LITTLEFIELD FINCHES THROUGH AS RESULT OF POPULAR DISCONTENT WITH PROHIBITION, DUTCH CARRY HOLD BY LESS THAN 5,000 VOTES, WHILE THE LABOR FIGHT ON REPRESENTATIVE LITTLEFIELD REDUCED HIS MAJORITY TO ABOUT 1,000. COBB'S PLURALITY ONLY A FRACTION OF USUAL REPUBLICAN MARGIN—ONE CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT CLOSE—LEGISLATURE SAFELY REPUBLICAN.

Portland, Me., Sept. 10.—Governor William T. Cobb, of Rockland, Republican, standing on a platform devoted almost exclusively to a continuance of the prohibitory law of the State, was re-elected to-day by a plurality of less than 5,000, with but few exceptions the smallest margin of votes ever given a Republican Governor of the State of Maine.

Cyrus W. Davis, of Waterville, the Democratic candidate for Governor, polled one of the largest votes in the history of the party in this State. The issues of the campaign were re-submission of the liquor question, which was incorporated in the State Legislature four years ago.

More interesting than the re-election of Congressman Charles E. Littlefield, Republican, of the second district, by a greatly reduced plurality, Congressman Littlefield's candidacy was the subject of bitter opposition on the part of Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, who asked for his defeat on the ground that he had voted against certain labor measures at the last session of Congress.

The issue between Gompers and Littlefield was taken up by the Republican congressional committee and for three weeks the district was the scene of a fierce fight, in which Senator Lodge and Senator Beveridge and several Congressmen were pitted against the head of the Federal Labor Union. Mr. Littlefield's plurality was estimated to-night at about 1,000.

Congressman Edwin C. Burleigh, of Augusta, Republican, was re-elected in the third district by a plurality of 2,000, and Congressman Llewellyn Powers, of Holton, Republican, in the fourth district by a plurality estimated at 2,000. The re-election of Congressman James W. Allen, of the first district is claimed by the Republican leaders.

The Legislature will be Republican by a safe majority.

PLURALITY CUT TO A THIRD. Republican State Chairman Only Claimed 7,000 to 8,000 to 9,000.

Portland, Me., Sept. 10.—Returns from 400 cities and towns of 570 give Cobb, Republican, 63,142; Davis, Democratic, 58,181.

The same towns four years ago gave Littlefield, Republican, 63,142; Davis, Democratic, 58,181.

At 9 o'clock to-night Chairman Carter of the Republican State committee, claimed the election of Governor Cobb by a plurality of 7,000 to 8,000. He also predicted Congressman Littlefield's election by a safe but greatly reduced plurality.

Littlefield's Majority in County Recounted. Lewiston, Me., Sept. 10.—McGillivuddy, Democrat, carried this (Androscoggin) county for Congress by a vote of 5,616 to 4,274 for Littlefield, Republican.

Littlefield carried the county four years ago, 5,132 to 4,617.

DEAF MAN SUICIDES. Walter Matthews, of Guilford, Hagerstown, Md., was a Man of Unconquerable Temper.

High Point, Sept. 10.—Walter Matthews, a white man aged 25 years and residing at Deep River, committed suicide to-day by hanging himself. Going to his room in the back of the house, he tied a plough-line to the rafters and then around his neck, jumping to his death. He was found about an hour later. No note or anything was left to throw light on the suicide. Matthews has been hard of hearing for some time and lately had become almost deaf. He was a young man of rather peculiar disposition and, when once aroused, was almost unmanageable. Saturday afternoon he engaged in a quarrel with a negro man, who slapped him in the face. This so angered the young man that he secured his gun and would have killed the negro had he not been restrained. Fearing that he would be arrested he coupled with other things which he brooded over, probably caused him to commit the rash act.

COAL BROKE ALL RECORDS. Production in the United States in 1905 Amounted to 392,919,341 Short Tons, Having Value at $476,756,963.

Washington, Sept. 10.—According to the report of Edgewood W. Parker, statistician of the United States Geological Survey, the production of coal in the United States in 1905 amounted to 392,919,341 short tons, having a value at the mines of $476,756,963, surpassing in both quantity and value all previous records in the history of the country. Compared with 1904 the output in 1905 exhibits an increase of 41,163,943 short tons, or over 11 per cent. in quantity and $82,285,942 or over seven per cent. in value.

