CHARLOTTE DAILY OBSERVER, SEPTEMBER 2, 1906.

LE GOODS AND FALL BUSINESS

September 1st is here; we turn our backs to the Summer and give our attention and energy to the Fall Business. Our buyers have returned from the Northern Markets, where they have spared neither time nor money in securing the Newest, Most Attractive and Most Desirable Lines of Fashionable Merchandise. & #

COAT SUITS.

Monday morning, September 3rd, will be our first showing in this popular department. We will have on exhibition some of the new fall styles brought out by the leading manufacturers.

TOURISTS' COATS.

Ladies' and Misses' Tourist Coats, light and medium weight; a big lot at the exceptionally low price of MILLINERY.

We are ready to take orders for any class of work. Our expert designers and trimmers are here and the new fall styles are arriving daily. Remember, we employ only people who stand at the head of their proféssion, and every Hat leaving our work rooms carries our personal guarantee.

DRESS GOODS.

New and exclusive Dress Patterns in Shadow Checked, Invisible Plaids, Manish Suiting, etc. Price the yard $1.00, $1.25 and $1.50.

BLACK DRESS GOODS.

We handle only the superior qualities in black goods, such as Priestley's, Arnold-Constable's and Botany Worsted Mill products. Every yard of black goods that we sell is guaranteed to be absolutely fast color and to be exactly as represented.

SILKS

The strongest value in yard-wide Black Taffeta that has ever been shown in the city. Price the yard strictly $1.00. Ask for purple selvage; every yard guaranteed.

DRESS SILKS.

27-inch Shepherd's Plaid Silk, brown and white, blue and white and black and white checked; nothing newer or more desirable for shirt waist suits. Price the yard $1.00.

WAIST SILKS.

New 27-inch Plaid Silks for waists, an assortment of patterns; no two alike. Price the yard $1.00. 19-inch Plaid Silks for school girls' waists. Price the yard 50c.

ORIENTAL WATER-PROOF SILK.

36-inch Black Water-proof Silk. Price the yard $1.00. 27-inch Water-proof Silk, white, black and all the popu-LADIES' FURNISHINGS SILK AND LISLE HOSE. We sell only the best quality of Hosiery that is turned out by the manufacturers. Prices from 25c. to $3.00 a pair.

HOSE SUPPORTERS.

All the new styles in Ladies', Misses and Children's Hose Supporters, hook-on, sew-on, velvet grip, etc. Prices from 10c. to 50c.

CARPET DEPARTMENT.

This is one of our leading departments. Each month shows increased sales over the previous one, which is convincing evidence that the quality, patterns and prices are right.

JEWELRY DPARTMENT.

This department is confided to the hands of Mr. Zweier. You are safe. We sell high-class Jewelry at a reasonable profit. Every article sold from this department is guaranteed to be as represented.

UMBRELLAS.

Ladies' Umbrellas, 24 and 26-inch frames, plain wood. mourning and metal handles. Every Umbrella that we sell is guaranteed for one year. Prices from $1.00 to $15.00.

CHILDREN'S SCHOOL UMBRELLAS.

Nice, plain black Umbrella, with plain wood handle; 20-inch frame; just the right size for the kids. Price

FULL TICKET NOMINATED has been ascertained. Again, if for nate a man who was capable of sur- ty. of a constable, who shall be a IN CHARLOTTE CHURCHES

NEW COTTON SEASON OPENS. LUTHEBAN.

THE REPUBLICANS IN SESSION

Dr. Ikell Hirshelberg and Mr. Warren Vines Hall Nominated for the Of-fices of Coroner and Register of Deeds, Respectively, on the Republi-can Ticket-The Other Nominees for the Several County and Legis-lative Offices—Attendance at the Convention Large and the Session Harmonious in Every Respect—Mr. J. D. Albright Comes to the Aid of the Party and Nominates a Man for-County Surveyor.

Dr. Ikell Hirshelberg, the affable proprietor of the Buford Hotel cigar stand, was nominated yesterday afternoon for the office of coroner of Mecklenburg county on the Republican ticket.

