

Social and Personal

Thalberg's Evening Times yesterday had the following: Miss Placie Ellington and Mr. John Quint Sprinkle were united in marriage last night at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. J. C. Ellington, on Newberry avenue, the ceremony making one of the prettiest home weddings of the season.

The marriage was at 9 o'clock and Rev. J. C. Massey, pastor of the Tabernacle Baptist church, officiated. There was a large gathering of relatives and admiring friends to witness the ceremony and extend best wishes. The lovely home was specially decorated for the occasion and afforded a beautiful setting for the wedding.

Mr. Bayard H. Ellington, of Richmond, eldest brother of the bride, gave her away, and Miss Bernice Ellington, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. The best man was Mr. C. S. Keeble, of Raleigh.

The bride was attired in a lovely gown of white net, with burges lace veil and her flowers were bride's roses. The maid of honor wore a costume of white-net over pink silk and carried pink roses.

Mrs. Charles Albright rendered the music for the ceremony and played prettily "Because I Love Thee," "Thou Art Mine All" and "I Promise Thee." For the entrance of the bride party there were the stirring strains of Tannhauser and for the recessional the wedding march from Lohengrin.

The bride is one of Raleigh's most attractive young women, greatly admired by all who have the honor of her acquaintance. The groom is a prosperous and highly esteemed young business man of Charlotte. Numerous and costly wedding gifts attested the high esteem in which both are held in a wide circle of friends. They left on the train for Raleigh this morning for a trip North, after which they will be at home in Charlotte.

Among the out-of-town people here for the wedding were the groom's father, Mrs. J. W. Sprinkle, of Charlotte; Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Hinton, of Mrs. J. M. Turley and Miss Lucille Ellington, of Clayton; Miss Margaret Ethridge, of Selma; Mr. Bayard H. Ellington, of Richmond; Van and Mrs. and Miss Tomlinson, of Smithfield.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Young, of Winston-Salem, were in the city yesterday. They are on their way to the West.

Miss Van Buren Charlton, who has been in St. Peter's Hospital for four weeks, was able to go to the home of her sister, Mrs. R. J. Walker, in Dilworth, yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Smith have moved into their handsome new residence at 809 East Fourth street.

Miss Daisy Meaga left last night for Asheville, where she will spend some time.

The social event of to-day will be the card party of Mrs. Paul Chatham and Miss Margaret Thurmond, on South Tryon street, this afternoon.

Mrs. E. C. Register and J. L. Sexton will spend to-day at Concord with Mrs. Register's parents, Judge and Mrs. W. J. Montgomery. They will go by automobile.

Mrs. W. A. Matthews, of Laurel Hill, Fla., is the guest of Mrs. C. M. Carson, on South Tryon street.

Mrs. J. Frank McCubbin, of Salisbury, spent yesterday in the city, shopping. She was a guest at the Hotel Buford.

Among the visitors in the city yesterday were Messames W. C. Hardison and Frank M. Little, Misses Neta and Sarah Little and Masters Kenneth and Joe Hardison.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Crowell, of Wilmington, were visitors in the city yesterday.

Among the guests at the Hotel Buford yesterday were Mr. and Mrs. Angus Fairley and Miss Mary Fairley, of Laurinburg.

Little Miss Elizabeth Allen entertained a number of her friends at a birthday party yesterday afternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock.

A number of Charlotte's most attractive young ladies are to be married soon. The wedding season is on in earnest.

Mrs. R. C. Moore and Mrs. E. B. Springs returned last night from Yorkville, S. C.

Working Men's Committee Meets. The working men's political committee of the city held a meeting in the central hall last night for the purpose of considering the work in the present political campaign. There was a full attendance. Various matters were discussed, and it was said that a perfect working organization was created. A grand rally will be held on Monday night, when prominent speakers will be heard. It is the purpose of those interested to make this rally the biggest thing that will be pulled off in this campaign.

Steadily All Right Now. Solicitor A. L. Brooks, of Greensboro, is in the city on his way to Lincoln, where he will speak to-day. Mr. Brooks spoke in Albemarle yesterday. In talking with an Observer man last night, he said that he is steadily all right now. He thinks that Hackett will get a majority of about 700 or more. Mr. Brooks is one of the most attractive young speakers in the State and those who hear him consider that they have had a treat.