The total production in 1905, 77,559,850 short tons were Pennsylvania anthracite, with a value of $141,479,000 at the mines.

The total production of bituminous coal and lignite was 215,339,391 short tons, valued at $144,877,963.

COD LIVER OIL MAN TURNS UP. Henry C. Wampole, Philadelphia, Had Nervous Breakdown as Result of Worries.

Philadelphia, Sept. 10.—Henry C. Wampole, a millionaire of this city, who it is reported, disappeared in New York yesterday, is at his home at Haverhill, a suburb. Mr. Wampole is head of the chemical firm of Henry C. Wampole & Co., and it is said the manager of a branch in Canada, accompanied with $40,000 to the firm's money. The report is that the manager would think him careless in the management of the affairs of the firm.

Wampole much worried and finally resulted in a nervous breakdown.

HARRISON OUT ON BOND

ALLEGED KIDNAPPER TAKES CHARGES AGAINST ATTORNEYS

John Harrison, Arrested and Jailed on Charge of Complicity in Kidnapping of State Senator Beasley, Released From Elizabeth City Prison on $2,500 Bond.

Elizabeth City, Sept. 10.—Impressed in the county jail at Pasquotank county, where he was brought from Currituck county Thursday night, Joshua Harrison, under indictment for kidnaping Kenneth, the nine-year-old son of State Senator Beasley, February 13th, 1905, was to-day liberated on bail in the sum of $2,500.

Mr. Harrison, with the consent of his attorney, Mr. E. F. Aydt, gives out the following statement: "I am absolutely innocent in regard to the charge against me of kidnaping the Beasley boy, or having anything to do with it. For three or four weeks or more before the boy was missed I had been continuously at home. The boy was missed on Monday. I knew nothing of it until Tuesday at dinner, when Mrs. Julia Forbes spoke of it at the table. I was at home all day Monday and Tuesday. Wednesday I went up to John Fisher's store about 9 o'clock and remained until about 11 o'clock, and went from there to Coinjock bridge. From there I went to Vanalack's and from there home, reaching home about 7 o'clock.

I remained at home, then continuously until Friday morning, at which time I took the boat to Elizabeth City and in company with John Newbern and wife and other, reached Elizabeth City about night. I remained at the Stokely House until Saturday afternoon and took the train from Elizabeth City about 3 o'clock, and went to Shawboro. Mr. Tull Bell sent me from Shawboro to Hoco and I took the train to John Grady's at Coinjock, where I remained until Mr. James Saunders' and remained there all night and went from there home Sunday morning. I was at home then for weeks.

DID NOT KNOW BEASLEY BOY. "I did not know the Beasley boy. I never saw him to know him. My relation with Mr. S. M. Beasley has always been a most pleasant character, so far as I know. I am a Republican and Mr. Beasley a Democrat but our relations have been so pleasant I have voted for him each time he ran as a candidate to represent this county and when he ran for the Senate. The report that he had been laid up against selling wine, which was hurtful and objectionable to me, is untrue. If this had been so, I would not have voted for him to the Senate in November before his boy was missed. There has never been a moment since the boy was missed that I would not have made any sacrifice to help find him and relieve his heart-broken parents.

FAMILY RELATIONS CORDIAL. "The family relations were the most cordial I had always been. I am 67 years of age and was born in North Carolina. I was attending school. The report that my daughter, Mrs. Gallop, went to New York one or more trips regarding the Beasley boy, is untrue. She did go to Newark, N. J., as an agent for the lumber company in Norfolk to try for the company to buy Miss Lyons' pine lumber on the Gallop track of land in Currituck. I, like many others, had my opinion that the boy was frozen to death on the bitter cold day and night, but where I cannot say. I wish I could."

Mr. Harrison spent to-night in this city where he has been the center of intense interest. The affair of which he is the central figure in the one topic and many groups of men may be seen, each now advancing some new theory regarding the mysterious disappearance of the Beasley lad. Feeling against Harrison is much alkylated, while last Wednesday public opinion in his own county ran so high as to threaten him with personal injury. At one time the solicitor questioned the safety of turning him out on bail and his bail was vigorously fought. Mr. Harrison leaves to-morrow for his home in Currituck, to await the trial next March.

