

RALEIGH

Correspondence of The Observer.

Raleigh, Nov. 9.—Miss Hattie B. Arrington entertained a number of her friends at cards on Saturday afternoon. Six-hand euchre was the game played, the prize a beautiful bunch of chrysanthemums, going to Miss Sarah Cheshire. After the game refreshments were served. Miss Arrington's guests were: Miss Hal Morrison, Miss Mary Latta, Miss Blanche Blake, Miss Lena Lott, Miss Sarah Cheshire, Miss Louisa Lee, Miss Irene Law, Miss Slocum, Miss Maude Arrington, Miss Kate Arrington, Miss L. Phillips, Mrs. Stedman, Mrs. W. H. N. Smith, Mrs. T. R. Robertson, Mrs. R. Y. McPherson, Mrs. Moore Parker, Mrs. R. W. McAden, Miss Betsy Montgomery, Mrs. Ben Lacy, Arrington, Mrs. R. W. D. Connor, Miss Elizabeth Cheshire, Mrs. William Hunter.

Mrs. Robert C. Strong charmingly entertained the Fortnightly Review Club on Wednesday. "The Comedy of Errors" was under discussion, and there were excellent papers read by Dr. DeLia. The evening's entertainment was "Shakespeare's Idea of Matrimonial Infidelity," as shown in the play. Mrs. Charles McKimmon's subject was "The Difference between the Two Hymns." After the literary session a delicious course luncheon was served. Mrs. Strong's guests were Mrs. R. W. D. Connor, Mrs. Charles McKimmon, Mrs. William Grimes, Mrs. James Foy, Mrs. J. R. Chamberlain, Mrs. John Kenny, Mrs. J. D. Boushail, Mrs. Margie Shipp, Mrs. Sally Strong, Mrs. Herbert Royter, Mrs. Ben Lacy, Mrs. Della Carroll, Mrs. Percy Fleming, Miss Phillips, Miss Waters, of Maryland, and Miss Fleming.

The Olla Podrida was delightfully entertained on Tuesday afternoon. A most interesting and instructive paper was read by Mrs. W. M. Primrose on "James I. and His Court." The proceeds were given to the Y. W. C. A. Mrs. Henry Loeb, Mrs. Kemp Battle, Mrs. B. S. Skinner, Mrs. Stevens, Mrs. Wesley Jones, Mrs. J. N. Holding, Mrs. J. H. Thomas, The Misses Briggs, Mrs. R. T. Gray, Mrs. James Shepherd, Mrs. William Monore, Mrs. Alex. Field, Mrs. Walter Grimes, and Miss Eliza Pool.

The Social Club met with Mrs. William Hughes on Wednesday afternoon at her home on Hillsboro street. The meeting was largely attended and the members were entertained by a reading from Mrs. J. R. Chamberlain. Delightful refreshments were served.

The Bridge Whist Club held a very enjoyable meeting with Mrs. Louis A. Mahler at her home on Fayetteville street on Wednesday afternoon. After a most interesting game, a salad course was served on which were present: Miss Sadie Rott, Sophy Busbee, Louise Busbee, Blanche Blake, Isabel Grimes, Miss Eliza Simmons, Mrs. A. Grimes, Mrs. Charles McKimmon, Mrs. Henry Miller, Mrs. Thomas Ashe.

Rev. and Mrs. R. H. Whitaker celebrated their silver wedding on Thursday evening at an informal reception. Their many friends called and extended their congratulations and good wishes. They were also the recipients of many handsome gifts.

There is to be a big bazaar December 11-12 given by the ladies of St. Mary's Guild of the church on Third and Good Shepherd streets, which is called "The War of the Roses." On the night before the opening of the bazaar there will be a delightful musical concert under the direction of Prof. Wide Brown.

The Woman's Club held a very important business meeting on Friday, which was very interesting and well attended. A number of interesting matters were discussed. An outline for the coming year was made out by the literary, musical and art departments and from the programme presented. Mrs. J. H. Thomas, president, after the business session tea was served. The Woman's Club has organized in connection with the club a chorus, consisting of some of the best voices in the city.

