Raleigh, Nov. 5. Glenn arrived this morn-Southern Railway from the Southern Railway from Ga., his return being entirely his private secretary. been the Governor's plans to make a speech or two next reck in the campaign. He left the pedalde of his brother, Edward P. B. Glenn at Macon, Ga., yesterday afoon. The physicians advised that his brother was getting on well, though of course there no hope of recovery, bbut he was ot in immediate danger as it was on eve of the election and some rioting or other trouble might occur, they advised the Governor to come ere saying that he could return in few days. Within an bour after his return a telegram came announcing that his brother was dead. The man was 46 years old and was n and reared in Rockingham aty. He married Miss Mary Pemon, of Fayetteville und soon afvards moved to Macon, Ga., where was connected with the Central Georgia Railway, in which posin he continued until his death. This death is the fourth in the Govrnor's family since his term of office an, including his brother, General James D. Glenn, the wife of Mr. Edward, Glyenn, a brother of Mrs. Glenn who died in the far West and whom ie had not seen for thirty years, and Mr. Edward Glenn, who igest brother and who is the last of the Governor's brothers to pass As soon as news was received of the death, the public buildings were closed. BRYAN SPEAKS ON "DREAMS."

Answers at Lincoln Republican Ora-tors, Especially Senator Beveridge. Who Have Spoken in Nebraska This Fall.

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 3.—Speaking at the auditorium to-night to a crowd that filed the hall to the doors, Wil-Ham J. Bryan concluded the political campaign in Lincoln. His subject was "Dreams," being an answer to Republican orators who have spoken in Nebraska this fall, especially in reply to Senator Albert J. Beveridge, of Indiana, who, in Lincoln several weeks ago, said Mr. Bryan was a splendid man, but in politics an impracticable dreamer.

Ms. Bryan says that Thomas Jef-erson had been called a dream, and hat in Jefferson's day they had a everidge in the person of Alexander familion, one of whose pet ideas was hat Presidents should be elected for cial to The Observer Mooresville, Nov. 3,-A very pretday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock at Centenary M. E. church. The contracting parties were Mr. Robert Lee Rankin and Miss Susle Mac Belk. Much interest was shown in this popular couple. The church was being well filled before the appointed hour drew

The attendants were: Miss Eunice Christenbury, of Davidson, with Mr. Marvin Brown, of Moeresville; Miss Angle Lipe, of China Grove, with Mr. James Fleming, of China Grove; Miss Daisy Overcash, of China Grove, with Mr. Thomas Goodnight, of Mt. Ulla: Miss Lillian Brown, of Mooresville, with Mr. Leroy Mc Laughlin, of Mt. Ulla. As the "Bridal Chorus" was beautifully rendered by Miss Mary Belle Bostian, of China Grove, the little flower girls, Edna Grey and Blanche Lawrance, dressed in the pretty dresses of write, marched up the left aigle. Then marched the bridesmaids one by one up the left siste dressed in their white organdy, while the groomsmen marched the right aislie, meeting the maids in front of the altar, and crossing, taking their respective places on opposite sides of the altar. Then came the bride, leaning on the arm of her sister, Miss Bessie, who gave her away to the groom. The latter came up the right aisle on the arm of his brother, Mr. Charles Rankin, of New London

The ceremony was simple but impressive, being performed by Rev. T. J. Rodgers, of Mooresville, while "Meditation" was softly played by Miss Bostian. The bride, looking her prettiest, was dressed in white china silk, the veil hanging gracefully over her shoulders. She carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums. Immediately after the ceremony the bridal party retired to the home of Mrs. Goodnight, where a dainty reception was tendered just before the ceremony. There they received showers of congratulations.

Mr. and Mrs. Rankin have hosts of friends who wish them much happiness. They left yesterday afternoon for Mr. Rankin's home near China Grove. From there they will go to New London for a short time. Their popularity is marked by the popularity is marked by the beautiful and useful presents received.

Mill Girls Strike at Scotland Neck. Special to The Observer.

Scotland Neck, Nov. 3 .- There was strike at the Scotland Neck Cotton Mill yesterday. A number of the operatives refused to go to work unless some regulations about the work were modified. The president of the mill, M. A. McDowell, having had reasons the night before to suspend such trouble, was promptly on hand and stood firm for what he considered reasonable regulation. About twenty of his best girl operatives walked While there is no very serious way. trouble in the matter, still the mills being preferred, L. L. Caudie, F. > Mr. Caldwell at Mooresville. Special to The Observer.

Mooresville, Nov. 3.-Mr. L. C. Caldwell, of Statesville, made a fine speech here last night to a full house. Standing room was at a premium in the hall and his speech was good from start to finish. The good speaking we have here during the campaig has done much toward waking up the Democrats and there will be some to vote the Democratic ticket this year who have not been out to he ballet box in six years.

NEW RECORD

The management of the above Association has, from its earliest organizatiol realized the fact that the officers of it were simply the "Trustees of the Public," and hence they have on every and all occasions endeavored to inform the public of its workings and to have the public share in the felicitations of the Association's success, and the marvelous results attained have shown that open, fair and honest statements of the conditions of the Association are appreciated by and duly responded to by an observing and discerning public. The management at this time feels proud and highly elated over having established a new, heretofore unheard of record, in having attained the high mark of 17,000 shares now in force, equal to a matured value of $1,700,-000.00. The management now aspires for the present

On Paying of Bills

It is well to pay bills promptly, but not to pay the same bill twice. Sometimes book-keepers, by mistake, send out bills after they have been paid. If you pay by check, however, the canceled checks are returned to you and can be produced as receipts. Checking accounts are therefore more than a convenience. They are an insurance against overpayment. Every man or woman who pays bills should do so with checks.

Your checking account will be welcomed at The Charlotte National Bank, where you are assured of absolute security and the most courteous service.
