South Carolins Jamestown Exposition
Commission Decides Against Them
—Small Likelihood of State Building—Palmetto News Notes.

Observer Bureau.
1209 Main Street.
Columbia, S. C., Sopt. 25.
The South Carolina commission for the Jamestown Exposition met in the executive office this afternoon and went over many details of arrangements in connection with the work of getting a creditable exhibit on the ground in good shape, but no matter of importance was transacted. The commission decided to further defer
the question of a State building on commission decided to further defer the question of a State building on account of the small appropriation. It seems likely that there will be no State building. The question of ap-pointing a lady commissioner, which Mrs. Virginia D. Young and others have bees agitating, was referred by the Governor to the commission, which had the courage to decide against the ladies in favor of the law laid down in the act, which provides laid down in the act, which provides no lady commissioners need ap-ply. The board decided it has no authority in law to appoint any such. Three passengers on trolley car No. 7 had almost miraculous escapes from death this morning at the railway crossing near the Columbia Hospital. The car was headed toward the Waverly suburb and Conductor Robinson had gotten down to see if the way was clear, Motorman Grotter obeying his signal to go shead after the shifting freight train in front of them blocking the way had parted to let them through. On the crossing the engine backed a set of care on them, hitting the street car twice.) The first lick did practically no damage, but 7 had almost miraculous escapes from lick did practically no damage, but before the car could be gotten across it was hit the second time and wreck-ed. Nobody was hurt, but the car was crushed, the damage being about $1,000 to the electrical connection and wood work.

Chairman Burton, of the House committee on rivers and harbors, is here at last and the chamber of commerce and Congressman Lever and Congressman Pinley are working him overtime entertaining him and show-ing him the business advantages and possibilities of the town if river navi-gation is perfected. Mr. Burton came in this morning by way of Augusta and was met by a committee of citi-zens who escorted him to Wright's Hotel, where he was allowed to get a brief rest. This afternoon he is being driven over the town for a person-al inspection of the principal manu-facturing plants, the wholesale cen-ters and the power development at the canal and the possibilities of navigation in a limited way through the locks and on the river above there. He dined at Wright's this evening with a committee of citizens. ro-morrow morning Mr. Burton will be taken down the river for an inspection of the government dam and locks just below Columbia and from there will be taken by Capt. Howell and Engineer Whitescarver of the government works and a committee of Columbians to the mouth of the Congaree, 50 miles below Columbia.

From the mouth of the Congaree the visitor will be taken across coun-try to catch the afternoon Coast Line train into Georgetown, where he will spend Thursday, leading that city Thursday evening for Washington. Congressman Finley, who wants to get Br. Burton interested in Catawba river, will accompany the party down the Congaree and will go on to Georgetown with Mr. Burton. He wanted Mr. Burton to stop over at Camden for a look over the power de-velopment near there, but the visitor has important engagements North which demand his going on.

NOTABLE WEEK AT WINSTON.

and Attendent Function Will Draw Large Crowds to Twin City Next Week—Church Objects to Skating Rink. Special to The Observer.
Winston-Salem, Sept. 25.—The Winston aldermen held an informal meeting last night, at which time they discussed several matters pertaining to the municipal officers of the city. Nothing was given out for publication as to the object of the meeting. To-night, however, the board met to hear objections to the skating rink now under conctruction on Wes Fourth street. Then new rink is sit uated near the Christian church and the officials of the church and some nearby residents objects to the board granting license for a skating rink in the new building, owing to the noise. Next week will be a notable one in the history of the Twin City. Thousands of visitors will be here and various attractions will be offered in connection with the fair. Monday the new Zinzindorf Hotel will be opened. This is a splendid hostelry and its opening to the traveling public will indeed be a notable event. Tuesday the Forsyth County Fair and Horse Show opens, continuing through Wednesday and Thursday. Wednesday night a reception to Governor R. B. Gienn and other distinguished guests will be held in the rooms of the Twin City Club. Wednesday and Friday evenings the horse show dance will be held in the Twin City Club

On Paying of Bills It is well to pay bills promptly, but not to pay the same bill twice. Somelimes book-keepers, by mistake, send out bills after they have been paid. If you pay by check, however, the canceled checks are returned to you and can be produced as receipts. Checking accounts are therefore more than a convenience. They are an insurance against overpayment. Every man or woman who pays bills should do so with checks.

Tour checking account will be welcomed at The Charlotte National Bank, where you are assured of absolute security and the most courteous service.