Last week there was solemnized in Edenton street Methodist church a very pretty wedding, the contracting parties being Miss Ellen Falson and Mr. John Sasser. The ushers were Messrs. Philip Sasser, William Little, Fred Sasser, Albert Little, George McFarland and Arthur Little. The bridesmaids were Miss Elizabeth Burton and Miss Grace Falson, and the maid of honor was Miss Mary Day Falson, all of whom were attired in white, and carried bouquets of white roses. The bride was groomed in white satin, trimmed with princess lace, with veil and carried three of the valley. After the ceremony Miss Long was read by Mrs. E. P. Wharton. This meeting was one of the most interesting the club has held. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess. The entire Long household was adjourned to meet November 15, with Mrs. R. M. Douglas. Besides the club members there were present, Messrs. W. F. Bynum, O. Williams, S. C. Williams, Robert Hodgkin and Miss Reed.

Friday night at the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Club there was an informal enjoyable dance given by members of the club in honor of the visiting young ladies, Miss Lois Long, of Stateville, and Miss Mattie White, of Graham. There were about a dozen couples participating in the dance, while there were several chaperones. The music was furnished by Flam's Orchestra. Among those present were: Miss Lois Long, Mrs. J. W. Ferrill, Madeline White, of Graham; Margaret, Merrimon, Sadie Dick, Willard Steele, Sarah DeBatts, Marjorie Lyon, Mrs. Adams, Mary Merrimon, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Malone, J. W. Gold, Jr., M. M. Humphrey, W. A. Hewitt, W. B. Vaught and Messrs. A. W. Scott, W. E. White, W. H. Mebane, F. W. Schack, W. H. Heston, B. Pierce, Irving Long, Cummings, Mebane, T. S. Harry, Ulton Staples, Waldo Porter, Parron Jarbato and E. M. Oettinger.

GREENSBORO.

for a week's sojourn in Baltimore.—Miss Margaret Boylan has gone to Norfolk to visit the Misses Royster.—Mrs. J. W. Perry and Mrs. Gilbert Hillson, Norfolk, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Chambers Smith.

GREENSBORO.

Correspondence of The Observer. Greensboro, Nov. 10.—One of the most charming events of the fall season was the party given Thursday afternoon by Mrs. Milton Cunningham at her residence on Summit avenue, the affair being in honor of Mrs. E. B. Wells, sister of the hostess. The guests were received at the door by Mrs. S. B. Caldwell, who wore a gown of white acrole over silk with lace trimmings. Mrs. Cunningham, gowned in white tulle, and the guests, were received in the drawing room with Mrs. Wells, the latter in white point d'esprit over sky-blue silk.

Many of the city's smart set gathered for the event and the game of whist was six-handed euchre played progressively, held the keen interest of the players throughout the afternoon. The scores were punched by Mrs. W. D. McAden, Jr., in white and red. At the close of the afternoon a delicious course luncheon was served to the guests.

Those to whom Mrs. Cunningham issued invitations were: Mesdames Wells, the honor guest, Robertson Rawlin, Miss Emily Green, Mrs. J. W. Weldon Schenk, J. P. Scott, F. Sternberger, Z. V. Taylor, J. O. Wilson, Briggs, A. R. Wilson, J. H. Walsh, Banner, Buck, Brandt, S. G. Brown, B. H. Cherry, Colwell, Carter, J. S. Caldwell, Cook, S. G. Fry, Emmons, Fisher, Galloway, Garner, Gold, Gamwell, Gilmer, Hagan, Vaught, A. A. Wells, W. H. Wharton, Harrison, Humphrey, Hermit, Mullins, J. C. Meadows, Rowland, Mendenhall, Muir, Murphy, W. D. McAden, Jr., O'Neal, Perrow, Royster, Dorell, Malone and Misses Emma Fray, Nettie Sloan, Jeanette Sternberger and Elizabeth Wells.

The Edgeworth Book Club was delightfully entertained Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. J. P. Turner at her beautiful home in West Market street. The house was beautifully and artistically decorated with flowers and potted plants. Flynch and Nations were the games played and most enjoyed by all. The refreshments consisted of quail on toast, and a delicious buffet course, which was dispensed by the hostess with her usual grace and charming manner. Each guest was presented with a lovely bouquet of violets and ferns. The party concluded together by a bowl of velvet (cherry) punch, the order of the occasion. The invited guests were Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Boren, Mrs. W. E. Allen and Miss Hattie Watkins. The members have the privilege of inviting an unlimited number to fill any vacancy. The members of the club are Mrs. J. R. Cutchins, Mrs. A. H. Alderman, Mrs. W. P. Dillon, Mrs. J. B. Ellington, Mrs. A. B. Leck, Mrs. G. Harrison, Mrs. J. N. Leck, Mrs. W. F. Lee, Mrs. J. C. Murchison, Mrs. M. W. Walsh, Mrs. J. W. Patterson, Mrs. E. L. Piper, Mrs. F. B. Hicks, Mrs. W. E. Sasser, Mrs. A. Sykes, Mrs. J. J. Stone, Mrs. J. P. Turner, Mrs. J. Thomas, Mrs. J. P. Turner, Mrs. C. M. Vanstory, Mrs. J. C. Watkins, Mrs. E. C. Wallington, Mrs. G. P. Whitsett. The club will meet with Mrs. A. B. High, 325 North Elm street.

