IN THE REALM OF NORTH CAROLINA SOCIETY

GREENSBORO.

who stood before the altar. She wore a beautiful white lace robe over chiffen built on taffeta, gloves a vell caught up with orange blossoms and carried a bouquet of bride's roses, lites of the valley and flower forn. ies of the valley and flower fern. Her only ornament was a handsome gold n.cklace, an heirloom. The smald of honor wore blue silk mull over taffeta and carried pink roses. Immediately after the wedding, the briral party drove to the passenger depot. There the couple boarded the search of westbound train for a the evening westbound train for a

From the mountains of North Carolina Mr. and Mrs. Mebane will go to Jackson, Miss., to reside for a time.

Miss Long is one of the most popular young women of the Old North State. She is a gifted singer and combines with her accomplishment a rure charm of manner and disposi-tion. Mr. Mebane is a business man of experience, and few young men have the confidence of so many friends For a number of years he has held a position with the South-ern Life and Trust Company.

Another wedding of equal intere Greensboro was celebrated in the First Presbyterian church Tuesday forming when Miss Julia Gilme Glenn became the bride of Mr. Robert Goodloe Sloan, of Richmond, Va. the .ev. Dr. Egbert W. Smith offi-

Miss Linda Hendrix played on the pipe-organ Lohengrin's wedding march as the bridal party entered and advanced down the alales to the altar. The ushers came first—Mr. John S. Cater and Mr. John A. Tate, both of Charlotte, and Mr. John A Glimer of Greensobor, by the left size and Mr. R W. Glenn, of Memphis

Miss Lucy Glenn, the maid of hon-or, came down the centre alele ir dvance of the bride, who came in leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. Robert G. Glenn, who gave her away. The bridegroom entered from the pastor's study, acompanied by ander Sloan, of Richmond, Va. Mr. Sloan and Miss Glenn met at the ultar, and Dr. Smith, in a very impressive manner read the wedding service of the church. The ring service was used. As the bridal par-ty retired Moss Hendrix rendered the march from Mendelssohn The bride wore a becoming dark blue cloth dress, trimmed in fancy braid and blue velvet, with hat to match, and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses. The maid of honor wore hand-embroidered white crepe the chine over white silk, trimmed in real lace, and blue hat, trimmed with pink roses. She carried pink oses and asparague ferns.

From the church the bridal party drove to the home of Mrs. John A. Gilmer, where they remained for only a brief time, going from there to the passenger station. Mr. and Mrs. Sloan tooks a northbound train at 1 o'clock for a bridal trip to Northern cities. They will reside in Richmond, Va., upon their return to that city in a few days.

A marriage of much interest to a large number of friends was that of Miss Nell Clendenin Glascock to Mr. Robert Goldston Rives in Centenary M. E. church Wednesday morning at eleven o'clock, the Rev. A. T. Bell, of the church officiating. The aridal party entered to the strains of rendered by the organist. The bride and her attendants entered and marched down the aisle, meeting the bridegroom and the best man at the bridegroom and the best man at the altar, Preceding them were the ushers—Messrs. Ed. Cartland, Arthur Pearce, Will Glascock and Robert Sills. The dame of honor was Mrs. N. W. Brown, of Hillsboro, sister of the bride; the maid of honor, Miss ouquet of bride's roses. The dame of honor wore cream volle over cream silk and carried chrysanthe-mums, while the maid of honor's cos-tume was pearl grey creps de chine over grey taffeta. She carried chrysanthemums. Both the dame of honor and maid of honor wore black picture hats.

picture hats.

Mr. and Mrs. Rives left on a north-bound train at noon for Richmond, Va., which place they will make their future home. The many val-uble gifts received by the bride show in a high degree the high es-teem in which the young couple is hald.

teem in which the young couple is held.

