FEARLY MEETING CLOSES PROCESSFUL EVER HELD

pistles From California and Other Distant Yearly Meetings Read—An Advanced Step Taken—splentia Reverl Made by President Hobbs— Meetings on Sunday All That Could be Desired—Interest in Foreign Historia.

egial to The Observer.

Guilford College, Aug. 18.—The ina Yearly Meeting of Friends morning. The principal business at the last ression was the reading of epistics from California, Western, Wilmington, Ohio, Canada and Iowa Yearly Meetings, Also an epistic from the fleeting on ministry and over-aight was read to the Yearly Meetaght was read to the Yearly Meeting. There was one note running through the entire epistle, which will be of great significance to the entire Church in the State. Mrs. Mary M. Hohbs read the epistle, and emphasized especially the great thought that Friends ministers must be educated and that they must be supported by a constituency. Perhaps the epistle took the most advanced ground ever taken by the Yearly Meeting.

Other miscellaneous business came before the meeting. Arthur Paine and wife, the miscellaneous further priends, have just arrived on furlough and were present at the meeting. It was announced that Jos. M. Purdie of the class of 1906 of Guilford College, will shortly sail for Cuba, as a missionary, and a collection of the water of the collection of the coll hortly sail for Cuba, as a missionary, and a collection of $45 was taken for his support.

Everything considered, Friends say that the session just closed was the most successful ever held. There was no sign of discord in the proceedings. The entire membership seems to be working harmoniously, every one having in mind the advancement of the Church.

President Hobbs acted as presiding elerk for the 21st consecutive time. Indeed President Hobbs has been at the clerk's table either as clerk or assistant for over 30 years. He said to the reporter to-day that the reports from the different departments were never so encouraging as they were the year Engaging is they were never so encouraging as they were this year. Especially is this true of the evangelistic and Church extension work. Prof. Thomas Newlin was reappointed superintendent of the work and David Sampson field evangelist.

Mrs. Sue V. Hollowell, of Goldsbord, was appointed superintendent of the work on the suppression of the liquer traffic to fill the vacancy caused.

The meetings on Sunday were all that could be expected. Dr. Barton conducted the adult Sunday school at 9:30, and Rev. Ell Reese the primary department. At the 11 o'clock service Allen Jay preached to a packed audience in the auditorium. Dr Barton occupied the same hour in the college chapel in King Hall, and Arthur Chilson and wife conducted the meeting in the church. In the aftereting in the church. In the after-n Dr. Barton preached in the aucupied the pulpit in the church. Again at the evening service Allen Jay preached in the auditorium: All the services were characterized by the services were characterized by excellent sermons and thoughtful at-

Dr. Barton is among the foremost preachers and Biblical scholars in America. Having been a recorded minister for nearly 30 years, and durng that time being actively engaged a Biblical research. He is well fitted to fill the place he now occupies, that of professor of the Semitic departof Bryn Mawr College. Just ment of Bryn Mawr College. Just now he is preparing a commentary on Ecclesiastes for the International Crit-ical Commentary Series Allen Jay is so well known by Carolinians that no turther reference to him would be necessary.

TATE FEDERATION OF LABOR.

lest Annual Convention Called to Order at Asheville Yesterday—Com-nitrees Named—Trolley Ride Over the City To-Day.

lins State Federation of Labor was called to order this morning at 10 o'clock by President Neal, of Charlotte. The sessions are being held in the city auditorium. There was come misunderstanding relative to the date for the opening session, the impression having galaced circulation that the convention would not be called to order until to-morrow. After the convention was called to order Rev. Dr. Lunsford, pastor of the First Baptist church, led in prayer, Sam Waldrop, of Asheville, a wellknown labor union man, welcomed the delegates to Asheville in a neat and timely address. He assured the vis-itors that they were welcome and that more than 1,000 labor union men of Asheville were glad to have representatives of organized labor from lina here. Little business was trans-acted this morning save the appoint-ment of the various committees. Following were the committees appoint-Credentials, O. R. Jarrett, O. F. Lewis, J. T. Miller and W. F. Millersham; laws, E. S. Cheek, W. C. Frank and L. H. Duncan; rules of business, G. T. Norwood, L. Viola and I. W. Thomas; officers reports, Sam Waldrop, Z. C. Fisher and J. S. Pender; resolutions, W. J. Turnbull, T. Burknett and J. H. Buffalo; organization, G. R. Jarrett, W. F. Millersham and J. T. Miller. J. T. Miller.

At 9 o'clock to-morrow morning the local committee on entertainment will extend to the visiting delegutes a trolley ride over the city and at 1:30 to-morrow afternoon all the delegates will be extended a drive over the Biltmore estate. The convention will adjourn Wednesday afvention will adjourn Wednesday af-ternoon or evening with the election of officers for the ensuing year. Among the important matters that will probably be considered by the labor union representatives will be a discussion of the part that labor will take in the approaching election this year. There are about 50 dele-gates in attendance.

SCHOOL IN GAPPINEY DEPOT.

Her-Man Eventually Makes His E-cape.

Special to The Observer.

Gaffney, R. C., Aug. 13.—An unusual and exceedingly lively scene occurred at the Southern depot in this city this morning when No. 25, the northbound passenger train was in the act of leaving the yards. The attention of a large crowd at the depot was suddenly attracted by the piercing scream of a woman and the sudden stop of the train. The conductor was then seen leading a sobbing woman to the train and inquiring if she wished to go on that train. The woman was completely unnerved with excitement and frightened and could only cry out—"Yes, yes, but I have lost him." Him seemed to apply to her husband, who, inquiry disclosed, was a Mr. Ripps.

A police officer informed the reporter that the man was desirous of leaving the woman, and that he had made previous attempts, with the end in view. They are thought to have come to this city from Shelby, N. C., supposedly a week or two ago. The officer went on to state that the woman had followed him closely over the city on Sunday.

As the train moved out they were seen near the track engaged in conversation, when the man made a break for the cars with the woman at his heels. He made the steps of the train, but the woman in attempting to do likewise fell and would have gone beneath the wheels and been killed, but for the quickness of the conductor, who caught and pulled down the train. The man was not seen again.

TROUBLES OF YOUR OWN

Salisbury has troubles, and a plenty of them, and she'll continue to have them as long as mean liquor holds undisputed sway. Get rid of it, good people, get rid of it, and join your fair sister, Mecklenburg, in her gind march to peace, sweet peace, and prosperity abundant. Why, I wouldn't exchange my humble home, surrounded by sobriety and a host of brave and peaceful home-pwners, for the gilded palace of the gods, if it were in an atmosphere of corn liquor, with its natural offspring.

Now, you men and boys who know more of Salisbury than you ought, take building and loan stock, in the Mutual, if you will; if not, then somewhere else, and hos along this line and you'll not be found in lynching parties.

Build a home for mother, sister or some other girl—the homeowner is seldom in a lawless mob. Save your money, all of you, white and black, and you're not likely to disgrace your county or grieve those who care for you.

The Mutual Building & Loan is now open.