NEGRO LYNCHED IN GEORGIA. Taken From Officers and Killed by Mob for Attempting to Assault 12-Year-Old Girl.

Culloden, Ga., Sept. 10.—Charles Miller, a negro 20 years old, was arrested here charged with an attempted assault on the 12-year-old daughter of a prominent farmer, living here.

He was officer to Forsyth in charge of an escort. When six miles from here he was overtaken by a mob of determined men who demanded the prisoner. The officer resisted, but was overpowered. The negro was hanged in a short time on a gallows erected for the purpose. He was found in an old well. He was riddled with bullets and his neck was broken by the fall.

Hanging in Presence of 2,000 People. Gainsville, Ga., Sept. 10.—Dave Moore, colored, who assaulted the 8-year-old daughter of Jim Hood, of White county, some weeks ago, and who was convicted at a special term of White Superior Court ten days ago, was hanged at Cleveland to-day in the presence of 2,000 people.

Negro Brought to Norfolk for Safe Keeping. Norfolk, Sept. 10.—Fearing he would be lynched, John Smith, the negro, was brought to Norfolk for safe keeping. Smith was out of jail following a lunge jury in which he was charged with assault on the wife of Henry Owens. The negro is now charged with having attempted an assault on Mrs. Bennett, in Princess Anne county Saturday night.

To Back-Up Sea Island Growers' Prices. Lake City, Fla., Sept. 10.—A strong national organization was formed here to-day to back up the prices adopted at the recent meeting of the Sea Island Cotton Growers at Valdosta. A resolution was adopted that the growers shall buy all cotton offered at the market agreed upon at the meeting. It is reported that New York capitalists are behind the organization.

TWO UNPARALLELED CASES

CHARGES AGAINST ATTORNEYS

Hiram Boggett, of Sampson, and E. C. Tavis, of Forsyth, both Recently Admitted to Practice Law, Have Hearing Before Supreme Court, the One on Charge of Perjury and Fraud, the Other for Practicing Unlawfully Without Parallel in State's History—Day of Sad Incidents at Soldiers' Home—News Notes of State Capital.

Observer Bureau, 112 South Duval Street, Raleigh, Sept. 10. Before the Supreme Court to-day there was a hearing of two cases which are without a parallel in North Carolina in spots. The younger men who successfully passed their examinations to be attorneys at the recent examination, had their papers held up and had to await a hearing upon very grave charges. One of them is Hiram Boggett, of Sampson county, who is charged with perjury and fraud in connection with the burning of a house and the collection of the fire insurance thereon in July of last year. Against him Henry A. Grady appeared, a uncle of Boggett, and E. W. Kerr, J. E. Clifford and H. L. Godwin.

Many affidavits were read on each side. Mr. Grady appeared as complainant and, with his own affidavit, read those of E. B. McPhail, John Wilson, an uncle of Boggett, and H. H. Hubbard. Counter affidavits were read from a number of citizens of Sampson, from Mingo township, where Boggett lived, these being mainly testimonials of good character, including those of J. B. McPhail, John Wilson, an uncle of Boggett, and H. H. Hubbard. The other case is that of Berne C. Tavis, from Forsyth county, he being charged with perjury in giving money at excessive interest for him to appear L. M. Swink and J. E. Alexander and a gainst him Lindsay Patterson, Manly and Hendren, Watson, Buxton and Watson and V. H. Blair.

Hiram Boggett is charged with burning a store in which he has a half interest, if being alleged that, on bogus inventions, he got money on the stock from a Greensboro company, and that he had a large interest in the store and was asleep when the fire broke out. He and both his brothers were here to-day. His side set forth that his brother, John Boggett, died in October. As soon as this case was disposed of that of Travis came up and a number of affidavits were read.

OVER 200 JEWS MURDERED

STORY OF SIEDLICE MASSACRE

After Warning Christians to Hang Out Sacred Emblems as Means of Distinguishing Their Abodes, the Troops, Inspired by Terrorist Assassinations, Fell Upon the Jews, Killing Fully 200 and Wounding 1,000—No Steps Taken by Local Governor to Prevent the Outrage—Loot Openly Sold.

Siedlice, Sept. 10.—A Jewish massacre surpassing in seriousness all previous ones in this vicinity took place Saturday and Sunday. It was carefully planned, the soldiers warning the Christian population in advance to hang out their ikans, so that they might remain undisturbed.