A most enjoyable reception was tendered Monday night at the rectary by the congregation of the St. Barnabas Episcopal church to the new rector, the Rev. Thos. G. Faulkner, and his wife. The effair was greatly enjoyed by all who attended. The hours were from 8 to 11 o'clock, and messify 200 parishloners called during the evening to extend the hand of welcome to the new rector. The house was attractively decorated with red and yellow autumn loaves and chaysauthemiums and in the dining from the table decorations were pink rosss and asparagus forms. The receiving party was constituted as follows.

lows: In the hall, Mr. and Mrs. W.

Correspondence of The Observer.

Greansboro, Nov. 2.—October was a month of weddings in the city and many young people bowed at the shrine of Hymen during the month Many of them were members of Greensboro's best families, and those who move in the first social circles of the city. Among these weddings none was of greensboro best families, and those who move in the first social circles of the city. Among these weddings none was of greens interest to so large a number of Greensboro people as that of Mr. R. J. Mebane and Miss. Pearl Hamilton Long in the Fresbyterian church at Graham Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

The church had been besultfully decorated with paims, ferns potted plants and cut flowers.

Mrs. Myra Albright, of Greensboro, was at the organ and played the marches and music for the occasion. Before the brids; party entered, Miss. Lots Long, or Statesville, sang very sweetly. "Booause." The organish hengrin's brids; march for the reconstitution of the prospective bridgegroom, Mr. Those, & Beall and Falul Schenck, of Greensboro, and J. Elimer Leng. of Pictoro, were distinct from the reconstruction of the reconstitution of the reconstruction of the prospective bridgegroom, Mr. Those, & Beall and Falul Schenck, of Greensboro, and J. Elimer Leng. of Pictoro, were distinct from the reconstruction of the reconstruction of the prospective bridgegroom, Mr. Those, & Beall and Falul Schenck, of Greensboro, and J. Elimer Leng. of Pictoro, were distinct the conspicuation of the prospective bridgegroom, Mr. Those, & Beall and Falul Schenck, of Greensboro, and J. Elimer Leng. of Pictoro, were distinct the construction of the prospective bridge and the bridge the work of the work of the construction of the prospective bridge and the prospective bri esting and instructive papers were read by Mrs. V. E. Turner and Miss Jane Ward. A dainty luncheon was served after the literary session was over. Among those present were: Mrs. V. E. Turner, Mrs. A. B. Andrews, Mrs. I. McK. Pittinger, Mrs. Knox, Mrs. Herbert Jackson, Mrs. Mc. Bee. Mrs. T. H. Bushee Mrs. Checker. Bee, Mrs. T. H. Busbee, Mrs. Charles Busbee, Mrs. T. R. Robertson, Misses Mattle Bailey, Jane Ward, Pattle Mordecai, Kate Shipp.

Miss Frances Strong entertained about twenty-five of her young friends and presented it to the guest of honor. The consolation went to Miss Nell Hinsdale, who presented it to Miss Ball, of Norfolk, another charming visitor to Raieigh. Mr. Harris guests were: Minses Grace Brown, of Concord; Miss Bessie Ball, of Norfolk; Irene Lacy, Neil Hinsdale, Mary Barbee, Helen Moring, Lucy Petty, of Carthage; Mary Andrews, Namie Rogers, Louise Linton, Margie Ferrall and Dalsy Moring; Messrs, Graham Andrews, James Arrington, Yab Briggs, James McKinnon, Willis Briggs, W. M. Allen, W. A. Parker, Harry Pool, William Graham, Will Pace, Will Harris, Allen Higgs, Dr. Russell Sherrill and Mr. Armbuster.

More, —Mrs. L. A. Carr has returned to Durham, after a visit to her brother, Dr. Norwood Carroll,—Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Worth, of Wilsmington, are guests at the home of Mr. James H. Poe.—Mrs. John Dockery has returned to Durham, after a visit to her brother, Dr. Norwood Carroll,—Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Worth, of Wilsmington, are guests at the home of Mr. James H. Poe.—Mrs. John Dockery has returned to her home of Mr. James H. Poe.—Mrs. John Dockery has returned to her home of Mr. James H. Poe.—Mrs. John Dockery has returned to her home of Mr. James H. Poe.—Mrs. John Dockery has returned to Durham, after a visit to her brother, Dr. Norwood Carroll,—Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Worth, of Wilsmington, are guests at the home of Mr. James H. Poe.—Mrs. John Dockery has returned to her home of Mr. James H. Poe.—Mrs. John Dockery has returned to her home of Mr. James H. Poe.—Mrs. John Dockery has returned to her home of Mr. James H. Poe.—Mrs. John Dockery has returned to Durham, after a visit to her brother, Dr. Norwood Carroll,—Mr.

