A wedding invitation of all things demanded by social custom should be correct in form, and made of fine stationery. It is better not to issue any invitations at all than to send out something that is unfashionable or of poor material. If you wish to get absolutely the correct thing, consult J. F. STEVENS, ENGRAVING CO., the fashionable engravers, 47 Whitehall street, Atlanta, Georgia. This establishment produces the latest styles as fast as they are accepted by the elite of London or New York. Samples sent free of charge. Don't delay; write this house to-day.

A FAREWELL DANCE. The English, Irish and Scotch Girls Give a Final Rollicking Party—A Large Crowd Witnessed the Affair. The English girls gave a farewell dance in the hall in the Davidson building last night. The room was fairly well filled with spectators. Twenty-five cents admission fee was charged, and everybody who went got the worth of his money. The foreigners danced, sang and made merry until 11 o'clock. The following persons took part in the concert-dance: Miss Annie Gordon, Mr. Ratcliffe, Miss Ratcliffe, Mr. and Mrs. Stockdale, Mr. Frank Nolan, Mrs. Blackburn, Miss Lily Blackburn, Mrs. Julia Jones, Mr. John Jones, Master Frank Jones, Mr. George Bommer, Mr. and Mrs. James Robinson, Baby Norman Robinson, Miss Betsy Barton, Miss Martha Mullinex, Miss Frances Kennedy, Mrs. Kate Kelly, Mr. and Mrs. Powell, Miss Elizabeth Lever, Miss Evelyn Exley, Miss Annie Good, Miss Mary Fielding, Miss Clara Coward, Elizabeth Entwistle, and Mr. and Mrs. Lea, of England; Miss Betsy McDonald, of Scotland, and Misses Nancy O'Hara, Sonja Rogah, Kate Pullen, and Lily Rock, of Ireland.

The programme follows: Chairman, Mr. James Robinson; door-keeper, Mr. W. C. Owens; Frank Nolan, M. P. Song, "Dear Old Home Again," J. Robinson. Song, "Dear Little Shamrock," Miss Nancy O'Hara.

"In the Shade of the Old Apple Tree," Miss Lily Rock. Irish jig, by the Irish contingent. Cake walk, Misses Mullinex and McDonald. Song, "Her Own Boy Jack," Mr. Robinson.

The lancers' dance, by the English and Irish girls. Grand march, Mrs. Jones and Miss Pullen. "The Swell Outcast." A waltz. Song, "My Lady Love, Good-Bye," Miss Lily Rock.

The Set. Song, "Sweet Genevieve," Miss Nancy O'Hara. Song, "My Irish Molly Oh," by the English and Irish.

A Barn Dance. Song, "My Little Wooden Hut," by the English girls. Song by the American friends.

There has never been any social functions in this State that could be compared to the dances that the English, Irish and Scotch girls, who have been here giving testimony to Uncle Sam's Scotland Yard detectives, have given in the Davidson Hall. They have been part German, part ball, part square dance and part concert. The young men and women have taught those who have witnessed the dances that it is better to be merry to-day and not worry about to-morrow. Those who have seen these girls on the streets, not being used to their free and easy ways, have passed lightly upon their characters, but when they have seen them dance, in their own peculiar, interesting way, have gone away from the hall thinking well of them, feeling that they are a lot of rollicking, innocent girls of the English working class. They are not as supple as some North Carolina women, who trip the fantastic toe, but their hearts are open and their manner as cordial. They have innocent fun, but that is all. They are a better lot than they get the credit of being.

The singing last night was very good. Miss Annie Gordon sang: "Just a Little Off the Top," and was encored. She was not on the programme. Mr. Robinson volunteered to sing "Under the Old Apple Tree" in the absence of Miss Rock, who was to have sung it.

The party expects to return to England, leaving here this week, but there is no telling when, if ever, it will go.

The Value of Charcoal. Few People know How Useful it is in Preserving Health and Beauty. Costs Nothing to Try.

Nearly everybody knows that charcoal is the safest and most efficient disinfectant and purifier in nature, but few realize its value when taken into the human system for the same cleansing purpose.

Charcoal is a remedy that the more you take of it the better; it is not a drug at all, but it absorbs the gases and impurities always present in the stomach and intestines and carries them out of the system.

Charcoal sweetens the breath after smoking, drinking or after eating onions and other odorous vegetables. Charcoal effectually clears and improves the complexion. It whitens the teeth and further acts as a natural and eminently safe cathartic.

It absorbs the injurious gases which collect in the stomach and bowels; it disinfects the mouth and throat from the poison of catarrh.

All druggists sell charcoal in one form or another, but probably the best charcoal and the most for the money is in Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges; they are composed of the finest powdered willow charcoal, and other harmless antiseptics in tablet form or rather in the form of large, pleasant tasting lozenges, the charcoal being mixed with honey.

The daily use of these lozenges will soon tell in a much improved condition of the general health, better complexion, sweeter breath and purer blood, and the beauty of it is that no possible harm can result from their continued use, but, on the contrary, great benefit.

