STATESVILLE 7; MTN, ISLAND 0. Iredell Team Adds Another Laurel by Defeating Team Considered One

Special to The Observer.
Statesville, July 20.—Statesville's shut out what is said to be the best team in the State here this afternoon in a prely game, with an old leage man in the box. A large crowd was out the largest that has witnessed a game here this sear son. Mountain island came here contident that he would win and there was that has witnessed a game here connicted on Mountain Island came here connicted that she would win and there was fear here that the home team would go down under the power of these heavy men, some unusually heavy. There were old mu on th tain, also, while the States ville boys are all what one might call "kids." The game started off with no run up to the third inning, when States ville made her first run. From this on stille made her first run. From this on mountain Island made nothing. The pitching by Clement was ideal, He pitched of the county did not have they could the game of his life. For Register of Deeds of Mecklepburg county, subject to the action of the Democratic primaries of August 7. Mountain Island name of the life pitch-ptering by Clement was ideal. He pitch-ed the glime of his life. But this was not all. He had excellent support. It was easy for the home least to hit Leonard, while Clement was highligh, striking out it men and allowing but three safe hits. The feature of the game, nutside the superh pitching of clement, was the splendid catching of clement, was the splendid catching of Clement, was the splendid catching of Sherrill and the trocky batting of the Statesydde team, when hits made rins This was Clement's initial appearance and he has made an excellent appearance with his work has won for him a warm place in the hearts of the baseball fairs of the city. The home team, as a whole, played an excellent game. The ciutors did well, but somehow the boys here just well, but somehow the boys here just play good fail. Only two games have been lost this season by the Statesville team and that was beture the present team was organized. They wan both games with Salisbury played two with Lendr and wan both won two out of three with Charlotte, won the only one played with Hiddenite Statesville has played two games with Pavidson and has wen one.
