Winston-Salem, Jan. 25.—The board of trade here made public tonight a letter received from State Senator Buxton in regard to the resolutions recently adopted by the board in regard to railroads. In his letter Senator Buxton says:

"I am somewhat surprised to find that your board for the senator based and surprised to find the senator based surprised surprised to find the senator based surprised surpri fares are too high on the railroads of North Carolina. Though I thoroughly agree with them that the transportation facilities are inadereason why rates should not be given that an application will somewhat reduced and transporta- made to the General Assembly tion facilities rendered more adequate as well as safe. I am not an the passage of an act amending and extremist on the subject of lowering the passenger rates, but I recall the fact that the Democratic platform calls for the reduction of these rates and that on every stump in my canvass I promised to vote for a moder ate reduction of rates and I heard no dissenting voice from any member of the board of trade at that time. Mayor of the City of Char-I think 2 1-2 cents a conservative rate and a fair rate and shall vote for this. In fact the railroads would be wies to agree to this rate without any further discussion.

President F. J. Llipfert, of the board of trade, in his reply, to Senator Buxton's letter says: "The board of trade fully understood your promises to the people of the county in reference to the reduction of passenger transportation and certainly did not mean to embarrass you by the resolutions forwarded you with a request that you present thed to the Sen-The point was fully discussed and, knowing your pledge to the people, we did not ask you to support elevator. And, if you will note, the main point made by the board of trade was improved facilities, for better transportation. The manufacturers of our community are to-day suffering on their product. It is the most serious question that has faced them in edy at an early date it will mean a financial loss to them hardly to be estimated.

With this brought hourly to their attention, they feel that it is highly important that there be a marked improvement in the freight and passenger service. They recognize that to make this improvement means a large expenditure by the railroads, feel that they should not be placed in a position to confront the railroad commission and the shipper with the excuse that the reduction in their revenues had embarassed them to the extent of their not being able meet the outlay necessary to handle the increased volume of busgood sense in the position taken and again assure you that the resolutions were passed with due respect to you Forsyth county '