Mrs. W. P. Beall entertained the Reviewers' Club Thursday afternoon of last week. The subject for the evening was "The Conqueror," by B. C. Sharpe sang "The Conqueror," and read "Their Story Runeth Thus" in her usual charming manner. A paper on the life and career of Louis L. Ryan was read by Mrs. E. P. Wharton. This meeting was one of the most interesting the club has held. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess. The entire household was adjourned to meet November 15, with Mrs. R. M. Douglas. Besides the club members there were present, Messrs. W. F. Bynum, O. Williams, S. C. Williams, Robert Hodgkin and Miss Reed.

Friday night at the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Club there was an informal enjoyable dance given by members of the club in honor of the visiting young ladies, Miss Lois Long, of Stateville, and Miss Mattie White, of Graham. There were about a dozen couples participating in the dance, while there were several chaperones. The music was furnished by Flam's Orchestra. Among those present were: Miss Lois Long, Mrs. J. W. Ferrill, Madeline White, of Graham; Margaret, Merrimon, Sadie Dick, Willard Steele, Sarah DeBatts, Marjorie Lyon, Mrs. Adams, Mary Merrimon, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Malone, J. W. Gold, Jr., M. M. Humphrey, W. A. Hewitt, W. B. Vaught and Messrs. A. W. Scott, W. E. White, W. H. Mebane, F. W. Schack, W. H. Heston, B. Pierce, Irving Long, Cummings, Mebane, T. S. Harry, Ulton Staples, Waldo Porter, Parron Jarbato and E. M. Oettinger.

Correspondence of The Observer. Albemarle, Nov. 9.—The last meeting of the music club was with Miss Harris Hart and it was most thoroughly enjoyed by everyone present. The entire Long household was from last composition. Every member of the club takes the greatest interest in music and we predict a great future for this club. The following are the guests of the evening: Mesdames R. I. Smith, R. A. Crockett, Mauney, H. C. Parsons, B. W. Hatcher, Sibley, Misses Mary and Alice Mabry, Ferguson, Austin, Hester, Coggins, Hatcher. Delightful refreshments consisting of coffee and cake, were served.

The Twentieth Century Club met with Mrs. John Boston on last Tuesday. New officers were elected as follows: President, Mrs. J. N. Anderson; treasurer, Mrs. Eugene Anderson; secretary, Mrs. C. J. Mauney. New books have been ordered and also special literature on the study of England. It is the purpose of the club to make a special study of English literature and the club is in a position to be assisted in entertaining the club by her daughter, Mrs. Walter Hart. A fruit course was served. After this came an elegant and delicious luncheon. The club was closed by a very delightful afternoon.

STAESVILLE.

Correspondence of The Observer.

Staeville, Nov. 9.—Tuesday afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock, Mrs. V. F. Hall, at her home on Race street, delightfully entertained the college teachers and a few near neighbors. The affair was informal, adding all the more enjoyment to those fortunate enough to be present. Mrs. Hall's handsome ferns scattered about in various corners—so large, however, as to completely fill them—received much comment upon their beauty. The affair was simply a social friend with friend—in pleasant conversation, and in becoming better acquainted with the teachers, whom we so gladly welcome among us.

A delicious salad course with coffee was served by Misses Margaret Brady, Helen and Bessie Anderson, and dark was surely plain before the pleasant time came to an end. Mrs. Hall is truly to be congratulated upon her way of making people feel at home and there are many of us who will regret to some time to come this pleasant afternoon in her home.

Wednesday afternoon Miss Louisa Hall, at the home of her mother on Race street, was hostess at a meeting and a delightful one of the Eclectic Book Club. The following papers were read and much enjoyed: Mary N. Murfree, by Mrs. McRorie; John Eaton Cook, Mrs. Evans, Wm. Gilmore Simms, Misses Hall and Christian Reid, Mrs. Henkel.

