

Social and Personal

Mr. and Mrs. Willard G. Rogers celebrated their crystal wedding last evening by receiving a large number of their friends. The Rogers home at Dilworth had been tastefully decorated for the occasion. The hall and stairway was decorated with red and white ribbons and white wedding bells. The decorations in the parlor were white carnations and palms, and everything in the library was violet. In the dining room the color effect was white and green. On the table was a large bouquet of white roses, and hanging just above it was a large white wedding bell. White ribbons hung gracefully from the chandelier to the corners of the table. The many handsome presents were displayed in the upper hall, the presents consisting of cut glass and crystal articles.

Those who assisted Mr. and Mrs. Rogers in receiving were: Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Jordan, Rev. and Mrs. H. H. Hulten, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Bell, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Dowd, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. BOARD OF DIRECTORS NAMED.

Stockholders of the Charlotte Auditorium Company Hold Meeting and Elect Directors—Charter and By-Laws Adopted—The Directors to Meet Officers Soon.

The first meeting of the stockholders of the Charlotte Auditorium Company was held in the city council chamber at the city hall last night, when the charter and by-laws were adopted and a board of directors elected. The stockholders present represented 113 of the 300 shares of stock subscribed. Mr. W. E. Dowd was called to the chair and acted as temporary chairman, and Mr. W. T. Corwith acted as secretary. Besides these, the following named other stockholders were present: Messrs. Willis Brown, W. T. McCoy, John R. Ross, A. E. McCausland, J. H. Van Ness, W. I. Henderson, E. L. Keeler, W. R. Wear, D. L. Probert, J. Arthur Henderson, W. R. Robertson, F. D. Alexander, W. F. Dowd, J. A. McRae, R. K. Blair, L. L. Hunter, David Owens, H. W. Harris, Cot. A. B. Smith, Maj. A. G. Brenizer, Dr. A. M. Whitsnant.

Immediately after the meeting was called to order Mr. McRae read the charter, which was formally adopted. The charter fixes the authorized capital at $100,000. The paid-in capital was increased last night from $4,000 to $20,000. After the adoption of the charter the by-laws prepared by a committee were adopted.

After the transaction of the above formal business the stockholders proceeded to elect a board of directors. The board, consisting of 12 men, was elected as follows: Messrs. S. S. McInch, R. M. Miller, Jr.; W. S. Lee, Jr.; A. E. McCausland, John A. McRae, John R. Ross, W. F. Dowd, W. R. Robertson, E. R. Preston, Willis Brown, F. D. Lethco and David Owens.

The board of directors will meet to-day or early next week for the purpose of electing officers and naming a building committee, which will be instructed to proceed at once with the construction of the auditorium, which will be built on the lot at the corner of College and Fifth streets, just purchased from the city for the purpose.

ALL REPORTS AUDITED. Board of Audit of Board of Bishops of A. M. E. Zion Church Submits Report, Embracing Reports of All Departments of the Church—Receipts Spent on Schools and Colleges in Six Months.

The sessions yesterday of the board of bishops of the A. M. E. Zion Church, being held at Grace church, on Bruvad street, were very interesting. The most interesting feature of the day was the report of the Rev. Dr. F. H. Hill, chairman, for the board of audit, which report embraced the reports of all departments of the Church under the board. The report showed that the Church had spent during the year $98,748.59, not including $50,000 that was spent in erecting new buildings at Livingstone College, Salisbury, and other institutions in the Church.

A summary of the report of the board of audit follows: Christian Endeavor Union $ 580.47 General fund collections 38,018.43 Livingstone College 19,285.00 Superannuated preachers fund 2,164.47 Widows and orphans 1,048.09 Contingencies 2,927.77 Educational assessment collected 10,645.21 Church extension 8,999.23 Missionary 2,145.21 Missionary peer 1,079.85 Publication house 7,364.02

Grand total $98,748.59

Another interesting feature yesterday was the report of the missionary secretary, Dr. C. B. Stephenson, who now has eight missionaries in foreign fields, including Africa, Honduras, the West Indies and Cuba.

The board decided that its next meeting shall be held at Salisbury in connection with the meeting of the council of the Church, the meeting to be held in July, during the celebration of the 25th anniversary of the founding of Livingstone College. The board was to have met at Boston.

Want a Trolley Line to Mint Hill. A few years ago a number of people in Charlotte and the eastern section of the county agitated the matter of building a trolley line from Charlotte to Mint Hill. Recently the matter has been agitated again and a meeting of those interested in the movement has been called for Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock, at Helm's store, in the county, when the matter will be discussed and some action may be taken looking toward the organization of a stock company, the village of Unionville, in Union county, just below Mint Hill, was a car line, too, and it will probably be represented at the meeting.

Legislators Here for the Week-End. Senator H. N. Pharr and Representative E. R. Preston of the State Legislature, arrived in the city last night to spend the week-end at home. Mayor S. S. McInch also returned. Mr. Dowd came yesterday morning.

In conversation with an Observer reporter last evening, Mr. Preston expressed himself highly pleased with the manner in which legislation is being effected in the House. He says that the members are a lot of fine fellows, and that Raleigh is second only to Charlotte as an ideal city in which to live.

A Card of Thanks. We desire to thank the members of Hornets Nest Camp, 96 Woodmen of the World, for their kind help and sympathy rendered during the illness and death of our beloved son, Mr. R. A.
