The evidence was, in effect, as follows: Henderson appeared in the office of Dr. Davidson, who anticipated his request for a prescription and asked him what kind of inquor he wanted. On being told that corn was preferable, the doctor began writing the script, at the same time telling Henderson to exhibit his tongue. Henderson poked out his taster. coughed up 50 cents and received the script. His next move was to take an overdose of the bug-juice and fall into the hands of the guardians of the law, but this latter fact had no bearing on the case yesterday morn-Ing.

Dr. Davidson did not go on the stand, choosing to make his statement and fight in the Superior Court, to which he was bound over. Mack Thompson, colored, Was
