Rev. Dr. Martin D. Hardin made a "heart-to-heart" talk to the girls, showing the highest and truest aim of woman's life to be the development of Christian character; an appeal for better things which many will carry with them.

The service closed with a happy hristmas carol and the anthem, Christmas "Behold I Bring You Good Tidings," followed by the benediction and the postlude Allegro Vivace by Morandi. The impression left on the audience was sweet and helpful throughout,

'POSSUM CAUGHT AT LAST.

That Gaston County Marsupial Falls Into the Hands of an Enemy and Goes the Way of Many a Good

"You can just say that the Gaston county 'possum is dead," said Capt. T. H. Galther to an Observer man one day last week. "I killed him this morning and he is now in my refrig-erator, where he will remain until we ret ready to cook him."
"Where did you get him?" asked the reporter.

"On my back fence. When I got up this morning I saw him on the top rail, beneath some bushes, where was trying to hide. I made a negro boy go on the opposite side and slipped up and took a shot at the possum's head and struck him between the eyes. At the crack of the gun he fell and I grabbed him. He appeared to be dead, but before I got him to the house he tried to bite