At the conclusion of the program, delicious refreshments were served, consisting of a salad course, with hot rolls and coffee. Visitors present were: Mesdames C. M. Richards, W. F. and J. Henry Hall and Miss Lettie Harrill. Mrs. M. E. Adams, who has been away on a count of ill health, and who more than a year ago resigned, was again welcomed, having been re-elected some time ago. Mrs. W. M. Barringer, who also had missed some meetings, again resumed her place and was most cordially welcomed by all. All members being present together with the visitors, the meeting was accounted one of the most pleasant of the year—and Miss Hall is always a pleasing hostess.

All the clubs seem to be fully reorganized—and many pleasant times are anticipated by the members. It is also "rumored" that other affairs are soon to be held, and once more Staeville is resuming her social life.

SHELBY.

Correspondence of The Observer.

Shelby, Nov. 9.—Mrs. Robert Lee Rebyurn entertained the members of the Chloira Club Thursday afternoon, a full attendance of the members reported. Besides an interesting program of literary and musical entertainments and refreshments were served. The most enjoyable of the club has held.

There will be a most important meeting of the Daughters of the Confederacy Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Flack. The monument has arrived and the excavation is being made on the square for its erection.

Mr. Henry T. Swain was host at a 5 o'clock tea out at the Bungalow on Fulton road Wednesday afternoon. His guests were Mrs. A. P. Bowman, Mrs. Rucker, of Virginia; Miss Irma Bowman, and Miss Madge Webb.

Miss Pearl Lattimore will entertain the Fortnightly Club at her home this evening at half-past eight o'clock.

Miss Lilla Hull, who has been visiting in Lincolnton, returned yesterday.—Mrs. J. L. Suttle and Mrs. A. A. McMurry spent several days in Charlotte last week.—Miss Laura Burton Miller, who is attending school in Hickory, spent several days here last week.—Mrs. Brice, of South Carolina, who has been visiting her daughters, Mrs. Gattis and Mrs. Mitchell, left last night for a visit to Mrs. B. H. Baker, who has been visiting in Birmingham, Ala., is expected home to-day.—Miss Edna Lynch, of Fairview, visited Miss Wray Suttle last week.

WINSTON-SALEM.

Correspondence of The Observer.

Winston-Salem, Nov. 8.—Mrs. W. L. Ferrell's reception last Friday in the new building at 217 North Liberty street, of Greenville, S. C., and of Mrs. L. E. Poindexter, of Rocky Mount, Va., was one of the most elaborate and beautiful of the autumn season. The delightful affair was held at the home with rare taste and beauty. Chrysanthemums with asparagus ferns and other greens supplying the distinctive pink, red and yellow color scheme that characterized the dining room. In the parlor, pink prevailed and here Mrs. Ferrell, assisted by her guests of honor, Mrs. J. W. Ferrell and Mrs. Poindexter with Mrs. James Great, all charmingly arrayed in becoming evening gowns of pink, received her guests. In the dining room, beautiful in its garniture of red, Mrs. T. Brown and Miss Ida Hinchaw did the honors, assisted by Misses Metta Watson, Sallie Griffith and Delphine Brown. The library with its wealth of yellow chrysanthemums was most attractive and here coffee and chocolate were graciously poured by Mrs. J. F. Griffith and served by Misses Grace Whitaker and Mary Pierce. Other assisting Mrs. Ferrell including Mrs. James Great and Mrs. H. H. B. Little Miss Nita Masten, who received the cards at the door, Mrs. P. R. Masten, who directed the guests to the parlor; Misses Mary Hinchaw and Margaret Hanes, who invited the guests into the dining room. Mrs. Ferrell's hours from 1 till 6 were brightened by the presence of many elegantly groomed and agreeable women, and in all the occasion was a charming success.

