ILLOO ON THE PRODIGAL SON

nue at least until to-morrow night ented to remain and will preach to-night and sgain to-morrow night. The sermons that he has already preached since coming here have been strong, carnest and heipful. It is a source of serrow to Rev. Der. Durham, pastor, that the services have not been more largely attended by more unsaved persons.

Last night Dr. Kilgo preached on the "Prodign! Ron." and the sermon was one that is calculated to bring conviction and repentance.

Dr. Kilgo said:

onviction and repentance.

Dr. Kilgo said:

"In a formal sense Christ was no theologian. The nearest He ever came to being a theologian was when He uttered the parable of the Prodigat Son. In this parable is to be found the whole process of redemption.

"When we speak of God as Father and Jesus Christ as Son, we are not using more rhetorical figures. Fatherhood had its beginning in God, and Jesus Christ was the first begotten Son.

"And back of all this process of redemption lies the Fatherhood of God. And in the contemplation of God the Father, we need to be careful

"The Fatherhood of God only increases the heinousness of sin, and so it is up against a divine Fatherhood. "There is no early history of sin save that of the Garden of Eden. The sin flid not lie in the outward overt act, but it lay in the fact that man set aside the will of God and defied his own will. The outward act sinks into insignificance before the fact of setting up the will of man against the will of God.

So it was with the young man in the parable, his sin lay in the act by which he set up his will gainst the will of his father. The time came when he decided which should rule, his father's will or his own will. And let me remind you here that at the point where man breaks away from God's law is the point where he must

"This young man gathered all his goods together and began to separate himself from his father's will and. ownership, and going into a far country he completed the separation.

He went into a far country and folned himself to a riotous crowd. This law of congeniality is carried out to the minutest detail in God's uni-verse. The law of congeniality working in sin will drive a man away from the atmosphere of purity. And here, young man, young man, you come face to face with a law that you dark not tamper with. The mother who plays cards with her son and says loes this in her own home to keep him from going away from home to seek the same amuse-ment, is setting up the flame in her heart, which, driven on by the terrible law of congeniality, will cause him to seek his pleasure in the lowest dives. And the mother who bedecks her daughter for a private dance to be given in her own home, is kindling the flame of congeniality which will take that daughter far in-

"The boy who goes out from his home with the impression of his moth-er's life upon him and drifts until he cannot think a pure thought, nor look upon a pure picture; until he is unfit to look into the face of any pure woany pure woman in return for her love, what a waste has gone on in his And what a waste goes on in men's life who drifts out into any form of sin.

"And this waste is not more evident in any one than in the man who begins to suspect his fellowmen. Suspicion causes him to doubt one man and then two men; suspicion grows in the heart until soon he begins to suspect all men and even to lose faith

If a cabin should be discovered on fire in the edge of your town, your fremen would respond and you would do all in your power to prevent the spread of the flames. There is a con-figgration of far more danger that is already kindled in the hearts of boys and girls in this town and in other towns, and far more vigilance is needed to put out this flame than to quench that of any burning building. "I wonder if I speak to any man or woman to-night who has been en-gaged in riotous living and who has had enough of it and is ready to come buck to our Father's house. If so, I want you to make it known just

An after-meeting was held to which guite a number of Christian people

Dr. Kilgo announced at this service that he telt that he had done about all he could for those who attended the meeting and that white he would enjoy preaching to them longer, as the ansaved did not attend the services and his work at the college was calling him home, he felt he ought to go. Later, however, he decided in answer to earnest request frem Mr. Durham and others to remain and preach to-night and to-morrow night. In speaking of the services, Mr. Durham referred to the great influence for good Dr. Kilgo had exerted over his life and said he had long wanted his church to have the benefit of Dr. Kilgo's preaching. Dr. Kilgo announced at this service

For weeks and months Mr. Blackburn has been wandering back and forth and enjoying himself generally. He has thought his position too strong to be taken and hence has wasted much valuable time. While Mr. Blackburn has been out of the State, Mr. Hackett has been working like a Trojan. He has visited and spoken in scores of places over the district and has accomplished wonderful things. Rumors of defection have come to the ears of Mr. Blackburn time and again, but up to this time he has done little more than visit a few of his strongholds and confer with his chief lieutenants. Recently it has been noised abroad that certain counties, which had heretofore been Republican by safe majorities, were hesitating and uncertain as to what they would do in the forthcaming ejection.