On Thursday afternoon Miss Mary On Thursday afternoon Miss Mary Andrews entertained the Bridge Whist Club in her usual charming manner. There were five tables of bridge, the first price being given to Mrs. A. H. Arrington, and the second to Miss Mary Denson. Those who shared the hospitality of Miss Andrews were: Misses Nell Hinsdale, Irene Lacy, Mary Barbee, Mary Latta, Mary Thompson, Lena Latta, Maggie Tra-Thompson, Lena Latta, Maggie Trapier, Lucy Haywood, Margaret McKay, Mary Denson, Alethia McGehee,
Louise Linton, Mrs. R. Y. McAden,
Mrs. A. H. Arrington, Mrs. S. B.
Shepherd, Mrs. D. O. Sunderland,
Mrs. S. A. Ashe, Jr., Mrs. W. N. H.
Smith, Mrs. John oDckery, Mrs. Buell,
Misses Mary and Lucy Andrews, Dainty refreshments were served.

A most delightful accasion was en-

A most delightful occasion was en A most delightful occasion was enjoyed Friday afternoon when Miss Helen Moring entertained at cards in honor of her guest, Miss Grace Brown, of Concord. Six handed euchre was played, the prize being won by Miss Margie Ferrall, who very gracefully presented it to Miss Brown. The consolation went to Miss Hall Morson. Dainty refreshments were served. Those present were: Misses Morson. Dainty refreshments were served. Those present were: Misses Harriet Haywood, Lucy Petty, of Carthage, Hal Morson, Ellen Durham, Lena Latta, Louise Linton, Rebekah Glenn, Irene Lacy, Susie Tucker, Mary Smedes, Mary Latta, Lilly Ferrall, Aline Young, Helen Ozzell, Louia Briggs, Flora Creech, Vivienne Moncure, Belle Moncure, Miss Pennington, of Baltimore: Daisy Moring, Minnle Moring, Lilly Skinner, Mrs. R. Y. McAden, Mrs. Henry Coles, of Atlanta; Mrs. James Poliard, Mrs. M. W. Crocker.

William Marshall Musselwnite, Son of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Musselwhite, of at a hallowe'en party on Wednesday afternoon.

There was an enjoyable meeting of the Kentness Book Club with Miss Peneiope Davis at her home on Davison street. The subject for the study this season is "Italian Painting," divided in the following topics: Early Italian, freeco painters, early renaissance painters, later renaissance painters, and the school of Venetian painters. There was an excellent peneighbor the painters. painters, and the school of Venetian painters. There was an excellent paper presented by Miss Sarah Cheshire, whose discussion of the subject was very interesting. After the literary session was concluded, delicious refreshments were served. Those present were: Misses Sarah Cheshire, Elizabeth Cheshire, Mary Armstead Jones, Susan McPheeters, Eleanor Vass, Sallie Dortch, Lula Briggs, May Jones, Isabel Busbee, Elizabeth Briggs, Sadje Root, Lila Philips, of Jones, Isabel Busbee, Elizabeth Briggs, Sadie Root, Lila Philips, of Tarboro; Lizzie Jones, and Mrs. R. W. D. Connor.

Mrs. A. B. Hawkins gave a beautiful sternoon tea on Monday in honor of a number of Florida and North Carolina girls from St. Mary's School. The parlors were artistically decorated with yellow chrysanthemums, the color scheme throughout being yellow. Each guest was presented with a souvenir of yellow chrysanthemums. Mrs. Charles McKinnon rendered delightfully several little songs, accomthe bridegroom and the best man at the altar. Preceding them were the ushers—Messra Ed. Cartland, Arthur Pearce, Will Glascock and Robert Sills. The dame of honor was Mrs. N. W. Brown, of Hillsboro, sister of the bride; the maid of honor, Miss Fannie Pearce. The bridegroom was Accompanied by his best man, Mr. Oscar McNairy.