The nomination came as a surprise to Dr. Hirshelberg. The convention had been in session for perhaps an hour. Coolnel Jacob F. Newell, coun-ty chairman, and Means, J. D. Al-bright, Will C. Nolen, Egbert David-son and W. A. White had been having things their own way. One office af-thras their own way. One office af-thras another had been filled and every-thing was moving according to achedule. Colonel Hirshelberg, having nothing else to do, had drifted in d was sitting back in an easy chair pendent voters of the county will be and was sitting back in an easy chair pendent voters of the county will be puffing away at a fine cigar. He willing to accept in preference to was a spectator, nothing more. Suddenly Mr. Warren Vines Hall lifted his voice from one corner of the hall. "I believe," said he, "that nominations are in order for the of-select its nominees for the several lifted his voice from one corner of the hall. "I believe," said he, "that nominations are in order for the office of coroner. I have in mind a man, a Republican, my friend, who is eminently qualified for that office. He well-known throughout the county a straight, blue-stocking Republi-He has had no axe to grind and can. He has had no axe to grind and hence has never sought office at our hands. He is worthy of this high honor which I hope will be bestowed upon him. I refer to Mr. Issae Hirsh-elberg, of Charlotte. There is no man in this convention who is better qualified to hold the inquest over the dustrial of the Democratic party in Mecklenburg county than he, and therefore. I take great pleasure in presenting to this convention his party in he, and presenting to this, convention his name." As Mr. Hall ast down, Dr. Hirshel-berg snatched the eigar from his mouth and snase. "I decline," he houted. "I am too busy," he contin-ed. "I cannot accept." the repeated time and again. However, the con-vention heeded him not. His protests were unheard. Mr. Hall's nominat-ing speech had done the work and Dr. Hirshelberg was duly declared the party's candidate for the coronership. Seeing that he was helploss. Dr. Hirshelberg smiled, tilted back his chair and puffed away at his cigar. The nomines of the Democratic party is Mr. W. A. Gresham, R. Is believed by many that Dr. Hirshel-berg will made a fine rate. The thishelberg affer the convention was over and askets. "Tr. Hirshelberg, what are the dulies of coroner?" The only answer received was a broad put in No works were passed. They were unnecessary. A hawyer who was standing near by answered in-stead. "The coroner's duts," he said, "Is to hold inquests over the dead bodies of persons, He summonses a jury, and, after due onamination of the dead body and of the witneaser.

monses a nation of with a report in a iff, the coroner acts as sheriff. If suit is brought against the sheriff, the coroner serves the papers on him." Colonel Hirshelberg listened intently, winked one eye solemnly at the news-paper man and passed out. He will se no sleep over his candidacy. A surprisingly large number of vell-known Republicans were present at the county convention vesterday After a wait of more than a half hour, Colonel Newell, county chairman, stepped to the front and called the meeting to order. Secretary David Paul read the call for the con-

offices

meantime nomiated its full quota and there was no place for another canvention, in which its object was given, namely to nominate a legislative and idate. Mr. Warren Vines Hall, when nominated for the office of register of county ticket. leeds, protested and shouted his un Mr. Newell called Mr. Robert Mc-willingness to accept. His words Donald to the chair and took the were disregarded and he was enrolled floor. He declared that the Republicans of Mecklenburg county had a good chance of electing one or more with the others as nominees on the licket.

aced in nomination

Mr. T. W. Garrison, of Derits.

legislators, and a full county school board if only good, substantial men were nominated. "I appeal to you," added Mr. Newell, "that you go slow All the offices having been filled, Chairman McDonald appointed a platform committee, with Mr. Newell as chairman. After having been out and consider well what you do. We for some-want men of character and ability on returned a out ticket; men who are willing to platform: for some-little time, the committe returned and presented the following

The Republicans of Mecklenburg to work; men who can go before the The Republicans of Mecklenburg the first day of September, 1906, hereby adopt and declare this plat-form as an expression of belief and purpose, and, if entrusted with powto their past; men whom the indeor, will use their utmost endeavor to put it into faithful execution:

1. We declare that poll tax for State and county should not exceed the sum of one dollar. 2. We favor . whatever expendi-The following ticket was drafted: For the Senate, Mr. James McDonald, of Charlotte; for the House. Messrs. John Gamble, of Liemley's township, tures by the State that may be necessary fully and comfortably to care for all of the State's insane, both white Howard N. Banks, of Charlotte, and Joe Lee Campbell, of Clear Creek and colored. 2. We favor the erection and proper equipment, by the next Legis-lature, of a reformatory for youthful offenders. We believe that many of township. For register of deeds, Mr. Warren Vines Hall, of Charlotte; for clerk of court, Mr. P. H. Phelan, of Charlotte; for sheriff, Mr. W. T. Alex-ander, of Mallard Creek; for county surveyor, T. W. Garrison, of Derita; for cotton weigher, Mr. W. C. Nolen, of Charlotte; for county commissionthis class are not naturally criminal, and that, therefore, their association with hwardened oriminals should be avoided.

avoided. 4. We favor the creation by law of a ten-hour legal work day, 60 hours per week; the same to apply to all factory and public works emof Charlotte; for county commission-ers, Messre, Joe Proctor, of Deweese; E. C. Miller, of Charlotte, W. S. Hall, Huntersville, F. M. Hinson. Clear Creek, and Dr. McCord; for board of education, Messre, C. J. Biggers, of Crab Orchard, Dr. E. Q. Houston, of Davidson, J. B. Spence, of Charlotte, Lee Gamble, of Lemleys, and W. B. Aiwell, of Deweese.

b: We are in favor of encouraging our public improvements, such as the building of highways; and we believe that the county in its entirely should bear equally the cost of the construc-tion and maintenance of these high-

Atwell, of Dewen-There was some difference of the solution of the solution of the whether of not it was ad-tion as to whether of not it was ad-transfer to the solution of the solution was declared the solution of the solution the so Atwell, of Dewcess. There was some difference of opin-ion as to whether or not it was ad visable to put out a candidate against of the party. Several interesting incidents hap-pened while the ticket was being drafted: When nominations for the office of county surveyor were called for, one of the leading Republicans suggested that this place on the ticket resultion, desiructive torre-nait all good people, there take a stand for law and ord-we suggest the following unfilled for the present, un-ne Republican was found who public of doing the work. Mr. law, and execution:

for the election, h

the mame of telligence, shall be of physical courage, and shall be effi-

No three men in the convention did cient in the use of fire arms; who shall more talking than Messrs. Noien, White and Davidson, who sat side and side and seemed to have but one own and maintain his own horse; who shall spend his entire time in patroling the highways and by-ways of the object in view and that was to place township; whose duty it shall be to prevent crime, and discover and ar-rest criminals; who shall report to a man in the field against one of the Democratic nominees for the lower House, whom they thought would be the sheriff of the county all attempts able to defeat him. They nominated at, or threatenings of, mob violence; two or three men but no action was taken, the convention having in the who shall have power to summon to his assistance any number of citizens necessary to uphold the majesty of the law; who shall be under heavy ond to guarantee faithfulness in the discharge of his official duties and who shall be indictable for neglience; and whose salary shall be not sence; and whose samely must be not less than $50 per month; b. The payment of a reasonable salary to the clerk of the Superior Court and to the register of deeds for their services; the charging of fees by these officers in favor of the county, at the present schedule; and the ap-propriation of the excess over the salaries obtained from this source to the payment of the salaries of this county constabulary. 7. We favor the election by the people of the county superintendent, of public schools. We denounce the present administration of the schools and school law of the county, and pledge ourselves to correst its abuses On motion, this platform was ratified and the convention adjourned.

Commercial Travelers to Have a Big Banquet,

At a meeting last hight of Charlotte Council, No. 297, United Commercial Travelers, it was decided to have a grand rally and home-coming of all past members, on the ovening of October 6th. A banquet will be served and a general good time spent. All those who were formerly mem-bers of the Charlotte council, and who have since transferred their membership to other councils, will be invited to return and participate in the celebration. At last night's meeting of the lo cal order, the following named vis-itors were present: Mr. G. H. Bechtel, of Lookout Council, No. 162, Chat-tannooga, Tenn., and Mrs. H. C. Marley, of Greensboro Council, No. 95.

Negro Hobo Has Skull Crushed. Special to The Observer. Tarboro, Sept. 1.-This morning

colored man, whose name is no track at the depot here with his head badly crushed. It is believed that he badly crushed. It is believed that he was stealing a ride on a train and jumped off, thus causing his injury. He is still unconscious.