CHARLOTTE MEN APPOINTED.

Governor R. B. Glenn Names Thre Charlotte Manufacturers as Dele gates to Immigration Conference The Purposes of the Meeting.

Governor R. B. Glenn has appointed the following-named Charlotte mill men delegates to the second annual conference on immigration and quarantine which meets in Nashville, Tenn., Nov. 12 to 14: Messrs, D. A. Tompkins, R. M. Miller, Jr., and E. A.

This conference on immigration and quarantine has been called to consider the following topics as out-lined by Governor John I. Cox in his official call: his official call:

"To consider methods, ways and means for obtaining a desirable class of immigrants for the States of the South. "To confer and devise plans for the protection of the South against uniestrable immigrants.

"To discuss the general labor sup-South, with a view of suggesting re-medial legislation where needed, and of a uniform tendency that will im-prove the efficiency of labor in all fields.

"To consider measures for increas ing the interest and better attend-ance on technical, agricultural and rade schools, and review the results of the present educational system among negroes, with suggestions of remedies where shown to be needed."

THE BAZAAR TO-DAY.

The Ladies are Going to Have a Good Show in O'Donoghue Hall,

Contributions are still being receiv ed for the Knights of Columbus Ba-zear, which begins this evening, and the ladies who have the booths in charge are vying with each other in their efforts to make their particular parts a success. Prizes are given-for the ladies escuring the largest amount, first prize being $10; second prize $7.50; third $5 and fourth $2.50. Charlotte people have al-ways patronized these affairs well and if appearances count for anything this one will be more largely attended than any other.

Among the donors whose contributions were received yesterday are: Two dozen ties, Long-Tate Clothing Two dosen ties, Long-Tate Clothing Company; an oak mantel, Charlotte Furnishing and Decorating Agency; and something by H. In the City Police Court. In the City Police Court,

The docket in the city police court yesterday morning was a rather sorry excuse on a Monday morning, when much variety is expected in a fat docket. Doe Jackson, for looking too long at the wine when it was red, was fined $10. Four other drunks forfeited their bonds in preference to answer to the charge. With scarfs and fans and doubl change of bravery, With amber bracelets, beads and all this knavery" the receiving line were Miss Clara Veigt, president of the society; Miss Fannie Louise Neal, vice presilent, and Miss Zelia Corriber, repording secretary.

The chief feature of the evening's bunch of the society ribbon, passed around and the guests were requested to match lists of books, wherein classics and novels of season were mingled in equal pro-portions, with names of the corresponding authors and the appropriate heroes and heroines. judges were rendering their decision of the respective merits of the contestants, refreshments of lobster salad, saltines, olives, mints and apple juice were served by the young ladies of Diatelian. Miss Voigt, as spokesman for the society, then addressed a few words of welcome to all new students in the college and expressed the hope that many would continue to be present at future

President King was then called upon for a few remarks, and after intertaining the company with several clever anecdotes and announcing in some cases who were not the win-ners, he awarded the prize, a pretty painted bon boniere, to Miss Margare Willis, teacher of Latin at Elizabeth. Amid a succession of cheers for Diatelian, the evening's entertainment drew to a close.

Among the invited guests were Dr. and Mrs. Bernheim, Mrs. C. B. King and Rev. W. C. Schaeffer.

WEEK OF PRAYER OBSERVED

The woman's home mission societies of Tryon Street and Trinity Methodist of Tryon Street and Trinity Methodist churches are observing the week of prayer by holding joint meetings during the week in the ladies' parior at Tryon Street church. The first meeting yesterday afternoon was largely attended and interesting papers were read by Mrs. H. K. Boyer and Mrs. C. C. Kennedy. The programme for the afternoon was in the capable hands of Mrs. W. L. Nicholson. The topic of the meeting was "Immigration." The second meeting will be held this afternoon at a o'clock.

