

NO PLAY-TIME FOR ARCHDUKE MAX.

Probably the hardest worked buy in Europe is eleven year-old Archduke Maximilian, of Austria. Some day he will be Emperor of Austria, his family calculates, and he is being put through such a course of sprouts would take the heart out of any boy.

Besides being taught the thousand and one things other Austrian children are bothered with, he has Besides being taught the thousand and one things other Austrian children are bothered with, he has to learn the Hungarian, Bohemian, Polish and Italian languages, which are spoken in different sections of the Empire by his future subjects; he has to study the organization of the armies in Europe, the art of leading in war and manifold other matters to qualify him to be the ruler of 50,090,000 people of different races.

All this takes up his time from 8 o'clock in the morning until 6 in the evening, with half an hour for lunch. He has no companion, no friend, no play-fellow—nothing but grown men and masters, some of them old pedants. Consequently the strain is beginning to show on the boy and the royal physician has just ordered a drastic revision of his daily programme.

FOR HAUDING LIQUOR.

R. A. Christenbury and J. H. Mayhow Tried at Mooresville for Unlawfully Handling the Ardent, the Former Being Bound Over to Federal Court. Special to The Observer.

Mooresville, July 27.—The preliminary trial of R. A. Christenbury and J. H. Mayhew was held this afternoon in open court before Esquires A. M. Walker and C. V. Volis, the men being charged with unlawfully hauling liquor into our town, having been captured with seven or eight gallons in their possession Tuesday night. The discovery was made by Deputy J. M. Deaton, a liveryman. Ghristenbury hired a team to go to Huntersville to see a sick brother, but turned his course and went to Salisbury. For this offense Mr. Deaton grought suit and indicted the man for stealing a ride, after Christenbury refused to pay a difference for the hire. The trial to-day occasioned considerable interest. A number of our most repinterest. A number of our most rep-resentative and best citizens swore that they believed that Christenbury sold liquor. There are a number of cases against the man, one for haulcases against the man, one for hauling liquor, one for selling liquor, one for selling liquor, one for "toting" a pistol, and one for stealing a ride, all of which will come up at Statesville court next week. He is now out on bond. Besides the liquor captured Tuesday night, Wednesday night Deputy Deaton seized 11 quarts of liquor from one man named Cristo, who stated that the liquor belonged to Christophyry. All of this onged to Christenbury. All of this ten or 11 gallons was taken in custody before the big picnic of yesterday and will be turned over to the internal revenue officers.

was listed among the Republicans until last week when a friend of mine handed me this communication. In fact. I am not cognizant of my relations with the Republican party at of my Democratic friends could suppose for a moment that I had deserted the old ship, for I have been a Democrat since I could vote and expect to remain so as long as I can vote and remain in my right mind. There is absolutely no foundation for any such unjust criticism as made in the Asheville paper. I did attend the Republican convention with a body of Democrats and while present one of the leading Republicans in speaking to the convention made statements directly opposite to what I had told him in a private interview and in response and contra-diction to his remarks I addressed the convention and in my talk I stated to this Republican that, if he expected to continue such remarks as he had made, some good Democrat would meet him outside of his con-vention and do him political hurts. So don't be alarmed, boys, I am still in line with Democracy and if there is a reporter present I wish he would make this statement for me in print, and if so, I hope that The Asheville Gazette-News will do me the courtesy to copy this, so that my friends who read that paper can tell where stand." About 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon the old water-grist mill at Bun-yan, five miles from this city, on the Hatte road, was totally destroyed by recent heavy rains in that section. The entire mill plant was washed away. This mill has been located at Bunyan for the past 38 years and was used to grind meal. It belonged to Mr. W. S. D. Eborn and was val-ued at $1,000. Several of the bridges on the road below Bunyan have also been washed away and citizens in that part of the county report their crops seriously damaged. This is the heav-lest rainfall that has occurred in this county in years and in many places the roads are completely submerged, ren-

BIG LAND DEAL.

Tree-Thousand Arce Tract in Warren County Changes Hands—Scotland Neck to Purchase Fire Engine. Special to The Observer.

Scotland Neck, July 27)-One of the largest land deals made in this community in 20 years is one just consummated by Messrs. Biggs and G. K. Moore. It is a 3,000-acre tract of timber and farm land in Warren county, a few miles from Warrenton, known as the Peter Davis property. was sold by Messrs. Alston Bickett, of Louisburg, and the price paid was $3,000.

A mass meeting of the citizens of the town was held one night this week to consider the matter of purchasing a fire engine for the town. In view of the great loss the town has sustained by fire within the past two years it was the sense of the citizens that the commissioners should purchase an engine. It will be a double cylinder gasoline engine with horse power attached. It will be ready for use perhaps in 60 days. Some nights ago a well-known and highly respected colored man, Henry Dixon, went into a stall to a mule about 25 years old. The mule kicked him and he died from the wound in less than two days.
