FANCIFUL STORIES OF FEVER IN CHARLOTTE.

Reports which are very much exaggerated have gone abroad as to the prevalence of typhoid fever in Charlotte, and even in the city there may be misconception as to the extent to which the disease prevails.

Believing attempted concealment about such things to be the very worst possible policy, it has been that of The Observer to deal with the public in a spirit of perfect frankness.

NEWLY DEVELOPED FACTS AS TO THE DECLARATION. Rev. Dr. J. B. Mack contributes to this morning's paper an exceedingly interesting article of which Rev. Heskiah James Balch, one of the signers of the Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence, is the subject, and which sets forth details never heretofore published, so far as we know, of the proceedings of the meetings in Charlotte on the 19th and 20th of May, 1775.

THE IDEA OF A RURAL CONSTABULARY, with the special view of the protection of our country women and children, which has lately been projected, has been received with a surprising degree of favor.

NEGRO TROOPS NON GRATA. The Observer was not far from when it made observation the other day to the effect that the four regiments of regular negro troops form an unwieldy black elephant on the hands of the War Department.

According to the Boston correspondent of The Observer, Charlotte is to have two distinguished visitors in the near future. They are Pauline Currier and Abbeola Hoos, prominent cotton manufacturers of India.

THE CRUISER "NORTH CAROLINA."

This kindly suggestion is from the Charlotte News and Courier. On October 5 the armored cruiser North Carolina, which is to be one of the fleet ships in the United States navy, will be launched at Newport News.

While The Observer naturally feels grateful, as all North Carolinians will, for the neighborly spirit which prompts this suggestion of their good friend, and assures it that we would feel almost as much at home among the good people of Charleston on such occasion as under our own vine and fig tree, acceptance of such invitation would not be necessary.

PERSONALS. Mr. R. J. Woodcock, of Asheville, was among the guests at the Buford yesterday.

Mr. George H. Carter, of Sanford, was registered at the Central last night.

Mr. C. A. Smith, of the Oliver Typewriter Company, returned to the city last evening after spending some time at Asheville and other resorts in the mountains.

Mr. W. J. Donnelly returned to the city yesterday after spending a few days at Washington.

Hon. Marion Butler, of Elliott, was among the guests at the Hotel Buford last night.

Mr. J. Edgar Poag, of the Rock Hill, S. C., real estate broker, spent yesterday in the city.

Messrs. Archie H. Gray, Walter W. Waddill and James T. Castle, Jr., all of Danville, Va., are visiting Miss Lottie Gray, on North College street.

BRIEFS. The only victim of the police drag net yesterday and last night was a white youth named Hunuck, who got on the outside of too much who-bug juice and raised a goodly amount of cash at Elizabeth Hill. He was corralled by Patrolmen Malcolm and Henderson.

Mrs. Leigh Colyer is quite ill at her home at Elizabeth Heights. The recital address on International Peace delivered by Mr. Andrew Carnegie before the students of St. Andrew's, Scotland, last October, has just been published in America and a copy received in Charlotte.

Rowan Superior Court to-morrow. The regular August criminal term of the Rowan Superior Court will convene at Salisbury to-morrow morning. It is probable that the greater part of the time of the court will be taken up with the cases against the defendants who are charged with taking part in the recent lynching at Salisbury. It is hardly probable that the negroes in the Mecklenburg jail at present, charged with complicity in the murder of the Lysteris, will be tried at this term.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL. Mrs. T. J. Northey left yesterday for Mocksville, where she will be a guest at the home of Dr. B. C. Clements.

Mrs. Alexander Garrison, of Oklahoma City, Okla., has arrived in the city and will spend several weeks with her brother, Mr. Zeb. V. Kendrick, at Dilworth.

Mrs. Z. V. Kendrick and Miss Ursula Blank returned home last night after spending some time at Catawba Springs and Morganton.

Misses Minnie Davis and Nola Smith have returned home after spending some time at New York.

Miss Beas Boyte left last evening for Concord to visit friends.

LOST ALL HEART

Fought Many Hard Battles With the Eye Only to be Defeated and Completely Consumed the Enemy. Not One Disagreeable Feature in the Life of the Institution. The Keeley Institute, Greensboro, N. C.

It gives me pleasure to add my testimony to that of many others as to the efficacy of my treatment of alcoholism and kindred diseases. I spent the month of October, 1904, in the Keeley Institute at Greensboro, N. C. To be candid, I must confess that I went there more at the solicitations of my friends than from any confidence I had in the treatment. I had made so many honest efforts to break off from the use of whiskey, only to meet with failure.