The bride was attractively dressed in blue voile over blue taffeta, with first to match and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses. The dame

Mrs. Arthur Williford entertained most delightfully on Friday afternoon at bridge. The house was most beautifully and artistically decorated with autumn leaves, and after the games a most delicious, spread was served the guests. The first prize, a chocolate set, was won by Mrs. T. H. Busbee; the consolation, a bunch of white chrysanthemums, went to Mrs. Grimes Cowper. Those present were: Mrs. John Kenny, Mrs. John C. Drewry, Mrs. Brown Shepherd, Mrs. R. B. Raney, Mrs. Joe E. Payne, Mrs. R. B. Raney, Mrs. Joe E. Payne, Mrs. R. B. Raney, Mrs. Joe E. Payne, Mrs. R. Mrs. Herbert Roysier, Mrs. Grimes Cowper, Mrs. F. H. Busbee, Mrs. Mamie Albright, Mrs. Joe Terrell, Mrs. Henry Bagley, Mrs. Joe Terrell, Mrs. Henry Bagley, Mrs. Robert McGenchy, Mrs. Leo Heartt, Mrs. O'Donnell, Miss Kate McKinnon, Miss Sophy Grimes, Miss Ellisabeth Crow, Miss Nell Hinsdale, Miss Blanche Heartt, and Mrs. Bruce Wright, Mrs. S. A. Asho, Misses Trapier.

The Saous souch held a very enjoyable meeting with Mrs. Bruce Wright on Tuesday afternoon. The game played was six handed euchres the first prize being won by Mrs. R. A. B. Hall, the second by Mrs. R. Henry Miller, and the third by Mrs. A. W. U. Connor. Those present were: tile folks rendered in a thoroughly Mrs. R. W. D. Connor. Mrs. Robert discrements fitting manner the dramatization of "Little Men." The music was a six charming manner the dramatization of "Little Men." The music was a six charming feature. Mrs. R. S. Galloway delighting the suddian Ferrall, Mrs. Grimes Cowper, Mrs. J. Dayse, Mrs. Henry Miller, Mrs. Johnse Haywood, Mrs. Alf. Thompatian Ferrall, Mrs. Grimes Cowper, Mrs. J. Dayse, Mrs. Henry Miller, Mrs. Johnse Haywood, Mrs. Alf. Thompatian Ferrall, Mrs. Grimes Cowper, Mrs. J. Dayse, Mrs. Henry Miller and fully discussed and fully discus Mrs. James Williamson, Mrs. Nor-wood Carroll, Mrs. C. C. Crow, Miss Pattie Mordecai, Miss Mary Lawrence Hinton, Miss Sophy Grimes, Miss Hal Morson, Miss Mary Latta, Miss Jens nie Coffin, Miss Margie Ferrali.

boro.—Mrs. L. A. Carr has returned to Durham, after a visit to her brother, Dr. Norwood Carroll.—Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Worth, of Wilmington, are guests at the home of Mr. James H. Poe.—Mrs. John Dockery has returned to her home in Rockingham, after visiting her parents, Capt. and Mrs. N. W. West.

This remark applies with equal force and aptitude to the scribe of to-day, and aptitude to the scribe of to-day, and yet the scribe who ignores "times and seasons" runs a risk that few of the kind will dare incur. Just as the national games, the Superculia, the Saturnalia and other pagan festivals of classic days, punctuated the year with holiday merry-making, just as the intermittent brightness of Sanita' days relieved the gloom of mediaeval days relieved the gloom of mediaeval times, so anniversaries have come to be an all-prevading force in love, literature and social life, and the one possession in which all may share and none be the poorer thereby. Hallowe'en, half-pagan, half-Christian, altogether delightful to the young and happy, is with us again and merry-makings of various kinds are excluding the weightier matters of the law, which make up the major part of our life in this working-day world.