J. E. Miller & Company Espa

J. E. Miller & Company Expanding. J. E. Miller & Company, who have been doing a brokerage business in grain, have leased the store at No. 47 South College street and will en-large their business. They will do a brokerage business in grain, provis-tions, hay and feed stuffs, and will keep a large stock of goods on hand to accommodate their increasing trade

THE ORIGINAL & Co., Chicago, eriginate and on account of the gree popularity of Foley's Hone many imitations are offered for me. These worthless imfation 1 popula

PRESBYTERIAN

First-Services at 11 and 8:15 by the pastor, Rev. Dr. J. R. Howerton; Sunday school at the usual hour; men's prayer meeting at 9:15; Wednesday night prayer meeting at $:15.

A cordial invitation to all. Tenth Avenue-Preaching at 11 and 8:15 by Rev. A. R. Shaw ;Sunday school at meeting at 7:30; prayer meeting Wednesday at 8:15. All are cordially in- at 12:15. All strangers cordially inrited. Westminster-Praching at 11 by Rev. Mr. Bothwick and at 8:15 by

Rev. Mr. Pressly; Sunday school at 10. St. Paul's-Services at 11 and 8:15 by Rev. Dr. H. Y. Leeper; Sabbath school at 3:50. All are welcome. EPISCOPAL.

Church of the Holy Comforter, Sims' Hall, Dilworth-Sunday school and Bible class at 9:45, holy communion at 11.

St. Martin's Chapel, Davidson and Tenth streets-Holy communion at 8:30; Sunday school and Bible class at 3:30; evening prayer and sermon at 8.

St. Andrew's Chapel, Seversville-Morning prayer and sermon at 11:

Sunday school at 4. Chapel of Hope, Gingham Mill-Sunday school at 2:30; evening prayer and sermon at 8.

Kirkpatrick residence in search St. Peter's-Rev. Harris Mallinckrodt, rector. Twelfth Sunday after Trinity. Sunday school and Bible class at 9:30; celebration of the holy communion and sermon at 11; evening prayer and sermon at 8. The rector wil preach at both services. Pear free. All are welcome.

METHODIST

Brevard Street-Preaching at 11 by Rev. D. L. Reid; at Rev. J. Ed. Thompson; men'i prayer meeting at 10; Sunday school at 3:30. A cordial invitation to all.

ing witness. Cynthia Banks, a negress who was Insanely jealous of all other ladles Epworth-Sunday school at 9:45; preaching at Seversville at 8; Sunday school at 2:30. The Epworth congregation will worship with Tryon Street Methodist church at 11 o'clock. when Rev. Dr. John C. Kilgo will Tryon Street-Morning service of all the Methodists of Charlotte at 11 at which Rev. Dr. J. C. Kilgo will preach: men's prayer meeting at 16; Sunday school at 4. The congrega-tion will worship with Trinity in the evening. Dr. Kilgo will preach.

CATHOLIC.

St. Peter's-Rev. Joseph Mueller, O. S. A., pastor, First mass at 8; high mass and sermon at 10:30; even-ing service at 8. At the first mass the Children of Mary will foceive holy communion in a body. Thomas $2.

BAPTIST.

Pritchard Memorial-Rev. E. Bomar will preach at 11 and 5 o'clock. Mr. Bomar is a strong preacher and well and favorably known to the Baptist denomination, having served for several years as assistant secretary of the foreign misassistant secretary of the foreign mis-sion board. First-Rev. H. H. Hulten pastor. Morning worship at 11, with preach-ing/by the pastor; Sunday school at 3 (note change in hour); evening worship at 5:15; young people meet at 5:15 Monday; Wednesday evening prayer meeting at 5:14 Ninth Avenue-Pressing at 11 and 5 by the pastor. Rev. L. R. Pruett: Sunday school at 2:36; prayer service Wednesday evening at 5. All sie welcome.

pastor. Preaching at 11 and $:15 by Rev. W. C. Schaeffer, D. D., of Savannah, Ga. Sunday school at 9:45.

