

IN THE REALM OF NORTH CAROLINA SOCIETY

WINSTON-SALEM.

Correspondence of The Observer.
Winston-Salem, Aug. 23.—One of the most charming social functions of this summer was that on Thursday evening given by Mrs. W. L. Brooks in honor of her sister, Miss L. Brooks, who is visiting in Winston-Salem. It was a salon grand party, and a table was arranged on the porch and indoors. At the head table a large horn announced the progressions. As a tally, each lady was presented with flags of pinacolo, lanterns while to the men were given beer steins, and their progression being marked with stars. The punch was served by Mrs. W. A. Lemey, assisted by Misses Pauline Peterson, Green Starbuck. The visitor's prize, a lovely bell pin, was won by Miss De Shany, of Ridgeway, Va., while Miss Kate Jenkins was awarded a bottle of Japanese toilet water, which was the first prize. Mrs. James Dunn drew for the consolation, Miss Hanes being successful, winning a little Japanese doll. A silver match box was presented to Mr. Russell Vaughn, making the delicious refreshments were served by Misses Ida Hineshaw and Daisy Brooks.

Mrs. John L. Gilmer entertained on Saturday evening at a delightful reception at her home on Southside in honor of her attractive guests, Misses Laura Hairston, of Oakhill, Va., Katherine Rison, of Danville, Va., Virginia and Wilmouth Cosy, of New York, and Misses Cora, of New York, and Jeff Rison, of Danville, Va.

Miss Charlotte Webb entertained very charmingly on Friday morning in honor of her attractive guest, Miss Rosa Crabtree, of Durham. After playing bridge whilst for quite a while, Miss Webb served a two course luncheon. Miss Webb's guests on this occasion were: The honor guest, Miss Crabtree, and Misses Mary Bailey, May and Ruby Follin, Metta Watson, Delphine Brown and guest, Miss Maude Vinson, of Davidson, Misses Cynthia Jones, Patsy Osborne, of Georgia, who is her guest, and Kathleen Smith.

On Saturday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock Miss Maude Vinson was hostess to a few friends at her home, in honor of Miss Maude Vinson, of Davidson. The usual fascinating game of bridge whilst was played, after which a delightful course luncheon was served. Those who enjoyed Miss Vinson's hospitality were: Misses Vinson, Delphine Brown, May and Ruby Follin, Mary Bailey, Mary Cromer, Kathleen Smith, Charlotte Webb and Rosa Crabtree.

A very enjoyable dance was participated in on Wednesday evening at the armory. About 40 couples were present. Among the out-of-town guests, were: Misses Laura Hairston, Katherine Rison, of Virginia; Virginia and Wilmouth Cosy, of New York; Gladys Stitt, of Texas, and Messrs. Malcolm Cosby and Jeff Rison. This dance was chaperoned by Mesdames DeLoz Thomas, John Gilmer and Doctor and Mrs. Phil Horton.

A very charming card party was given on Tuesday morning by Mrs. Clement Manly at her home on Summit street, in honor of Mrs. John Gilmer's guests, Misses Hairston, Rison and Cosy. Mrs. Manly was assisted in receiving by Mesdames William N. Reynolds, W. L. Leppert and John L. Gilmer. Progressive six-handed euchre was played. In the contest the first prize a lovely picture, was won by Mrs. George K. Tate, who has been visiting in Winston-Salem. The new book, "Fennicks Career," was presented to Miss Lilla Young. The visitor's prize was won by Miss Mary Lizzie Sizemore, of Clarksville, Va. After playing euchre for quite a while, Mrs. Manly served a charming two course luncheon. Mrs. Manly's out-of-town guests were the honor guests, Misses Hairston, Rison and Cosy, and Guder, of Asheville; Gladys Stitt, of Houston, Tex.; D. L. Horton, of Virginia; Mrs. Robert Lanister, of Henderson; Mrs. Norvell Walker, of Baltimore, Md., and Miss Susie Blitting, of Berkley, Cal.

The Woman's Club, Raleigh's largest and strongest social organization, will resume its work, laid aside during the summer, along several lines.

WADESBORO.

Correspondence of The Observer.
Wadesboro, Aug. 31.—Wadesboro is intensely patriotic and delights to honor those heroes who, on Southern soil, "stood plump, struck and fought like as never men fought until then." An eloquent message read in bronze and on stone stands before our local temple of justice, to teach children yet unborn the story of their sacred heritage, and the monument, in itself, is a mute tribute to the woman's spirit who was the helpmeet of the defender of the old South's glory. Wednesday was given to the reunion of the Confederate veterans and a glorious day we made it. The Daughters of the Confederacy, with the ministry of tender hands and loyal hearts, tendered a royal feast to the veteran braves and their wives, while a "flow of reason and feast of soul" was given them in the characteristic war speech of Hon. R. T.

Miss Braganza, of Florida, and Mr. Bradford Williams; Miss Ferrell, of South Carolina and Mrs. Bussy Lattimore; Miss Fay Webb and Mr. Hugh Houston; Legare who have been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Jones and her daughters, Misses Mabel and Lillian, have returned after a visit of several weeks in Elizabeth City.

Miss Estie and Bessie Williams of Florida and Miss Allie Nove of Charlotte are visiting at the home of Col. and Mrs. J. L. Gardner.—Mrs. H. D. Lee and daughters, Miss Lelia and ladies. The evening was an ideal one for an outing, the moonlight beautiful, and a stiff breeze, with a fast going launch, a jolly crew and the fun run down the river was very pleasant. Arriving at the park about 10 o'clock all repaired to a brilliantly lighted pavilion where the light fantastic was tripped off by the meet-makers until 12 o'clock, when most reluctantly they consented to leave. The trip home was made without mishap, arriving in the city about 12:30 o'clock. Moore's Band furnished the music. Those present were: Misses Jacqueline Woodard, Tarboro; Ruby Harding, Richmond; Davis, Salisbury; Hagan and Hattie Jones, Marlborough; Annie—Bright, Lucile Nicholson, Irene Morton, Tillie Morton, Mattie Laughinghouse, Claudia Simmons, Mamie Burbank, May Rummel, Dr. Moore, Messrs.
