THE DEATH RECORD.

Mrs. Carla Shute, of Clemmons.
Special to The Observer.
Wharton-Salem, Jan. 29.—Mrs. Carla Shute, of Clemmons, died suddenly last evening. The deceased was stricken with paralysis a few days ago, but her condition was not regarded as so serious.
Mrs. Shute was about 50 years old and was a splendid Christian worker. She was an honored member of the Moravian church at Clemmons, from which place the funeral services will be conducted to-morrow morning at 11 o'clock.

"CHECKERS."

A Good House Disappointed by the Play, Which, however, Was not Entirely Flat.
"Checkers" was presented last night at the Academy of Music to a large audience. Mr. Hans Roberts, in the title role, was good, and so was Miss Isabelle Parker, who took the part of Cynthia, the maid servant.
But aside from these there is little that can be said to the credit of the play.

Col. W. A. Peters has Caught the Fever.
Col. Will A. Peters, with his characteristic public spirit, has caught the Y. M. C. A. building fever, and has a most severe attack. Every one of his patrons, and he numbers them by the hundred daily, is greeted on his or her arrival at the popular club by the very personal question: "Have you subscribed to the Y. M. C. A. building fund?" The programme for the first part of the week is fully up to Col. Peters' high standard.

DEED OF UNKNOWN ASSAILANT

West Virginia Girl Assaulted, Then Tied and Gagged by Burglars, Who Ransacked the House.
New Cumberland, W. Va., Jan. 29.— Unconscious, gagged and bound to a chair, Nellie Campbell, chief operator at the local telephone exchange, was found nearly dead at her home today. She has not yet rallied sufficiently to tell who her assailants were and it is still doubtful whether she will recover. Miss Campbell lived with her widowed mother, Mrs. W. D. Campbell, and her sisters, and was alone in the house. Apparently the girl's assailants were burglars, who after assaulting her, tied and gagged her and then ransacked the house, taking several articles of value.

That Section 1066 of the Revisal be amended by adding: "And to require all transportation and transmission companies to establish and maintain all such public service facilities as may be reasonably just."
Sec. 8. That Section 1907 of the Revisal be amended by adding: "To require when practicable and when the necessities of the traveling public, in the judgment of the commission, demand that any railroad in this State shall install and operate one or more passenger trains and also require any two or more railroads to, respecting to make close connections at such points, provided no such order shall be made unless the business of the road justified it. The commission is, from time to time, to carefully examine into and inspect the condition of each road, and equipment and material, regarding public safety and convenience, and if found unsafe the commission to at-once notify and require the company to make repairs."
Sec. 2. That Section 1095 of the Revisal be amended by inserting after the word "transmission" the words "and delivery," and after the word "telegraph" the word "company," and by striking out the remaining part of said section and inserting: "And to make just and reasonable rates for telephone rentals and furnishing telephonic communications by any company or corporation."
Sec. 4. That Section 1110 of the
the word "person" in the first line the word "community" and by in-serting after the word "discrimination" in the second line the words or unjust and unreasonable rate, and by adding to the section: "The corporation commission shall have authority to employ counsel whenever any of its judgment is necessary and counsel so employed shall be paid any such fee as may be agreed upon by them and approved by the government."
Sec. 5. That subsection 9, of Sec.
2567, of the Revisal, be repealed.

Wants Newell Included in Greater Charlotte.

Mayor S. S. McNeill was yesterday accosted by two well-known representatives of the prosperous village of Newell, eight miles from Charlotte.
"While this city extension matter is open," said one, "we want to insert that Newell shall be taken in.
Just run a little neck of the city out there and bring us in. We won't stick against the extra tax."
"Sorry," said the mayor, "but we've already compromised with our delegation at Raleigh."

Dr. McKanna Captures Salisbury

Salisbury, Jan. 29.—According to announcement there was held in the First Baptist church here today a meeting of a number of citizens interested in the use of the liquor habit. There was present to speak in behalf of the McKanna Three-Day Liquor Cure Conductor Trent, of the Southern R. R. J. J. McKanna, Dr. B.
H. Williams and Rev. H. E. Neighbers. Dr. McKanna was here in response to an invitation from a number of citizens who had interested themselves in the great work of relieving the distressed. Dr. McKanna, after being introduced by Mr. Geo. W.
Wright, told those present how he had come to North Carolina upon the invitation of a number of Redville capitalists, who were so thoroughly convinced of the merits of his cure that they invested large sums of money in the establishment of their modern sanitarium in Redville. Dr.
McKanna who followed by Dr. B. H.
Williams, M. D., who for the past 11 years has been the resident physician at the Keeley Institute, Greensboro, and now associated with Dr. Mc-Kanna. Dr. Williams told of the advantages of the McKannavantages of the McKanna treatment and its rational administration, its superiority over all other treatment, of which he had any knowledge. Dr. Williams spoke of the time a patient saved in taking the Three Day Cure as against any other treatment. Wright in introducing Dr. McKanna, told those present of having visited Dr. Mc-Kanna's Sanitarium in Redville, interviewing the patients there, all of whom were entirely satisfied. After his speeches, it was announced that the purpose of the meeting was to send patients to Dr. McKanna, who were not able to pay for their own treatment and to advise those, who were able to pay for the treatment to go to Redville. It was the sense of the meeting that the Club should be named The McKanna Three Day Liquor Cure Club No. 3. The following officers were elected: Rev. H.
E. Neighbors, Pres. Mr. Geo. W.
Wright, Sec. Mr. W. R. Sailer, Treas.
A fund was then raised to enable able to take the treatment and the Club is now ready to send four patients to Dr. McKanna. Dr. McKanna was accompanied on his trip by Mr.
John Oliver, of Redville, his Press agent.
