 The Dry Goods Market.

 New York, July 28.—The dry goods

 market was quiet to-day but more confidence was expressed as a consequence of a fair trade during the week. White scods were still very strong: linens are high and buyers are holding off; burlaps easier and quieter as a consequence of large arrivals of supplies during the week. Silk imports for the month show an increase as compared with last year. Cotton goods were generally firm.

Miller & Co.'s Cotton Letter. sectal to The Observer. New York, July 28 - The near approach

New Orleans and which has so com-bietely crumbled out. The reports of show the state of the way. We look for com-merce show serious every deterioration in generation of the way. The near approach is so and are therefore ready to take profits on every small decline. Crop re-siderable bearish activity. Spot markets throughout the South began to show the effects of withdrawal er that support which came solely from the July squeeze in New Orleans and which has so com-bietely crumbled out. The reports as com-difference and so the course of the way of the same damage in North and South Carolina, but exceptionally from the great collon growing thate of Texas, where conditions are very heard from the great collon growing State of Texas, where conditions are very avorable, and Louisiana and Arkanaaa, which have an exceedingly fine promise at the present moment. The new State of Oktahoma will begin at the present moment.

The new State of Okinhoma will begin is maden year with a prompect of perhaps a crop of a million bales. In all this, there is certainly nothing to suggest that the forthcoming report will show any failing from the July condition.
Liverpool had closed before The Journal of Commerce report on Mississipping and Arkansas was available, and on Monday.
The Times-Democrat's monthly review of the whole crop situation, which as well as otherwise than favorable on the average. We believe in selling cotton on every rise, and in hospitals. That is all I can all in hospitals. The time new cotion begins to move freely.

Monday. MILLER & CO. Hubbard Bros. & Co.'s Cotton Letter. Bredial to The Observer. New York, July 28.—To-day has been a regular midsummer Saturday market with very few orders in the hands of commission houses and consequently a small business done with variations at the most of three to four points. The market finally closing at about one point below yesterday's. Crop reports coming are of a very favorable tenor except from a few places in Georgia and the Caro-lings where too much rain is complain-ed of.

M. Haves, in New York World, Some ten years ago there was a clothing store on Broadway just above John street, the same company had another store at Chambers street and Broadway. I went to the store near John street and bought a $10 near John street and bought a $10 suit. Russell Sage was looking over the $5 suits. Wolff, the salesman, took me near enough to hear what he said. He bought a $7.50 suit and paid at the cashier's window imme-diately before I paid my $10. I was making $12 a week at the time. So Mr. Sage did not pay $12 all the time for his suits of clothes. The malesman jokingly asked me at the lime to always remember the inci-
