New Jail for Buncombe Practically a Certainty.

Special to The Observer. Asheville, Dec. 8.—Chairman Mark L. Reed of the board of county commissioners, and his colleagues, who were inducted into office this week for a term of two years, will see to it that no backward step is taken by the county during their term. The work of permanently improving the county's highway will go forward without abatement or interruption, while the commissioners are determined that a new jail shall be built during their term. It was stated on authority in this correspondence the day after election on November 6 that the commissioners would at once set about securing plans for the new building, while this week announcement is made that the commissioners have already undertaken the preliminaries; that a jail architect has been employed and that plans for a new jail will be submitted to the board in a very short time. Chairman Reed is authority for the statement that the county is going to build a first-class and modern jail, and that work will probably commence some time in the spring or early summer.

The One Medicine Old People Need

Mr. Josiah Zeitlin, 101 years old July, 1906, lives with his daughter, Mrs. Isaac Krinsky, Brooklyn.

Mr. Zeitlin was a prominent business man in his native land, Poland, many years. In 1882 he retired and came to this country.

He says that Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey has prolonged his life, and is the medicine to restore health and vigor in old people.

He writes:

"Although I was 101 years old on July 2d last, I still feel that I am good for several years. I was born at Loda, in Poland, and after a lengthy business life in the old land came to this country in 1882 to reside with my daughter. I have used Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey for many years and find it very beneficial. It invigorates and gives me strength. I feel that it has helped me to live the 101 years. It seems to be the very medicine old people need to restore their failing health and strength."

—Josiah Zeitlin, 136 Lexington Avenue, Brooklyn, N. Y.—August 10, 1906. Mr. Zeitlin is one of the many thousands of men and women throughout the United States who owe their vigor, strength and long life to the great Tonic Stimulant and Renewer of Youth, Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey, and joys in extolling its merits.