The past week has been unusually bright, the chime of wedding bells mingling with the charm and glamor of several very elegant entertainments. Thursday at one o'clock Mrs. J. Conrad Watkins, entertained at an elegant at-home luncheon at her beautiful home on the corner of Madison street. The occasion for announcing the engagement of her sister, Miss Elizabeth Watkins to Mr. T. W. Brewer, of Raleigh. In keeping with the coming bride's decorations, ever white and green, exquisite white chrysanthemums with their curled petals, blending their sweetness and beauty with the green of smiles, ferns and palm. The place cards were triumphs of skill and ingenuity. Two heart-shaped cards gracefully tied with bows-knots of ribbon, bore the names of Cupid and Hyman's court. The upper side showed the guests names; on the adverse side were the pictures of the bride and groom-elect. A beautiful feature of this remarkable entertainment was the expression in the bright and appropriate toast drunk to the bride and groom by the hostess and Miss Helen Montgomery respectively. The guests in honor Miss Elizabeth Watkins, Misses Mary and Helen Montgomery, Clara Ford, of Appomattox, Va., Berah Linnebach, Mabel Traylor, Ellen Norcross, of Raleigh, and Mrs. J. H. Siewers, Ralph Siewers and kapp. No more graceful hostess than Mrs. J. Conrad Watkins has figured in the social arena of our city. The affair was greatly enhanced by this most beautiful and greatly enjoyed function. The bride-elect is the accomplished and beloved daughter of Mrs. J. C. Watkins and Mrs. J. H. Siewers, a well known man of Raleigh and a great grandson of the founder of Wake Forest College, for whom he was named.

An interesting copy connected with the baptism of little Hervey Louise Jones, the infant daughter of Judge and Mrs. E. B. Jones, last Sunday morning at the First Presbyterian church, was the use of water from the River Jordan presented by Mrs. J. Lindsay Patterson. Misses Caro and Anne Buxton who have been spending several months in European travel, will return home next week.

LUMBERTON.

Correspondence of The Observer.

Lumberton, Nov. 9.—Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Lawrence gave a dinner last Friday evening in honor of Colonel and Mrs. N. A. McLean. The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. S. McIntyre, Dr. K. K. Brown, James Proctor, Mrs. H. H. Beard, Mr. Pegram A. Bryant, Colonel and Mrs. N. A. McLean.

Little Miss Anna Lawrence was "on her feet" on the afternoon of the 7th from 5 to 6 o'clock in honor of her third birthday. Promptly at three the numerous little guests began to arrive, each bringing some gift to add to the happiness of their little hostess.

Two charming functions in honor of Miss Mary Barber and booked for Friday afternoon at 2:30 till 6 o'clock, Mrs. E. A. Ebert and her daughter, Miss Ellen, received and entertained their friends in charming fashion at the home of Mrs. J. C. Norfleet. The guests, including Mrs. J. C. Norfleet, Nan Norfleet and Grizzelle Norfleet received the cards. Mrs. W. A. Lewly and Mrs. J. K. Norfleet greeted the guests with chrysanthemums, palms and ferns could make it. Mrs. Ebert and Miss Ellen assisted by Mrs. D. H. Starbuck, Mrs. H. E. Starbuck, Mrs. S. J. Montague and Mrs. J. Conroy, and her daughters, Mrs. J. C. Norfleet, Mrs. E. A. Lockett pour tea and coffee while Misses Clara Ford, Mary and Helen Montgomery, and Mrs. J. C. Norfleet, Mrs. J. H. Siewers, Mrs. F. A. Ebert, Mrs. Mollie Starbuck directed the guests to the dining room, where amid its lovely white and green decorations, Misses Della Johnson, Grace Starbuck and Emma Ebert dispensed the delicious viands.

A very large number of guests called to congratulate the young couple on the happy occasion. Mrs. Ebert's charming hospitality.

Thursday of last week Mr. and Mrs. R. Rich entertained very agreeably the guests on the occasion being Mr. and Mrs. R. Reynolds and Mrs. and Mrs. J. H. Reynolds. The Round Dozen Book Club was agreeably entertained Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. James R. Green at the home of Mrs. W. L. Perry in the presence of the president, the lesson review was conducted by Mrs. L. A. Vaughn. Elegant refreshments were served after the literary programme.

Tuesday afternoon, Mrs. S. H. Eller was hostess to the Young Ladies' Aid Society of Centenary church. This charming organization of forty-two earnest, energetic young women has decided annually to host the young women of the city. Mrs. Eller is doing a great deal of good for the city in this way. The young couple left on the evening train for Columbia, S. C., where they will make their future home.

Miss Alice Stack has as her guests Misses Gail Makespeare from Sanford, and Eulah Newson, from Littleton. Miss Martha Fletcher Adams has just returned from a visit to Concord and Davidson.

An event which is of a great deal of interest to the society people of Monroe is the marriage on Wednesday, Nov. 14th of Miss Faye Gaddy and Mr. V. Dixon Sikes, in the First Baptist church.

of the Richmond chapter of the D. A. R. Her visit is in reference to the part of the North Carolina Daughters will take in the great Jamestown Exposition.

