York, called attention to the fact that the Senate had passed a joint resolution determining once for all who should be vote down every attempt to throw the purchases away from the American people, and this the Republicans did, Mr. Sullivan's amendment being

Alabama Senator Becomes Optimis-tic Regarding Panama Project— Bill Chartering Lake Eric and Ohio River Canal Meets Opposition. Washington, June 15.—The time of the

between the Panama Canal bill and the yesterday, upon the invitation of Lake Erie and Ohio River Ship Canal packers. The Maharajah said ti bill. On the former there were speeches by Senators Teller and Morgan, while in connection with the latter a number of Senators engaged in a controversy over the policy of granting a national charter to an inter-State canal. Senator Bacon took positive ground against such a course and spoke at length in presentation of his views.

Senator Morgan expressed the opinion in the Senate to-day that the Panama Canal will prove a paying investment. "Let us get rid of the idea that we are going to give away a great deal of money in connection with the canal," said the Alabama Senator. "I believe that if it were a stock concern the stock would be worth 500 on the Sicole.

Alabama Aliness Accept New after its completion, notwithusanting I fully appreciate the physical difficulties in the way of building a canal at the place decided upon. Let us, therefore, put away all hysteria and despair on the financial feature of the canal project."

Advocates of Appalachian Forest Reserved Bill, Who Had Abandoned All Hope of Pavorable Action at Present Session of Congress, Elated at Prospect for Passage of Bill Held Out by Senator Overman—Postmaster DePriest, of Shelby, It Seems, Must Go—Senator Simmons Endorsed for Re-Election by Fity Counties.

By W. A. HILDEBRAND.

Observer Bureau, 1417 G Street, N. W., Washington, June 15,

All unexpectedly hope has been revived among the advocates of Appalachian forest reserve bill. several weeks the belief has obtained that it was all over with the so far as the present session is concerned, but Senator Overman, who drafted the compromise bill, now says there is a chance to secure the passage of the bill through the Senate in a day or so. SHELBY POSTMASTER WILL HAVE TO GO.

Unless all signs fail Postmaster De-Priest, of Shelby, will have to go. Several days ago Congressman Webb called at the Department and requested information concerning this matter and the statement was made that he would be advised of the situation by mail the next day. Of course this civil question went unanswered, but Mr. Webb called at the Department second time, when he told the First Assistant Pastmaster General that he was very desirous of getting the information, as some of the patrons of the Shelby office had written to ask him to ask whether there were any charges against the present postmaster. Mr. Webb observed to Hitchcock that he regarded this as a very simple request and he felt that it was his duty to respond to his contitutents seeking information of this character. Mr. Hitchcock then ap-peared to view the matter in this light himself and he answered that, several months ago, an inspector had een sent to Shelby and had reported that the office was not in very good condition and that recently another aspector had made a report to the Department which tended to confirm what had been said by the first inspector. Mr. Webb then told Mr. Hitchcock that this was all he cared to know as he simply wanted answer those who had appealed to him for information. As heretofore stated, it is understood that Mr. Rellins, before he relinquished the chairmanship, endorsed Editor Quinn, of The Shelby Aurora, for the place, and it is assumed that Chairman Adams will ratify all endorsements of his Chairman Adams saw predecessor. Mr. Hitchcock while here yesterday. POSTMASTER MEEKINS TO SPEAK.

Several days ago it was reported that some of the Federal officeholders of the eastern part of the State were showing a disposition to support Blackburn in the contest which the Republican congressman is having with the leaders of his own party. O interest, in view of this report, is the report that Postmaster Meekins, of Elizabeth City, has authorized the announcement that he will speech on the occasion of the Republican congressional convention in
