ried on the 16th. The annual reception to the mem-hers of the boys' department of the Young Men's Christian Association will be given to-night at 3 c'clock. All members are urged to take notice of this fact and be present. The feastre of the evening will be the in-suguration of a movement to increase the membership of the department to 260 members.

Recurring to the item in yester-day's paper about Mrs. Lindsay Pat-terson's house party at Winston-Balem, special mention should be made of the cleverness of Mrs. E. B. Jones, who was hostess to the party and a number of other guests at luncheon Thursday, for the apt quotations on the card at each plate. The appropriateness to each person-sity present showed a wide range of reading and contributed a great deal to the enjoyment of the oc-casion.

The entertainment at the First Presbyterian church last night was quite a success. A large crowd heard the lecture and took part in the re-ception afterward.
