DOINGS IN RALEIGH TOWN

AN AFFRAY IN THE CAPITOL

Representatives Bryant and Haynes Have Personal Encounter at Main Door of Capitol—Nobody Seriously Hurt—Cause Purely Personal—Cotton Manufactures' Association Meets and Discusses Labor Problem—Legislature Being Asked to Repeal Homestead Act, Petitioners Being Merchants and Others—Plans For New Freight Depot Ordered For Reidsville by Corporation Commission Filed.

Observer Bureau,
The Hollaman Building,
Raleigh, Feb. 6.

One of the capitol incidents to-day was a fight between Representatives Bryant, of Wilkes, and Representative Haynes, who disagreed about some personal matter not connected with legislation. Bryant got a blow in the face, but they were quickly separated and no harm was done. The encounter occurred at one of the doors of the capitol on the lower floor.

FREIGHT DEPOT FOR REIDSVILLE.

Plans for a freight depot at Reidsville, to cost $15,000, have been filed. The corporation commission last month ordered the Southern to erect a proper depot there.

Charters have been granted to the Aden Axle Lubricating Company, of Greensboro, capital $25,000, to use a mechanical device, and to the Asheville Star Vending Company to manufacture vending machines.

The National Guard Regulations Board completed its work to-day. The regulations now almost precisely follow those of the regular army, a few differences being necessary. Everything is being done to put the force on a regular army basis.

Governor Glenn is much gratified at the news from Newbern that the prohibitionists won in the fight against the dispensary by a majority of 95.

It now seems practically certain that there will be separate boards for the agricultural department and the Agricultural and Mechanical College, the latter being the only State institution which has not a separate board of trustees.

There will be co-operation between the boards, along certain lines, particularly in institutes and extension work.

At noon to-day the North Carolina Cotton Manufacturers' Association met here, R. M. Hiller presiding. Factories in all parts of the State are represented.

ASK ABOLITION HOMESTEAD LAW

Great pressure is being brought upon the Legislature to abolish the homestead exemption law. Sentiment among the members seems to be divided. Petitions are coming in from various counties, the Retail Merchants' Association, having secured large numbers of these.

Mrs. Robert D. Johnson, of Alabama, who has been here for a week working for the reformatory bill, went home to-day. There is considerable opposition, mainly among eastern members, but advocates of the measure are yet hopeful.

Capt. Mack Williams, of the First Battery, Field Artillery, was here to-day to see Adjutant General Robertson. This battery has received four new rifled guns and equipments and its three Gatlings are to be distributed among the three infantry regiments.

Fred Woolcott, a merchant here, has gone to Columbia to identify a convict in the penitentiary who is believed to be the burglary who robbed Mr. Woolcott's house in Raleigh 8 years ago. He acknowledged the crime, was convicted, sentenced for life and escaped.

The executive committee of the Cotton Manufacturers' Association has decided upon the establishment of a fire insurance commission and is before the Legislature to press the matter.

COTTON MANUFACTURERS MEET

At to-day's meeting of the North Carolina Cotton Manufacturers' Association there were present: Messrs. R. M. Miller, Jr., of Charlotte; W. A. Erwin, of Durham; Capt. David Clark, of Jonesboro; W. C. Ruffin, R. S. Rheinhardt, of Lincolnton; Thos. H. Battle, of Rocky Mount, F. Dilling, S. B. Tanner, of Caroleen; Bernard Cone, of Greensboro; D. A. Tomkins, of Charlotte; D. Y. Cooper, of Henderson; Ashley Horn, of Clayton; E. H. Williamson, J. P. McRae, of Laurinburg, A. J. Ruffin, of Hillsboro, A. A. Thomason, of Raleigh.

The session lasted until after midnight. The labor question was discussed at considerable length.

MAJOR JOSEPH H. BUTT DEAD.

The Oldest Mason and Odd Fellow in Georgia.

Gainesville, Ga., Feb. 6.—Major Joseph H. Butt died at three o'clock this afternoon of paralysis, in his 86th year. He was the oldest Mason and the oldest Odd Fellow in Georgia. During the civil war he was a major on the staff of General Bragg.

For many years he edited The Gainesville Eagle, and for several terms was a member of the Georgia House of Representatives from Hall county. It is said that he was the original "Major Jones," of "Major Jones' Courtship," so well known to all Southerners.

UNNA DEFINES A CAUSE.

European Skin Specialist Says Dandruff is Caused by Parasites.

Upon the theory proved beyond a doubt, a cure for dandruff was sought after. Scientists, chemists, druggists and physicians all "took a hand" and the successful issue is the present product known as "Newbro's Herpicide."

This remedy actually kills the parasites that infest the hair bulb, does its work most effective and contains not an atom of substance injurious to any thing else than the germ alone. Herpicide causes the hair to grow as nature intended it should, soft and abundant.

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

STEAMER MYSTIC ARRIVES.

The Nanna, Which Had Been in Tow, Brought Into Halifax, N. S., Harbor by Tugs.

Halifax, N. S., Feb. 6.—The New York coal steamer Mystic, which was reported in distress off Ketch Harbor last night, with another steamer in tow, arrived in port to-day. The steamer Nanna, which had been in tow of the Mystic, also arrived, being brought into the harbor by tugs. The Nanna had a broken shaft, having become disabled off Cape Sable last week, and the Mystic, which struck on a shoal but quickly floated, had a hole in her bottom.

Captain Abbott, of the Mystic, fell in with the Nanna last Monday 20 miles southwest of Seal Island, in distress. She got a tow line aboard the Nanna and headed for Halifax. Off Cape Sable the cable parted, but the Mystic picked the Nanna up again. Early yesterday morning, off Chebuctu Head in a gale, the line parted again, and while the Mystic was trying once more to make fast to the Nanna, both steamers were driven in among the shoals. It was snowing hard and the northeast gale was terrific. To avoid striking both steamers let go their anchors. All day long and all last night they remained there. Finally the Mystic dragged her anchors and struck, a hole being driven through her bottom forward. Her forepeak was flooded, but she quickly worked off the shoal. Early to-day she cast off the tow line, and making her way out of danger, ran for this port.

Challenges American Heavyweights.

San Francisco, Feb. 6.—According to a cablegram received yesterday from Australia, "Bill" Squires, the champion heavyweight boxer of Australia, will leave there on the steamer Ventura for this city, accompanied by his backer. In the cablegram he challenges all the heavyweights in America and says he will post his forfeit upon arrival. The Ventura will arrive here about March 12.

How About It?
Did you see how they flocked to the Mutual B. & L. yesterday to get into the new series? I'll tell you, the people know that an association 25 YEARS OLD, AND MORE, never having lost a cent of anybody's money, and that has a record for early maturing of its stock unequalled by any other association in this country, has merit, and lots of it. We are not afraid to compare records with anything alive, and if you don't know all about the methods, JUST CALL ON THE SECRETARY. He loves to talk B. & L., for if he knows anything in its entirety, IT'S B. & L. IN ITS PURITY.

A Statement Worth Considering
A city's richest asset, greatest problem, sternest peril, mightiest force, costliest offender, strongest defender, highest hope is the YOUNG MAN.
