FRANCHISE GRANTED.

Special to The Observer. Concord, Nov. 25 .- The board of city aldermen met Saturday night in tician who has the opportunity to ter of granting a franchise to the Concord Realty and Rallway Com-pany. The franchise was granted, and is for a period of sixty years. It gives the privilege of building and operating a car line in Concord, which the promoters assure will be which the promoters assure will be built, and at once. A similar fran-chize has been granted by the county commissioners, and the company can build and operate a railway over the highways throughout the entire county. Mr. C. W. Johnston, presi-dent of the company stated that pre-liminary work will begin at once, and that by early spring the laying of the rails will begin. Rev. J. J. Could we write nothing more this beautiful tribute by Miss Havergal would alone be a aweet memorial to our departed and sainted Mrs. Laura A. Ahrens, who fell asleep on Jesus Oc-tober the twenty-second, nineteen hun-dred and six. For a lifetime she has gone in and dred and six. For a lifetime she has gone in and out among us even showing her love for her Suviour by her constant devo-lion to the Church and that sweet fel-lowship which flows from the purest and most unselfah heart. We shall miss her in this sweetest of fellowships, but her pure Christian life and character will ever remain a rich heritage to us and to all why knew her. She had been called in bitter grief to give back to God all her children, but through these af-flictions she looked to the Cross in pa-tient, humble submission; though chast-ened yet sweetened through sorrow or through joy she resigned all into the hand of Love. We were drawn to her by her cheerful devolion to duty, by her fidelity to the Church, her conscientious recognition of Christian relationship in the envice and work and her un-mistakable consecration to the cause of one saviour. We feel that one has dropped out of our circle whom we are least able to spare, and that we are de-prived of a distinct force in the work of our society. May we be moved to per-net net her memory by assuming as our added portion the service which we hitherio claimed from her, and thus per-petuate her mission by our augmented devotion to the Master's work.
