

MILL MEN WILL FIGHT

GOVERNMENT FILES COMPLAINT

For Alleged Violations of the Contract Labor Law, Government Demands $70,000 From Messrs. E. M. Costello, E. A. Smith, S. B. Sargent and E. C. Dwellle, Local Cotton Mill Men—Defendants Will Attack the Legality of the Immigration Laws and Claim That Facts Stated in Complaint Do Not Constitute a Violation—B. D. Hasty, Postmaster at Marshville, Found Guilty of Opening Letters—Sentence to be Imposed This Morning—Wells Cases To-Day.

District Attorney A. E. Holton and Assistant District Attorney A. L. Coble yesterday afternoon filed with the clerk of court the complaints in the suits of the United States vs. Messrs. Thomas M. Costello, Edward A. Smith, Sumner B. Sargent and E. C. Dwellle for alleged violations of the contract labor law. There are two cases against these cotton mill men, in the first of which Messrs. Costello, Smith and Sargent are named as defendants in the second, Mr. Dwellle's name is added. The four defendants being Messrs. Costello, Smith, Sargent and Dwellle. There are 20 counts in the first case and 50 in the second, the penalty in each count being $1,000. The aggregate sum involved is $70,000.

The defendants have during the remainder of this term of Federal Court either to demur or answer this complaint. It is given on good authority that the defendants, through their attorneys, Messrs. Tift and Guthrie, will attack the legality of the immigration act by demurring to the complaint. It will be argued also as to whether the facts stated in the complaint constitute a violation of law. This demurrer, unless the case is removed or special term ordered, will come on regularly for hearing at the June term of court.

ONE OF THE COMPLAINTS.

"The United States, vs. Thomas M. Costello, Edward A. Smith, Sumner B. Sargent, and E. C. Dwellle. The plaintiff complains and alleges:

"1. That the defendants, Thomas M. Costello, Edward A. Smith and Sumner B. Sargent are citizens and residents of the county of Mecklenburg, in the western district of North Carolina.

"2. That on the 27th day of August, 1906, the said defendants did unlawfully, in violation of the act of Congress approved March 2, 1903, entitled 'An Act to Regulate Aliens Into the United States,' prepay and caused to be prepaid the transportation of one Samuel Powers then and ever since an alien, a subject of the Kingdom of Great Britain, then residing in England, on the steamship 'Carmania' to Ellis Island in the State of New York, knowingly, to procure, assist and encourage importation into the United States to perform labor and service in the United States, in pursuance of certain offers, solicitations and promises to and with the said alien, made previous to the importation of the said alien into the United States to perform labor and service in the United States, to wit: cotton mill industry in the manufacture of cotton goods as a mill hand in certain cotton mills situated in and around Charlotte, North Carolina, and thus procured the importation and migration of the said alien into the United States to perform labor and service as aforesaid.

"3. That the said defendants, on the day and year aforesaid, did then and there unlawfully and knowingly assist and encourage the importation and migration of the said alien, Samuel Powers, an alien as aforesaid, into the United States as aforesaid for the purposes aforesaid in pursuance and by reason of certain offers, solicitations and promises, made previous to the importation of the said alien to perform the services aforesaid, by then and there advancing and paying to the said alien the sum of twenty-five dollars money of the United States.

TRANSPORTATION AND A BONUS.

"4. That so induced by the said defendants and assisted and encouraged by them by the prepayment of his transportation aforesaid and the payment of the twenty-five as aforesaid and for the purpose of performing labor and services in the United States, in pursuance and by reason of said offers, solicitations and promises and by reason of said offers, solicitations and promises made previous to his said importation and with the said services as aforesaid, the said Samuel Powers did migrate to the United States.

A LABOR CONTRACT MADE.

"5. That the said Samuel Powers on said date was not so imported, assisted, encouraged or solicited to migrate to perform skilled labor of which labor of a like kind unemployed could not be found in this country, nor was he a professional actor, artist, lecturer, singer, minister of any religious denomination, professor of college or university or person belonging to any learned profession, or person employed strictly as personal or domestic servant, but on the contrary was so imported, assisted, encouraged and solicited to migrate for the purpose of performing labor as aforesaid.

"6. That the said Samuel Powers on said date was and ever since has been an alien owing allegiance to the King of Great Britain.

"7. That the defendants by reason of the facts aforesaid and in pursuance of the provisions of the statutes aforesaid have forfeited to and become liable to pay to the plaintiff the sum of one thousand dollars as a penalty in respect to said alien and that the same is still due and unpaid.

"Wherefore plaintiff demands judgment for the sum of Twenty thousand dollars and the amount of the several penalties, so forfeited to the United States in the several causes of action set out in this complaint and for the costs of this action.

(Signed) A. E. HOLTON, Attorney for the United States and United States Attorney.

REVIVAL CLOSING TO-NIGHT

An Interesting Service Held Last Night—Cigarettes and Minors—What the Chief of Police May Do—A Poor Boy Who is Going to the Devil

Before the beginning of the song service at the First Baptist church last night the house was almost full of people, who were anxious to hear Rev. Len. G. Broughton preach on the subject of "The Unpardonable Sin."

The song service begins half an hour before the preaching and by the time Dr. Broughton arrived there was hardly a vacant seat. These church services are one of the many features of the meeting, which are greatly enjoyed. The leader, Mr. H. O. Bell, of Atlanta, possesses a beautiful, clear and well-trained voice, which he understands how to use to the best advantage. It may appropriately be stated that he sings with the spirit and the understanding also.