The two societies will again meet in the Tryon Street church parlor and another interesting programme will be carried out, the topic of which is "Work of the Home Mission Society, for Foreigners," Ladies of other churches are invited to attend these services and bring friends. Mrs. Frank Siler, of Statesville, will arrive Friday and make several addresses.

HOW TO CURE A COLD.

It is currently reported that Mr. Patrick is now considering plans for a modern hotel for Wadesboro which will ma-terially assist in the progress of the town. Not only will the general trav-eling patronage be solicited but tourists as well. The surroundings at Wadesboro are said to be even more favorable than at Aberdeen, South-ern Pines or Pinehurst, and with the proper encouragement there is every reason why it should not participate in the winter tourists patronage. COUNTRY PRODUCE TRADE.

Mr. Eugene Morrison Talks of What is Being Done in Iredell County. Mr. Eugene Morrison, a member of the firm of J. K. Morrison & Sons. of Statesville, is in the city. In talking with an Observer man of the pro-duce business in Iredell, he said: "We are now buying and shipping from 1,000 to 3,000 pounds of butter a week; 25 coops of chickens, with 40 to the coop, a day; 1,200 dozen eggs a day; quantities of dried fruit. beeswax, peas, beans and other stuff. We paid out $50,000 for dried fruit last season. The output will not be so large this year. We have just opened a branch house at Taylorsville and we are buying lots of true there.

"We buy largely from the country stores, which are very numerous in our country; I should say that we had about 200 of them. The truck business makes them. They buy all sorts of farm produce."

The Morrisons have established t wholesale grocery business based on the assumption that country produce is equivalent to so ready cash. They have helped the farmers of their section of the State to better things.

Was an Infallible Sign. A Charlotte lawyer who has just returned from Thomasville, yesterday remarked that probably no orphanage in the country was under better management, from a humane standpoint, than the Thomasville Orphanage. As an illustration, he told of the meeting between a mother and her two daughters, who had been at the home more than a year without seeing her. The little girls were very young, the oldest being probably 10 years old. Their affection for their mother was beautiful, and their manners showed that they had been properly cared for at the orphanage.

terrious Obtained With Number Young Man's Callers Indicate He is More Than a Fad, as Clar by Many Physicians.

St. Louis, Oct. 8, The most interesting feature of the normous sale of the Cooper preparations, now going on in this city, is what the medicines are actually ac-complishing among the people of St. Louis.

At the commencement of his visit here Mr. Cooper prophesied that during the latter part of his stay he would receive hundreds of callers daily who came simply to thank him for what the preparations had done. He also stated that stomach trouble is the foundation of a great many diseases, and that his New Discovery, as it is called, would prove very effective in all cases of rheumatism, amply by getting the stomach in working order.

That this prophecy has been ful-filled cannot be doubted after a half hour spent at the young man's headquarters, listening to what his callers have to say. A reporter who watched to ascer-tain, if possible, some light on the reasons for the immensity of Cooper's success interviewed about twenty his callers yesterday afternoon. The statements made by those seen indicate that physicians who claim Cooper is merely a passing fad, have 41 N. Tryon St. Corner 5th not looked into the facts.

Some of these statements were as tollows: Mrs. Anna B. Hampton, living at 1422 Michigan, Ave., being questioned, said:

"I have been troubled with general debility, weakness, dizziness, head-ache, sleeplessness and stomach trouble for over three years. I had titled a number of medicines and visited several doctors, but none nelped me. I heard on all sides of these Cooper Remedies and decided to try them. Any one who says that they are not wonderful medicines. does not know what they are talking bout. After I used the first bottle, I noticed a decided improvement. I have almost taken one bottle of the New Discovery and I am so wonderfully improved that I have come down here to thank Mr. Cooper in person and obtain more of the medicine." Another statement was made by Miss Margaret Gordon, living at 210 Center St., who said: "I have been a sufferer with rheumatism for sevral years. I have tried many remedies, and have been treated by a number of physicians. Nothing helped me in any way and I despaired of finding relief.