All this is very well, in a way, but

All this is very well, in a way, but somehow there is something uncanny in the popular way of looking a Hallowe'en. Itsnearness to the festival of All Saints, one of the sweet est and tenderest in the calendar seems to make the follies and flippancies induiged at this time a little off color, and its revival in later years among those who enjoy it and among those who tolerate it, is but another proof that "times and sea-sons" can not be too many nor too frequent for our pleasure-loving world. Monday afternoon the Woman's Book Club held one of its most interesting and prolable meetings. On this delightful occasion Miss Mabel Traxler was the hostess. Roll call was answered by the name of some book of fiction dealing with the Revo-ition or characters who figured in it. The reading from "Poor Richard's Almanac" was very charmingly given himanac" was very charmingly given by Mrs. Lewis Owen. A very fine paper on Benjamin Franklin was furnished by Miss Dalsy Spaugh, After the literary feast a delicious collation was served by the hostess.

The Monday Afternoon Book Club found a most agreeable hostess in Mrs. Erastus Beverley Jones. In addition to the Bay View course which this club has adopted as an outline of study, it still retains the admirable feature of discussing at each meeting the best and latest books in the world of fiction, each member of the club furnishing a book, which is pass-ed around as in a circulating library. The club is now studying early Eng-land and the very best part of a delightful evening was brought out in a lightful evening was brought out in a most excellent paper on the Druids, furnished by Mrs. Henry Roan. Besides the members of the club, Mrs. Thomas Masila, Mrs. Guerrant, who is the guest of Mrs. C. D. Lilly and Miss Sue Betting, of California, were guests and enjoyed the charming hospitality of the agreeable hostess.

Invitations to what promises to be most enjoyable, occasion read as

Mrs. W. L. Ferrell Mrs. L. E. Poindexter and Mrs. J. W. Ferrell

Friday November 2. The efforts of the ladies appointed by Mrs. Lindsay Patterson to solicit funds for the McIver Monument have been very successful in the Twin City, the gratifying sum of $185 of the $300 it is proposed to raise herehaving been already subscribed. But so far, the palm belongs to Elkin. Through the efficient exertions of Mrs. Hugh Chatham that enterprising town has raised not only the full amount at which it was assessed, but it has gone all other towns one better and

A most creditable as well as enjoyable entertainment was given in the assembly hall of the North Winston graded school on Tuesday night by onw trained nature says it louder of the bridal party of Capt. and Mrs. Z. V. Walser entertained their friends

mose with

Miss Cynthie Jones' was and Miss exquisite vocal selections, and Miss exquisite vocal selections, and Miss Helen Smith with a beautiful instrufunctions of the coming functions of the comi ment.

Miss Sarah Ferrell and Miss Senah Critz left Tuesday for Elizabeth City, where they will be members of a house party in the home of Miss Mary weigh Robinson.—Mrs. T. L. Vaughn
and Mrs. Powell Gilmer left Tuesday

and on Tuesday afternoon 'twas not because it was the first meeting of The following invitation has been received by friends in Raleigh:

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Steele Ledbetter invite you to be present at the marriage of their daughter, Mary Scales,

Mr. Alfred Settle Dockery, on the evening of Wednesday, the fourteenth of November, one thousand nine hundred and six at seven o'clock,

Mr. Dockery is well known in Raleigh, having represented his county in the Legislature here. He is a son of ex-United States Marshal Henry C. Dockery, and one of the most prominent young lawyers in the State. The bride-to-be also has many friends Monday night from 8:30 till 12 o'clock a guessing contest was the in Raleigh, as well as in other parts of North Carolina. She is a charming ong woman of one of the most prominent families in the State.