Prayer meeting, Wednesday evening at 8:15. ASSOCIATE REFORMED PRESBY-TERIAN. First-Rev. Wm. Duncan, pastor. Preaching at 11 and 8 by the pastor. In connection with the morning ser 10; Westminster League vice, the sacrament of the Lord's supper will be observed. Sunday sch vited. CHRISTIAN SCIENCE. Christian services will be held this morning at 11 at the hall on West Fifth street. Subject, "Substance." All are cordially invited.

IN THE CITY POLICE COURT.

ing him rather unceremoniously to leave the house. The recorder decided that the defendant was not guilty because he was accompanied into the house by the son of the prosecut-

Much Ado About Nothing—Jealous Negroes Fined for an Assault on Aged Woman—White Boys Finedfor Trespass-Whiskey Cases Up Again.

The session of the city police court yesterday morning was quite an inpound. teresting one. There was a refresh-ing variety of cases. The ball was started to rolling by the hearing in the case against Charles Huntley, a Mr. W. G. Rogers, of the architect young grocer, who was charged with firm of Hook & Rogers, returned to respassing upon the property of Mr. he, city last night from Winston-Si-Sam Kirkpatrick. According to the evidence, Huntley had gone into the lem, where he has been superintending work upon the new Hotel Zinzenboy, Moffitt Anderson, who, he al-leged, had stolen some money from him. Huntley was accompanied on the search by Banks Kirkpatrick, a orf and the new Masonic temple, The hotel, is practically completed and will be opened to the public about October 1st. The work of laying the son of the householder, but this did not prevent the irate head of the house from cursing Huntley and force foundations of the Masonic temple is now under way. Hook & Rogers have opened branch office at the Twin City and gas reported that Mr. Rogers would make his home there, but that genlieman last night denied that report. He will, continue to reside in Charbtte.

Insancity jealous of an ebony-of color on account of her ebony-hued husband, was charged with an assault on Betsy Johnston, who might have been her grandmother. This evidence tended to show that the only ground for the assault was the fact that Cynthia saw her husband with the Johnston woman. Recorder the Johnston woman. Recorder the anonhouse fined the defendant

$20. Beveral white youths were arrigned on the charge of trespassing upon the property of the Seaboard Air Line Railway Company, throwing rocks at its employees and making themselves a nuisance generally at the Seaboard passenger station. Of the Chant a never ending dires. on the charge of trespassing upon the property of the Seaboard Air Line Railway Company, throwing rocks at its employes, and making Seaboard passenger station. Of the defendants, Cash Robinson was fined

Near their tomb no flowers are $8; Howard Zigler, $2, and Frank

Near ing. On it fails no mourner's tear Lone and desolate it listh Mid the waste of waters dr Mid the monsters of the loss Aggie Atkins, who has been in court anyeral times since the prohibition laws went into offect for selling liding through i hese alone are found the ships laws went into effect for selling liquor, was up again yosterday. She was bound over to the Superior Court in two cases and sent to jail to await trial, being unable to give the re-quired bond of $200. Joe Thompson and G. G. Burrows, colored, were also charged with dis-pensing boose, but there was not suf-ficient avidence to bind over and they were allowed to go.

But the Lord, who to the to Doe commanded. "Peace b folds the restions lides of a sobsdiences to lits will. And again that voice observ repths of sea, from shore inall the forms of loved and to their native earth restor

WELL WORTH TRYING.

W. H. Brown, the popular pennion torney, of Pittafield, YL, says, "Ment a penalon, the best thing to pet is King's New Life Pills." He writ "They keep my family in spice ballit." Quick cure for headachs, c stipstion and billousness. Bo, Gutar ter.

and at R. H. Jordan & Co.'s t

The New Crop a Fortnight Behind the Last-Some Compartive Figures.

The new cotton season of 1906-7 opened yesterday, the season of 1905-9 closing August 31st. The total receipts for the past season were 20,247 bales. The receipts for the previons season were 22,001, there being a decrease in the last season's receipts of 1,754 bales.

The receipts yesterday, the first day of the new season, were only one bale. The receipts for the corresponding date of last year were 39 bales, 23 of which were new cotton. Only one bale of new cotton has been received on the local market this year. Last year at this time about 75 bales had been sold. The crop this year in about a fortnight late.

The price of spots on the local mar-ket advanced to 10 cents a pound again yesterday. At this time last year the price was 10.50 cents a

Mr. W. G. Rogers Will Move to Winston-Salem.