Davidson Folks Coming to Game Today—New Radiators. Special to the Observer.

Davidson, Nov. 2.—The Clemson-Davidson game to-morrow afternoon will be witnessed by a large number of Davidsonians, villagers and students. All students are allowed to go down on the midway train, returning at 5 p. m., who bring a request from parents requesting this privilege for their sons, and more than 50 have secured such a request. It was supposed at first that very few would leave the hill.

The long expected and long delayed steam radiators for the Watts dormitory have come and will soon be radiating some heat, so the occupants of this new building have hope. They have for a month been sitting by "the other man's fire" and envying him its possession.

Mr. S. P. Telfair, of Washington, was a guest of the Buford last night.

THE BEST CHORUS YET.

The girls furnish the fun in "Bankers and Brokers" — a lively, well-trained, most attractively costumed chorus.

"Bankers and Brokers," the attraction at the Academy last night, was witnessed by an audience that was kept in a rollicking good humor throughout. Gus Yorkie and Nick Adams, the comedian stars of the play, were pretty good, very good at times, but the pleasure of the evening was probably the youngest, freshest and best drilled that has been to the Academy this season.

The girls were young, of artistic architecture, and possessed good voices as a whole although there was no particularly good soloist in the bunch. The chorus appeared in a dozen different costumes, all of which were pretty and attractive—and most of them very abbreviated in length.

There was little plot to the play, which is from the pen of Aaron Hoffman, but the lines are clever and the music good. The scenery appropriate and attractive.

Knocked From Car by Wagon Pole. R. S. Furr, a young white man, was knocked from the steps of a street car on North Tryon street last evening by the pole of a wagon that was meeting the car. He was boarding the car at the fifth street intersection and did not see the wagon, which was meeting the car. He was knocked violently to the ground, having two or three bones broken and being severely bruised. He was taken to the Presbyterian Hospital, where he is being cared for. Furr is the same young man who became ill at the fair grounds a few weeks ago and was under treatment at the hospital for quite a while he was unable to be out.

Seceder College Booming Ultra Modern. Charleston News and Courier.

The Due West correspondent of the Charlotte Observer speaks of Mr. Browline, the representative of the Brake Tennis Association, as having met with representatives from all the colleges in this State at the recent fair in Columbia. The Seceders appear to be keeping fully abreast of the times. Tennis was not a part of the curriculum in Erskine some years ago. There is no harm in tennis, we believe, but even if there is, the times make it necessary for the College at the Corner to keep pace with the progress of events. What with its dormitories, and tennis courts, and base ball team, and the peals in masonry set to two-story music, it must be admitted that the headquarters of the true prophets is conforming to the world as nearly as circumstances, not to speak of convictions, will permit.

Very Much the Reverse in Charlotte. Greenville, S. C. News.

Some remarkable deductions can be drawn from tax return figures, in Greenville county, for example, there was a larger increase in population in dogs than in people during the past year. In 1905 there were 6,327 polls and in 1906 the number went to 6,753, an increase of 413. According to the tax books, the dog population in 1905 amounted to 1,484, while this year it is 3,264, an increase of 1,780. In other words, they are getting dogs on the tax books faster than they are people.

Come Along, Colonel. Everything.

Gosh all hemlocks! And Esrum and Bailey's circus is going to do Charlotte about November tenth. Are we going? Well, cert. Miss a circus—even if we have to wear an overcoat—not on your life! A circus—why that is the only thing in all the world worth while. We are going if we have to walk and crawl in under the canvas.

The Proof of the Pudding is the eating; 2,400 people eat Wheat Hearts daily in Asheville alone.

Have You Got a Lard Load On Your Stomach?

Hog lard is hard to digest. Many of the so-called diseases of the stomach and digestive organs are due directly to the continued and too frequent use of hog lard. Ask your doctor. Do you feel heavy and dull after eating—languid, listless and inert?

The chances are you have got a lard load on your stomach. Cut out hog lard for a month and note the difference in your feelings.

The Federal Court was engaged all day in the continuation of the trial of Capt. Maushlin McLean, master of the British steamer, charged with unlawfully detaining United States marines aboard his vessel from Newport News to Wilmington, the men being shipped at the first named port.