The Missionary Book Club held a pleasant meeting with Miss Penick last week. A paper was read by Miss Willie Law concerning missions in Japan. After this there were recitations by Miss Law, and Miss Eliss Brown, while musical selections were rendered by Mrs. Bauman, Mass Many Montague and Emily Steinmetz, Among those present were; Misses Irsone Lacy, Estelle Ennis, May Mon-

The Missionary Book Club held a pleasant meeting with Miss Penlot last week, A paper was read by Miss Wille Law concerning missions in Japan. After this there was a series of the bride-elect.

Among those present were treated by Mrs. Bauman. Miss Brown, while muscle elections by Miss Law, and Miss Eliss Brown, while muscle elections by Miss Law, and Miss Eliss Brown, while muscle elections by Miss Law, and Miss Eliss Brown, while muscle elections by Miss Law, and Miss Eliss Brown, while muscle elections are committeed for programmes. Miss Among those present were treated by Mrs. Beauman. Miss Mills Eliss Brown, and Miss Friends and Emily Steinmets.

Miss Wille Law Mary Durnan, Miss Mary Montague and Emily Steinmets.

Miss Wille Law, Mary Durnan, Miss Law, and Miss Eliss Brown, while muscle elections or present were treated by Mrs. Beauman, Miss Mills held in Winston-Seleman decision to the club to meet with her on next Tuesday fixeraon. After the many friends grant the Tort. Wills Law, Mary Durnan, Bessie Law, Katie Walker, Louis Miller, and Emily Steinmets.

Miss Julis Moment has returned from an extended trip to Canada and Miss In the Contage of the Walker, Louis Miller, and Emily Steinmets.

Miss Julis Moment has returned from an extended trip to Canada and Miss In the Miller, and Emily Steinmets.

Miss Julis Moment has returned from an extended trip to Canada and Walker feature of the afternoon was the "Pig Book." Back guest, with closed eyes, was expected to the grant from the price of the afternoon was the "Pig Book." Back guest, with closed eyes, was expected to the grant from the price of the afternoon was the "Pig Book." Back guest, with closed eyes, was expected to the grant from the price of the afternoon was the "Pig Book." Back guest, with closed eyes, was expected to the grant from the price of the afternoon was the "Pig Book." Back guest, with closed eyes, was expected to the grant from the price of the evening this book was guest of the process of the process of the process of the process of the

Mr. and Mrz. John Gilmer left to be resumed 'till be the following morning. They need no guest tween.

Jones, of Varnvile.—Mr. and Mrz. R. They need no guest tween.

J. Reynolds and son have returned from a visit to friends in Bristoi. Tenn.—Miss Emms Stanfield returned Tuesday from a delightful visit to friends and relatives in Lynchburg.

Va.

The Twin City has frequent and very pleasant acquisitions to its social life, but none have been more distinctly charming and delightful than the coming to our midst of Mr. and Mrs. O. H. P. Cornell, their daughter, Miss O. H. P. Cornell, their daughter, Miss Cornell and their married daughter, Mrs. Arthur Goodspeed, Mr, Cornell is prominently connected with the Southbound Railway, now in progress of construction; hence the presence of his family in our midst. In the absence of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Douglas, who are spending the winter in the for South, Mr. Cornell and family are living in their home and filling what living in their home and filling what would otherwise be a gap in our social life.
Mrs. Blanche Brown and Miss

Lisette Brown, of Lexington, were guests in town this past week.—Miss Laura Hairston, who was the guest of Mrs. John L. Gilmer for ten days, Correspondence of The Observer. High Point, Nov. 2.—The Teachers' Reading Circle held an interesting meeting Monday evening. The reading room was cheery, and among the ing room was cheery, and among the many bright faces of the members not one beamed with more intelligence than that of Rev. George H. Crowell, the president, who after the receiving of Miss Kathryne Griffin as a member, the exchange of books, and the completing of unfinished business, called for the following interesting programme: "Puritanism," Miss Notre Johnson: "Art and Architecture," Miss Mertha Blair; "Musicians," Mrs. G. H. Crowell; "Milton and Puritanism in Literature," Miss Buttrick; "Twenty Questions on the Political Situation and Literature of this Period. 1625-1700," Mr. Mc-Adams; "Discussion—'Is Paradise

They need no guest to come be Their tender glances like a screen, and tell them tales of land and sea, and whatsoever may betide. The great, forgotten world outside; They want no guest, they needs must be.

