Replying to the mayor's criticism, Mr. Murphy said: "Although named in strict conformity with the provisions of law. by the Democratic organization of the county of New York for the place, and that too, without a single dissenting vote, Commissioner Voorhis was rejected by the mayor, not for any of the shuffling reasons assigned, but simply and solely because last fall, in the designation of the Democratic newspapers to publish the election notices, Commissioner Voorhis refused to violate his oath of office and be a party-to the satisfaction of the mayor's petty revenges upon the newspapers which had harshly criti-

"As to the present leader of Tammany Hall, let me observe that no man in the community has held closer relations with him nor does any one know him more thoroughly than this same mayor. If any reason exists which justifies the breaking of the relations which have existed between the two men, I do not know just what it may be, and I urge the mayor, if he knows, to make such reason public. I parted with the mayor after our last interview on friendly terms, as I was led to believe, and if at that time I was unworthy of association with any one who knew me, the mayor carefully concealed any knowledge he might have had in that regard. I now earnestly invite him to take the public 'nto his confidence as to any unworthy act of Gauthiere-Villars, the author of "Claudine," and other decadent novels.

The Marquise, who is the divorced wife of Marquise de Belbuf, has already achieved an unenviable reputation, and her heralded appearance on the stage brought out a storm of criticism. To this the Marquise replied in a letter published to-day, denying that her performance was intended to be suggestive and insisting neat fruit and cigar stand that she meant to give an artistic reproduction of the manners of ancient Egypt.

In defending her appearance on the stage the Marquise says: This does not constitute a disgrace

In spite of this statement, a number of clubmen and Bonapartists got together and went to the Moulin Rouge to-night, where they conducted a demonstration, the like of which has seldom been witnessed in this city. For fully 10 minutes the curtain could not be raised on the new act owing to the pandemonium from galleries and boxes. When It finally went up disclosing the Marquise working out a criptogram of the charm of life, after the fashion of Filed Against Ex-Mayor Quincy, of Galatea and a beautiful Egyptian mummy in the person of Mme. Willy, the din was redoubled. This was followed by a rain of missiles of every description, the audience even throwing hassocks and boxes at the women on the stage. In spite of this vociferous demonstration, the two women persisted in completing their act, which is as disgustingly indecent as anything ever seen on the Paristan

When the curtain was rung down, the crowd rushed toward the box occupied by Mme. Gauthier-Villars and Mile. Polaire, who is starring in a stage adaptation of "Claudine," and literally drove them from the theatre.

1209 Main Street, Columbia, S. C., Jan. 3. Chief Constable U. B. Hammett, who has charge of the constabulary in enforcing the dispensary law, sent in his resignation to-day. Hammett was appointed by the Governor in 1903 for four years, just after the office was created and enjoyed the Governor's fullest confidence. He states in his letter that he does not wish to embarass the new administration with his position and as Governorelect Angel is elected on an anti-dispensary platform, it is probable that here will be no dispensary positions after the session of the Legislature.

The pardon board to-day decided to dopt a rule requiring all petitions for pardon, commuting or respite to be filed at least two weeks before a meeting of the board. The action was taken because of hie action in the Adams case yesterday and respite granted to-day in the case of John Shelton, a Spartanburg negro, who was to hang to-morrow for kiliing his father-in-law. In the latter case the attorney who had it charge forgot to file his appeal with the Supreme Court for a new trial in the time required and it was thrown out. The respite was granted for the board to look into the case, but hereafter the rule will be strictly enforced.