The Winston-Salem Centennial Chapter D. A. R. will give a colonial tea in the near future, the object being to raise funds for the North Carolina column in the national memorial hall in Washington, D. C. Mr. and Mrs. Burwell H. March have moved their residence back to Winston-Salem, and that friends will be glad to see them.

Mr. and Mrs. William N. Reynolds are enjoying their elegant motor car to the fullest extent. They left Tuesday for a whirl to Danville, Va. An interesting copy connected with the baptism of little Hervey Louise Jones, the infant daughter of Judge and Mrs. E. B. Jones, last Sunday morning at the First Presbyterian church, was the use of water from the River Jordan presented by Mrs. J. Lindsay Patterson. Misses Caro and Anne Buxton who have been spending several months in European travel, will return home next week.

LUMBERTON.

Correspondence of The Observer.

Lumberton, Nov. 9.—Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Lawrence gave a dinner last Friday evening in honor of Colonel and Mrs. N. A. McLean. The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. S. McIntyre, Dr. K. K. Brown, James Proctor, Mrs. H. H. Beard, Mr. Pegram A. Bryant, Colonel and Mrs. N. A. McLean.

Little Miss Anna Lawrence was "on her feet" on the afternoon of the 7th from 5 to 6 o'clock in honor of her third birthday. Promptly at three the numerous little guests began to arrive, each bringing some gift to add to the happiness of their little hostess.

Two charming functions in honor of Miss Mary Barber and booked for Friday afternoon at 2:30 till 6 o'clock, Mrs. E. A. Ebert and her daughter, Miss Ellen, received and entertained their friends in charming fashion at the home of Mrs. J. C. Norfleet. The guests, including Mrs. J. C. Norfleet, Nan Norfleet and Grizzelle Norfleet received the cards. Mrs. W. A. Lewly and Mrs. J. K. Norfleet greeted the guests with chrysanthemums, palms and ferns could make it. Mrs. Ebert and Miss Ellen assisted by Mrs. D. H. Starbuck, Mrs. H. E. Starbuck, Mrs. S. J. Montague and Mrs. J. Conroy, and her daughters, Mrs. J. C. Norfleet, Mrs. E. A. Lockett pour tea and coffee while Misses Clara Ford, Mary and Helen Montgomery, and Mrs. J. C. Norfleet, Mrs. J. H. Siewers, Mrs. F. A. Ebert, Mrs. Mollie Starbuck directed the guests to the dining room, where amid its lovely white and green decorations, Misses Della Johnson, Grace Starbuck and Emma Ebert dispensed the delicious viands.

A very large number of guests called to congratulate the young couple on the happy occasion. Mrs. Ebert's charming hospitality.

Thursday of last week Mr. and Mrs. R. Rich entertained very agreeably the guests on the occasion being Mr. and Mrs. R. Reynolds and Mrs. and Mrs. J. H. Reynolds. The Round Dozen Book Club was agreeably entertained Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. James R. Green at the home of Mrs. W. L. Perry in the presence of the president, the lesson review was conducted by Mrs. L. A. Vaughn. Elegant refreshments were served after the literary programme.

Tuesday afternoon, Mrs. S. H. Eller was hostess to the Young Ladies' Aid Society of Centenary church. This charming organization of forty-two earnest, energetic young women has decided annually to host the young women of the city. Mrs. Eller is doing a great deal of good for the city in this way. The young couple left on the evening train for Columbia, S. C., where they will make their future home.

Miss Alice Stack has as her guests Misses Gail Makespeare from Sanford, and Eulah Newson, from Littleton. Miss Martha Fletcher Adams has just returned from a visit to Concord and Davidson.

An event which is of a great deal of interest to the society people of Monroe is the marriage on Wednesday, Nov. 14th of Miss Faye Gaddy and Mr. V. Dixon Sikes, in the First Baptist church.

MONROE.

Correspondence of The Observer.

Monroe, Nov. 9.—The "Van Dyke Book Club" held its monthly meeting and an enjoyable meeting was held on Saturday afternoon with Mrs. V. C. Austin. Mrs. Austin, as usual, proved herself a charming hostess. The club is holding a Shakespearean play this year and "Julius Caesar" was play studied at this meeting. Very interesting papers were read by Mrs. John C. Sikes, Mrs. Nell McC. Redfern, Misses Florida Morris and Alice Scales. Many and delicious were the good things Mrs. Austin served after the usual programme. The next meeting will be with Mrs. John C. Sikes.

