ratic primaries to-day resulted n a victory for Hoke Smith, candidate for Governor, unprecedented in the size of his majority. Of the 145 counties in the State he has carried probably 116. By the returns available at 11 o'clock to-night, Clark Howell carried six countles; J. H. Estill, of Savannah, two; B. B. Russell, cight; and James M. Smith, three, leaving 18 to hear from. This result will give Hoke Smith 254 votes in the State tion of a total of 366.

Mr. Howell's paper, The Constitun in its pret edition, concedes more in one hundred countles to Hoke of and says his nomination for Governor on the first ballot in the a is practically assured.

FIRE CHIEF GETS MAYORALTY. In the city primaries, Captain W. R. mer, for 20 or more years chief of a fire department, was nominated r mayor by a majority of $55 votes. One of the most strenuous po palgus in the history of Georgia ras concluded to-day in the State Democratic primaries, which were sid throughout the State to nominate omplete State and county tickets, andidates for Supreme Court Justices, a United States Senator to succeed Senator. THE SMITH-HOWELL CONTEST.

For the office of Governor five candidates have been balloted for. This assumates are: Clark Howell, editor of The Atlanta Constitution: J. H. Estill, editor of The Savannah Morning News; Hoke Smith, former Secretary of the Interior under President Cleveland; Judge R. B. Rassell a prominent attorney of Jackson county; and James M. Smith, of Oglethorpe county. The particular interest of the campaign has been between Mr. Howell and Hoke Smith. The latter began his campaign through the State more than fourteen months ago. He has opposed Mr. Howell with the charge of being the representative of the so-called "railroal ring." The question of negro distranchisement also has entered färgely into the discussions of the campaign. The method by which this should be accomplished has been a question much considered.

MAYORALTY FIGHT IN ATLANTA.

Consequently, the vote by counties is watched with Greatest interest. The polls in the cities closed at 7 o'clock this evening. In the country precincts they closed at 3 p, m. Reports from different parts of the State, received to an early hour this evening, show a good vote polled. In Atlanta the early vote was especially heavy, more than half the entire registered vote heing cast by noon. Additional interest has been added to the voting to-day by a city Democratic primary, which Captain W. R. Joyner, for more than a score of years chief of the fire department and one of the best known fire fighters in the country, was the candidate for mayor. Howas opposed by Thomas H. Goodwin, formerly a member of the fire department, This campaign has been brief but spirited, Goodwin having bethan a score of years chief of the fire department and one of the best known fire fighters in the country, was the candidate for mayor. He was opposed by Thomas H. Goodwin. formerly a member of the fire department. This campaign has been brief but spirited, Goodwin having behind him a considerable pertion of the labor vote. Captain Joyner asked the nomination on the basis of his long record in the service of the city.

A feature of the entire State campaign has been the strongly opposed positions of The Atlanta Journal, formerly owned by Hoke Smith. Which has been urging his election, and The Constitution, edited by Mr. Howell.

Senator Bacon is unopposed and his renomination is assured.

Four candidates are seeking the place made vacant-by the death of Congressman Lester in the second district, and in the third district. Congressman Elijah B. Lewis is opposed by Dudley M. Hughes.

In the primary to-day the vote has been cast direct for the various candidates on the ticket. Under the Georgia State primary law, the candidate for Governor receiving the largest individual vote in each county is entitled to name the delegates to the State Democratic convention from that county, each county being entitled to twice as many delegates as it has representatives, in the lower branch of the Legislature. The State convention will be held at Macon, Sept. 4.