And another advantage of his leadership is that none of his hearers fail to understand distinctly the words that he sings. During the Baptist State Convention, which was held in Greensboro, last week, a faculty quartette of Wake Forest College rendered a number of beautiful selections. At the close of the first of these songs, one of the delegates arose and said: "I feel like we ought to thank the quartette for singing in the English language so we can understand what they sing." The same compliment can well be paid to Mr. Bell, for what he sings is easily understood, which adds much to the beauty of his singing.

The last services of this meeting will be held to-day, one service at 4 o'clock this afternoon, and the last service at 8 o'clock to-night. The service last night was marked by more interest than any in the meeting so far, and a large number of young men and young women came forward and expressed their desire to begin the Christian life.

Before beginning his sermon Dr. Broughton stated that he had learned that the chief of police of Charlotte was going to begin a fine against the selling of cigarettes to minors, and he urged the Christian men and women of the city to support him in this work. He said he did not know the chief, but he thought he must be a good man.

He spoke next of a broken-hearted mother in Charlotte who had been to see him about her son, who is fact becoming a drunkard, and getting all of his whiskey by prescription, although he has not been sick in five years. Dr. Broughton spoke of a wrong committed in a prohibition town by a doctor who would give prescriptions for whiskey when not necessary; he spoke in strong terms, showing how such a doctor is responsible for making drunkards and breaking the law.

"ARE YOU A MASON?" A Riproarious Comedy That Makes a Pretty Good House Laugh. There are two sorts of comedies. The one is built on broad lines, and contains a degree of horseplay, and makes one laugh boisterously and slap his knee, maybe. The other is built on fine lines, contains a subtle humor, and makes one laugh and feel better indefinitely.

"Are You a Mason?" which was presented at the Academy of Music last night, was of the former type. It was a rollicking riproarious production and the fair-see audience that witnessed it was kept howling the greater part of the play.

The play is a good production of its kind—a farce comedy. The plot is well conceived and well developed, being suggested by the old excuse of the rounder-husband that he "has been at the lodge." And it was well presented, and getting all the credit was displayed, but that was not necessary.

Not the least enjoyable feature of the evening was the music by the orchestra, which was led by Director Don Richardson, and was almost doubled for the occasion.

ENGINEER SEVERELY BRUISED.

Engineer H. D. Major, of Spencer, Who Was In Wreck Near Reidsville, Suffers Injuries—Mrs. Haderer Very Ill. Special to The Observer.

Spencer, Dec. 12.—Engineer H. D. Major, of Spencer, was severely injured near Reidsville this morning by falling from his engine to the ground. It is learned that a steam pipe suddenly sprung a serious leak and the steam was escaping with great force. The engineer, in an effort to escape serious scalding from the steam, jumped from his cab to the tender, from which he slipped and fell. The locomotive was making about 20 miles per hour when the accident occurred and came to a stop of its own accord, after the engineer had been left behind. No one else was hurt. Mr. Major, while not severely burned, sustained painful bruises and a strained back, from which he is suffering to-night. He was brought to Spencer on a southbound passenger train to-day and his train, a southbound freight, was taken in charge by another engineer.

Mrs. George Haderer, who was recently married in Spencer to Mr. Haderer of Chicago, was operated upon yesterday afternoon at a hospital in Salisbury for appendicitis, from which she had been suffering for a few days. Her condition to-night is most grave and little chance is entertained for her recovery. Mr. and Mrs. Haderer had been for the past two weeks at Laurinburg, where Mr. Haderer has a contract for a large amount of municipal work.

LOOK OUT FOR IMITATIONS

With Tags About the Same Color and Design As

This REYNOLDS' SUN CURED Tag

The quality of the genuine sun cured tobacco used in REYNOLDS' Sun Cured and grown on soil where the best sun cured tobacco grows, has caused imitation brands to be brought out and offered as the genuine Reynolds' Sun Cured to unsuspecting dealers and chewers who do not look closely at the printing on the box and on the tag.

These brands only imitate the outward appearance and do not possess the genuine inside quality that has been found in Reynolds' Sun Cured ever since Reynolds' Sun Cured was introduced and which has so increased the chewing of sun cured tobacco and proven so popular, that the word "Sun Cured" is now printed on tags or in the advertising of many brands claimed to be genuine sun cured tobacco.

Did you ever see the word "Sun Cured" used in any chewing tobacco advertisement, or on any chewing tobacco tag or label, or in any other way, before it was introduced and used to identify the genuine Reynolds' Sun Cured? You see it frequently now, because many imitation brands are being made to appear as nearly like Reynolds' Sun Cured as they dare—with tag, shape of plug and style of package so similar that experienced buyers sometimes accept these imitations as the genuine Reynolds' Sun Cured.

Don't be deceived into taking imitation brands for the genuine. Be sure the letters on the tag spell "R-c-y-n-o-l-d-s' Sun Cured," and you get the best value in sun cured chewing tobacco that can be produced for chewers. Sold at 50c. per pound in 5c. cuts; strictly 10c. and 15c. plugs, with chewing qualities like that which was sold from 60c. to $1.00 per pound before Reynolds' Sun Cured was offered to the trade.