Miss Alice Stack has as her guests Misses Gail Makespeare from Sanford, and Eulah Newson, from Littleton. Miss Martha Fletcher Adams has just returned from a visit to Concord and Davidson.

An event which is of a great deal of interest to the society people of Monroe is the marriage on Wednesday, Nov. 14th of Miss Faye Gaddy and Mr. V. Dixon Sikes, in the First Baptist church.

LEXINGTON.

Correspondence of The Observer.

Lexington, Nov. 9.—It was a beautiful afternoon for the "Club of the Twelve" had for its first meeting of the season, which was held with Mrs. Joel Hill on November 8th, being entertained by her in her usual hospitable manner. The club membership remains the same with one exception—Miss Frances Hill has been elected to fill the vacancy made by Mrs. F. C. Robbins. The following are the officers and members: Mrs. C. A. Hunt, Sr., president; Mrs. H. F. Radcliffe, vice president, and Miss Frances Hill, secretary and treasurer. Mesdames Grogg, S. M. S. McCann, Walter Mendenhall, Henry Probst, Joel Hill, S. W. Finch, Richardson, Mrs. Elizabeth MacCall, Gertrude Hammer and Camille Hunt.

The winter's study is Japan and with such an interesting subject for discussion the club bids fair to have a year of unusual profit and pleasure. The programme for the afternoon was as follows: Japanese History and Progress, Mrs. Henry Probst, Industry, Arts and Commerce, Mrs. J. H. Hill. Noted Cities of Japan, Mrs. Richardson Springs. Tempting refreshments were served consisting of chicken salad on lettuce, Saratoga chips, celery, pickles, salted peanuts, crackers, ice cream and cake. Mrs. Hill, ever a charming and gracious hostess, was on this occasion particularly so, and all were so very glad that the time came for goodbyes to one cause of the terrible pestilence that prevailed in Mediaeval days. The lovely days of the "late autumn." "When the year smiles, as it draws near its death," known among us as the Indian summer bears the various names of St. Martin's summer and St. Luke's summer. Later in this "wind-worth" days are dedicated to St. Cecilia, St. Clement, St. Catherine and St. Andrew.

From every standpoint, one of the largest social functions given in town in some time was on last Thursday evening, when Mr. and Mrs. J. Elwood Cox were "at home" to a number of their friends at their comfortable home on East Green street. Decorators had added their touch to the many always lovely rooms giving them each a distinct color scheme. Brookmore's orchestra filled the house with sweet music, while the guests were received by Mr. and Mrs. Cox, Dr. Cartland and his wife, Mary Cox-Cartland, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Dundas Cox, Dr. and Mrs. Bradshaw and Rev. and Mrs. Philard; Misses Helen Show and Marguerite Cartland served punch in the dining room. Where a well-known caterer furnished the elegant course suppers. Mrs. Henry A. White, Mrs. Leslie Cartland, Miss Nelle Dundas and Miss Laura Dadamed served the lighter refreshments.

Friday evening the Woman's Auxiliary of the Friends church gave a social at the church from 7:30 to 9:30. After an address on Brotherly Love given by Mrs. Mary C. Warty, of Guilford College, and several songs by Rev. Ely Rocco, a most enjoyable social hour was spent, during which refreshments were served. Miss Clara Lone Cox has issued cards to an "at home" to be given Thursday evening at the residence of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Elwood Cox.

Next Tuesday afternoon Miss Mary Alexander will be hostess to the members of the W. O. I. Club at the residence of her father, Mr. H. Alexander, corner of English and Elm streets.

The High Point chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy held a most interesting business meeting, followed by an enjoyable social meeting last Tuesday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. W. Gordon Bennett on Rankin street.

As the secretary, Mrs. Bennett was asked to take her seat. The first item of interest was the report of State convention, which was read by Mrs. Alexander, the president. Mrs. Richardson's report was concise, but in a pleasing manner she related with the main points of interest in a little more than which had failed to creep into the report, but which helped to fill with enthusiasm this baby chapter who had selected the name of Wyatt, but who upon hearing of the other chapter by that name choose as their name simply High Point Chapter. After unfinished business was handled Mrs. Alexander elected his hostess. This finishing all business, the social hour of which Mrs. Bennett proved such a gracious hostess passed quickly. A delicate salad course was served, after which the guests were invited to the dining room to partake of the delicious grape juice cake and mints in the red, white and blue.