Each other's own best company."

Favetteville, Nov. 2.—The fair german, which took place in Williams' Hall Thursday night, was a pretty dance, and was greatly enjoyed by all present. The german was led by Messrs. Philip W. Haigh, James S. MacNeill and Robt. H. Dye. Levins' Orchestra, of Raielgh, furnished the music, and it was excellent.

The fair ball, which took place Friday night in Williams' Hail, was one of the most brilliant dances held here in years, and in point of beautiful women was unsurpassed. Levins' Orchestra, of Raleigh, made delightful music, which was as much enjoyed by the large number of spectators present as it was by the danc-of Mrs. John L. Gilmer for ten days, left Tuesday to visit relatives at Walnut Cove.—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Joseph Thomas have returned from their bridal trip and are with their sister, Mrs. Hamilton V. Horton.

The Hallowe'en party given by the young ladies of the First Baptist church at the home of Mrs. J. J. Roddick, on Holly avenue, was a charming success, both socially and financially.

THIGH POINT.

tors present as it was by the danciers.

The Down-Town Card Club was entertained by Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Alexander, Tuesday evening, at their home on Russel street. A delightful evening was spent, and the following were present: Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. Haigh, Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. Haigh, Mr. and Mrs. Lohn H. Jennings, Mr. and Mrs. Edmund H. Jennings, Mr. and Mrs. Roy H. MacDuffle, Mr. and Mrs. H. MacD. Robert inson. The following guests were alinson. The following guests were alinson. inson. The following guests were also present: Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lawrence Holt, Mr. and Mrs. Lutterloh, Mrs. Thomas N. Halliburton, Miss Thornton, and Miss Baker.

Captain and Mrs. John Henry Cur-rie celebrated their silver wedding at their hospitable home, Giendale,

M. M. Morrison, Jr., Son of Mr. and rs. M. M. Morrison, of Harrisburg.

still, that some of the Elizabethan Currie at their marriage twenty-five spoons.

FAYETTEVILLE.

orange blossoms. The grooms girst a pearl and diamond brooch, the wore at her throat, and carried shower bouquet of maiden hair form and britis a rosses. The maid of hand wore pink crepe de chine and her and carried white curnations. The indiamatics were white chiffon an lace, and carried pink carnations.

After the ceremony and congratus tions, the guests were invited into the dining hall, which was artistically decorated, and where a mind course we served. Punch was served in the hall. The presents were many as beautiful, and among them was a man hogany chair one-hundred years old presented by the bride's father, and a embroidered picture made by he grandmother, sixty-five years are the silver candle-stick used on the wedding table belonged to the bride great-grandmother. Mr. and Mr. Yarbrough left on a late train, antif a shower of rice, for a bridal tou North. Upon their return they will reside at Duke, their future home. The bride is the eldest daugnter of Mr. and Mrs. George Douglass Elliot a beautiful blonde, and deserved popular and highly esteemed. The groom a long line of aristocratic ancestry, and on her maternal side is the great-granddaughter of the lat Governor Worth, of North Carolina.

The groom is a young man of much popularity, and pleasing person ality, and now holds a responsible position with the Irwin Cetten Milliat Duke, North Carolina.

LEXINGTON.

at Duke, North Carolina.

Lexington, Nov. 2.—The first social meeting of the Sorosis Literary Club was held at the home of Mrs. C. A. Hanes on the beautiful autumn afternoon of October 18th. Mrs. S. E. Williams, the new club president, presided and the following members for the present year were in attendance: Mesdames C. A. Hanes, J. N. Huggins, Victor Humphreys, J. R. McCrary, H. H. Springs, J. G. Walser, Z. V. Walser, vice president; W. H. Walker, secretary; and Z. I. Walser, assistant secretary. Two members were absent, Mrs. W. E. Heit, Jr., and Miss Jessie Hunt. The following programme was carried out: Quotation, "North Carolina Poets;" Literature, "North Carolina," Mrs. W. H. Walker: "Misfortune and Its. Special to The Observer. ture, "North Carolina," Mrs. W. H. Walker: "Misfortune and Ita Uses," Mrs. S. E. Williams; Reading, "Hallowe'en," Mrs. Victor Humphreys.