Saturday night some terrorists killed two soldiers and thereupon the Lithuanian regiment broke forth in unrestrained fury.

They began murdering Jews upon every hand, and continued the work of slaughter all Saturday night and all day Sunday. The ghastly work of murdering and pillaging continued until the early morning hours, when Governor Gereta telegraphed for permission to use the artillery. Four batteries then opened fire down Pienkna, Warsaw and Alena streets, and the inhabitants of thousands of Jews. The destruction was horrible. As the result of the general slaughter, it is estimated that fully 200 Jews were killed and 1,000 wounded. There are 3,000 prisoners in custody, a great many of whom are wounded. Not a soldier was killed.

The military squads of soldiers were parading through the streets selling pillaged watches and jewelry. The army officers openly contemned the selling of the loot. The local Governor took no steps to prevent the outrages.

The telegraph offices are closed and nobody is allowed on the streets or to leave town. The soldiers are drunk and behaving with extraordinary brutality.

The artillery opened fire at 8 o'clock this morning. Shots were directed against the buildings from their windows. Most of those arrested were Jews and were beaten without mercy.

OLBRICHS' WIFE SNUBS WIFE. Bulk of Well-Known New Yorker's Estate Left to Brother and Sister With Statement That Wife, From Whom He Had Been Estranged, Has Ample Fortune of Her Own—Only Personal Effects to Son.

New York, Sept. 10.—Herman Olbrichs, who died August 10, September 1, left the bulk of his estate to his brother, Charles May Olbrichs, and to his sister, Mrs. Lucy Jay. His wife, from whom he has been estranged for some time, is cut off from any bulk of the estate, and the statement made that she has ample fortune of her own.

To the son, Herman Olbrichs, Jr., nothing is left but pieces of jewelry, guns and some other personal effects. Other relatives, his secretary and his valet are remembered in his will.

The will was filed for probate to-day. Mention is made of the wife and son in the opening paragraphs as follows: "As my wife has an ample fortune of her own, I make no bequest or devise to her."

"As my son, Herman Olbrichs, Jr., is the heir and next of kin of my wife, and will doubtless be amply provided for by his mother, in her last will and testament, or by the law in the event of her intestacy, I make no bequest or devise to him, other than the specific bequest contained in this will."

The specific bequest to the son is thus made: "I give and bequest all of my watches, scarf pins, and jewelry of every kind whatsoever, my furniture, guns and other personal effects, absolutely and forever, to my son, Herman Olbrichs, Jr."

To his half-sister, Mary Singleton Livingston, Mr. Olbrichs bequeathed the sum of $30,000, with the proviso that in case she or her heirs consent to the bequest shall be null and void.

A specific bequest of $100,000 is made to his brother-in-law, Charles May Olbrichs, and $100,000 to Mrs. Jay. The residue of the estate, both real, personal and mixed, is left to the brother, Charles May Olbrichs, who is also named as sole executor.

The will was dated June 11, 1905. The petition accompanying the same states that the value of the estate is unknown.

Coleman and Ray Diehl. Another charter is to the McIntosh Company, Waynesville, to take over the business of McIntosh & Co., wholesale and retail chemists and druggists, capital stock $25,000.

Governor Glenn had expected to leave here to-night for Norfolk to attend the meeting to-morrow of the commissioners for North Carolina of the Jamestown Exposition, but found this afternoon that, on account of pressing business, he would not be able to leave.

The Governor makes requisition on the Governor of Virginia for J. E. Webb, who under the assumed name of Edward E. Grant, is charged with obtaining money under false pretense at Wilmington and who is in jail at Norfolk.

A PARDON GRANTED. The Governor pardons Edward Gallip, who in 1902 was convicted of larceny in Camden county and was sentenced to seven years in the penitentiary.

The Supreme Court devotes this week to appeals from the third judicial district.

BURGALAR IDENTIFIED. Mr. Thomas E. Moore positively identifies the negro, Tom Ellis, as the burglar who, ten nights ago, entered his home. He is in jail without bail. He says he came here from South Carolina. It is generally believed he was concerned in a number of burglaries.

Judge Webb denies an injunction applied for by the Seaboard Air Line to restrain Percy J. Olive and others, of Apex, this county, from permitting that road from using what it claims an right-of-way to side-track and union station.