The members who were present were: Mrs. James B. Richardson, Mrs. F. L. Silber, George N. Haddon, Clarence Smith, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. F. Long Albert E. Tate, Misses Lora Lyndon, Jessie Vain Wheeler, Lora Alexander, J. Irvin Taylor. Besides these members Mrs. Burnett had as her guests, Mrs. James H. Petty, Miss Sallie Liles, of Lilesville, and Mrs. Laura Coleman, of New York.

FAYETTEVILLE.

Correspondence of The Observer.

Fayetteville, Nov. 9.—Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Luttrell entertained the Tuesday Evening Card Club, in a most delightful manner. The refreshments were served by Mrs. Samuel Hinesdale MacRae who awarded the gentlemen's prize for scoring highest in bridge whist, and Mrs. Robert Greene Haigh won the ladies' prize. The following members of the club were present: Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Hinesdale MacRae, Mrs. Hinesdale, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lawrence Holt, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Broadfoot, and Mr. John E. MacRae. The following were the guests of the club: Mr. and Mrs. John O. Ellington, Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. Roy H. MacDuffie, Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. Hagan, John E. Anderson, Mrs. John MacD. Robinson, Miss Jane Norwood Tillinham, Mrs. Lulu Baker, Mr. John B. Tillinham, Dr. Henry Walter Luller.

Mrs. Herbert Luttrell entertained at bridge whist Wednesday afternoon, complimentary to Miss Betsy London, of Hillsboro. Miss Jean Broadfoot was the first prize, while the second prize was presented to Miss London. The following were among those present: Mrs. Samuel Hinesdale MacRae, Mrs. John Huske Anderson, Mrs. Thomas H. MacRae, Mrs. John Churchill Goham, Mrs. E. L. Pries, of Virginia. Mrs. Von C. Bullard, Mrs. Eva Allen Dodson, Misses Belle Jennings, Annie Alexander, Blanche Thornton, Kate Broadfoot, Kate Sutton, Freda Latta, Isabel Glover, Jan Broadfoot, Mary Norcott Broadfoot, Jean Fernbrook, Grace MacCallin, Alice Haigh, Hattie Taylor, John E. Anderson, Nell, Nan Mallett, of Georgia; Lillian Haigh, Lina Haigh, Betsy London, Jessie Crosswell, Pan Kyle.

Miss Van Kyle was the charming hostess at a bridge whist party Tuesday afternoon, at her home on Greene street in honor of Mrs. E. L. Pries, of Virginia. Mrs. Roy H. MacDuffie won the prize, a gold brooch for the hair, which she presented to the guest of honor, Mrs. Pries. The following guests were present: Mrs. John Underwood, Mrs. Edwin D. Kyle, Mrs. Francis Robinson, Mrs. Hattie Taylor, Mrs. E. L. Pries and Miss Blanche Thornton, Jessie Crosswell, Mrs. Nan Mallett, Miss Van Kyle.

HIGH POINT.

Correspondence of The Observer.

High Point, Nov. 9.—The folk-lore of November is interesting. The festival of All Saints or "All-Hallows" and All Souls Day were the first week of the month. The folk-lore is a thing round that solely Protestant festival, variously known as Guy Fawkes' Day, or Pope Day, celebrated on the fifth. Twice in 1895 Fawkes and his fellow-conspirators were put to death for the alleged plot against the royal family and Parliament. The detection of the plot was one of the prided himself. A service of thanks to the First of Great Britain greatly prided himself. A service of Thanksgiving for the safety of King and Queen was long observed, but was omitted from the English Prayer-book in 1859.

"Guy Fawkes' Day" was one of the few festivals brought from Old England to New, and one of its popular songs puts these words in the mouths of the unsympathetic Guy Fawkes, who cast, Walter Mendenhall, Henry Probst, Joel Hill, S. W. Finch, Richardson, Mrs. Elizabeth MacCall, Gertrude Hammer and Camille Hunt.

The winter's study is Japan and with such an interesting subject for discussion the club bids fair to have a year of unusual profit and pleasure. The programme for the afternoon was as follows: Japanese History and Progress, Mrs. Henry Probst, Industry, Arts and Commerce, Mrs. J. H. Hill. Noted Cities of Japan, Mrs. Richardson Springs. Tempting refreshments were served consisting of chicken salad on lettuce, Saratoga chips, celery, pickles, salted peanuts, crackers, ice cream and cake. Mrs. Hill, ever a charming and gracious hostess, was on this occasion particularly so, and all were so very glad that the time came for goodbyes to