The hostess, Mrs. C. A. Hanes, served dainty plates of chicken saled, pickle, celery, beaten biscuit and fried oysters, then ice cream in orange tissue paper covered cups, cakes, coffee and crackers tied with bows of orange ribbon. Last course, apples passed in a pumpkin waiter. The following ladies were invited guests: Mes-dames A. L. Sink, Lacy Barbee, C. C. Hargrave and W. C. Norman, Misses M. L. and Minnie Hargraves and Myrtle Hanes, of Greensboro, N.

Mrs. C. A. Hunt, Jr., was hostess Thursday afternoon to a number of her friends at her beautiful home on her friends at her beautiful home on Main street. After a while of social chat, each guest was presented with a dainty score card tied with red and green ribbon and then the game of Progressive Nations was indulged in Mrs. H. L. Radeline winning the first prize, a china mustard stand and Mrs. Brown the consolation, a candlestick The guests were then ushered into the dining room, where here and there were vases of large white crys-anthemums. First grape 'fruit was current jelly, sliced ham, beaten ? cuit, crackers, olives and pickles. Third course: Neopolitan he cream and cake, then coffee with whipped Mrs. Hunt made an ideal hosters

Mrs. Hunt made an ideal hostes and this event was voted by all present one of the most delightful of the season. The following were the guests: Mesdames E. L. Williams, Joel Hill, J. N. Huggins, Geo. Layburn, Victor Humphreys, W. E. Holt, Jr., H. L. Radciffe, W. A. Brown, C. A. Hunt, Sr., Richard Springs, George Montcastle, Ellen Hargrave, Joe Walser, Walter Mendenhall, Zeb Walser and Miss Nona Leonard. ser, Walter Mendenhall, and Miss Nona Leonard.

at Harcourt Place, their beautiful new home on State street. On All Saints Mrs. John Huske Anderson gave a delightful card party Tuesday afternoon, in honor of her sister, Miss Betsy London, of Pittsboro. An immense throng of card players filled the beautifully appointed rooms. Two rooms were devoted to five-hundred, and two others to bridge whist. Miss Lillian Haigh won the prize at the game of five-hundred, and Mrs. Walter Lawrence Holt at bridge whist, which were souvenir spoons.

CHERRYVILLE. Miss Blanche Thornton gave a bridge party Friday afternoon, in compliment to her sister, Mrs. Thomas Newton Halliburton, of Asheville, the old bachelors of Cherryville, Their stately home never looked thandsomer than on this occasion, and handsomer than on this occasion, and given by the old maids. After it

Club was field ast Tuesday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. Alvin Scott Parker, on Hamilton street. The property of the season, or that twas greeted with such unusual interest, but rather that one of the charter members, one of the season, or that twas greeted with such unusual interest, but rather that one of the charter members, one of the most loved club gris was for the most working business portion of the auternoon was the election of officers, and the honor too long worn, it is one of the unwritten laws of the club that the officers shall be changed, and led by the green, the entire club worked that the member who was one of the first promoters of the club, the one of the unwritten laws of the club that the officers shall be changed, and led by the green, the entire club worked that the member who was one of the first promoters of the club, the one of the first promoters of the club, the one of the first promoters of the club, the one of the first promoters of the club, the one of the first promoters of the club, the one of the first promoters of the club, the one of the first promoters of the club, the one of the first promoters of the club, the one of the first promoters of the club, the one of the first promoters of the club, the one of the first promoters of the club, the one of the first promoters of the club, the one of the first promoters of the club, the one of the first promoters of the club, the one of the first promoters of the club, the one of the first promoters of the club, the one of the first promoters of the club, th