Much interest in Lexington ceners on the question of locating the depot for the Southbound Railway. were here this week to go over the tion. The railroad authorities have about decided to locate the depot in the southwestern part of town about the corporate limits. The citiphicat seriously to the most part t seriously to this location, as it is so far from the business center. To give shape to their objections, they have circulated a petition of protest, which has been signed by a majority of the business men, and will be forwarded to the railroad. The Southbound people contend that they would willingly locate the station to suit the people, but they cannot get the site for it, nor the right-of-way. The present location of the road, which will be final it seems, traverses the mile of the court house.

DEDICATION OF NEW CHURCH. On Sunday, October 28, the First lethodist church will be dedicated. The announcement was made by the paster, Rev. J. N. Huggins, at the merging service to-day and follows the final payments which have been de by the congregation to raise the surch debt. The new church was utit about three years ago at a cost # $12,000, and much credit is due the present pastor, whose tireless enchurch members and their friends, have made it possible to clear the encumbrance from their handse building in so short time. The former church on the same site was burned down. The dedication sermon on October 28 will be preached by Dr. Detwiler, of Greensboro.

October 1, 1906. 17,000 Shares in Force.

A NEW RECORD

The management of the above Association has, from its earliest organizatiol realized the fact that the officers of it were simply the "Trustees of the Public," and hence they have on every and all occasions endeavored to inform the public of its workings and to have the public share in the felicitations of the Association's success, and the marvelous results attained have shown that open, fair and honest statements of the conditions of the Association are appreciated by and duly responded to by an observing and discerning public. The management at this time feels proud and highly elated over having established a new, heretofore unheard of record, in having attained the high mark of 17,000 shares now in force, equal to a matured value of $1,700,-000.00. The management now aspires for the present for only 500 additional shares, in order to have the even sum of One and Three-Quarter Million Dollars.

On Paying of Bills

It is well to pay bills promptly, but not to pay the same bill twice. Sometimes book-keepers, by mistake, send out bills after they have been paid. If you pay by check, however, the canceled checks are returned to you and can be produced as receipts Checking accounts are therefore more than a convenience. They are an insurance against everpayment. Every man or woman who pays bills should do so with checks.