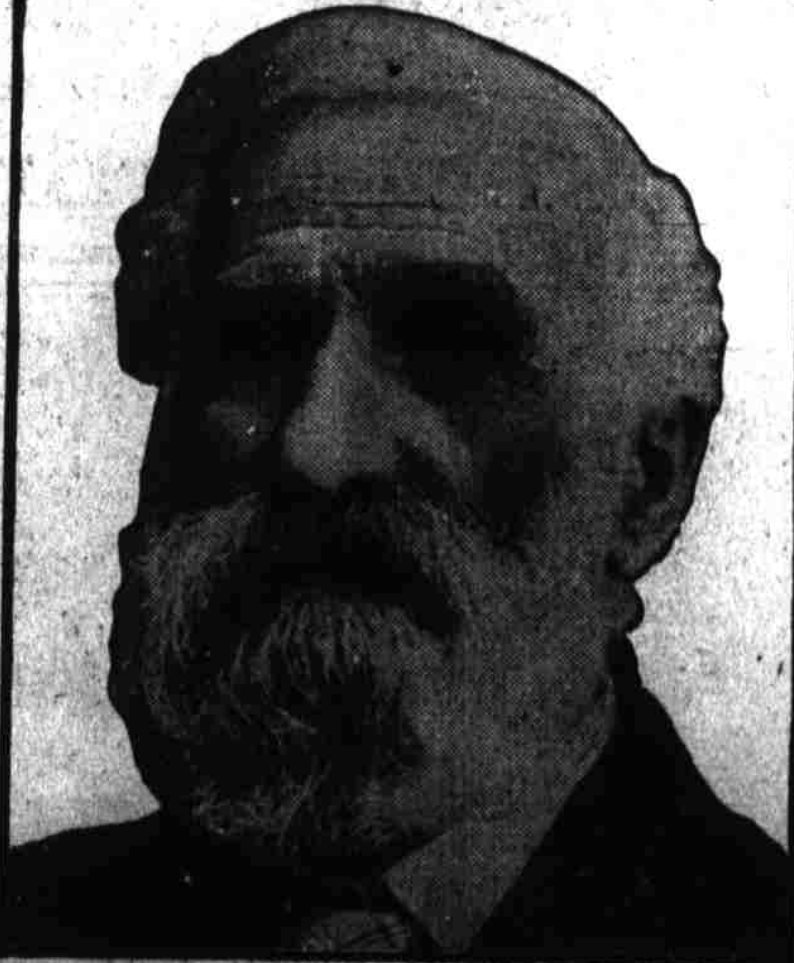

A Buffalo physician, in speaking of the benefits of charcoal, says: "I advise Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges to all patients suffering from gas in stomach and bowels, and to clear the complexion and purify the breath, mouth and throat; also I believe the liver is greatly benefited by the daily use of them; they cost but twenty-five cents a box at drug stores, and although in some sense a patent preparation, yet I believe I get more and better charcoal in Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges than in any of the ordinary charcoal tablets."

DYSENTERY CURED AT 88

Mr. Silas Dunton, who celebrated his 88th birthday on April 9th, last, and who has been one of the most highly respected and best known merchants for the past 60 years in Millbury, Mass., thanks Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey for his youth and vigor.

A friend of Mr. Dunton's says he looks so well that he is easily good for twenty years more.

Mr. Dunton visits his store almost every day. Last summer he had a severe attack of dysentery which was completely cured by Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey.

"I am using Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey, and think it very valuable as a medicine. Last July I was taken sick with dysentery, and the doctor thought my case was almost hopeless. A good doctor and a very good nurse worked over me night and day for four or five months, giving me all sorts of medicines. Finally I insisted on two or three spoonfuls of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey a day, and I do believe it was the medicine that cured me. For a man of 88 years I am very well."—Silas Dunton, Millbury, Mass., May 13th, '06.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

is an absolutely pure, gentle and invigorating stimulant and tonic, builds up the nerve tissues, tones up the heart, gives power to the brain, strength and elasticity to the muscles and richness to the blood. It brings into action all the vital forces, it makes digestion perfect and enables you to get from the food you eat the nourishment it contains. It is invaluable for overworked men, delicate women and sickly children. It strengthens the system, is a promoter of good health and longevity, makes the old young and keeps the young strong. Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey contains no fuel oil and is the only whiskey that is recognized as a medicine. This is a guarantee.

The Test of Superiority

The best evidence of the superiority of an institution or a commodity is furnished by the extent of the public's approval and patronage. No proposition can appeal to the public with great force or for any considerable length of time unless it be backed by merit. Nor does lasting success come by chance.

When these tests are applied to Life Insurance, it is found that the GREENSBORO LIFE is easily in the lead. It is attracting the hearty support of the best people in its territory and has come to be known as the LEADING HOME COMPANY. The superb INCOME INDEMNITY POLICY (sold only by the GREENSBORO LIFE) is recognized as the acme of perfection in Life Insurance. It is the ideal policy contract, offering more protection and guaranteeing better results than other policies. This explains why the representatives of the GREENSBORO LIFE (man for man) are able to sell more insurance than the representatives of any other company are selling.
