IURAL DISTRICTS EXEMPT IGARETTE BULL FALLS DOWN.

Through South Carolina Legisla-ture—Scenate Bill of Mr. Blease to Prohibit Manufacture of Cigar-ettes and Cigarette Papers is Con-tinued Until Next Session—Meth-adist Minister Voted Against Meas-ure Recommended by Conference.

Observer Bureau, 1209 Main Street, Columbia, S. C., Feb. 14.

There was a sensational discussion on the floor of the House this afternoon on the Floyd bill, which is designed to exempt the rural districts from the operation of the compulsory vaccination law. The bill had passed the Senate and two readings in the House. Mr. Floyd, in defending his bill, related an incident where a well-known physician had vaccinated a woman and her five-day old child against the protest of the woman.

"To-day that woman and child are under the sod," declared Mr. Floyd. "I tell you the people are not going to stand for this sort of thing. If the law does not protect us from unprincipled doctors, we will take the law in our own hands." The House, on two rool-calls, refused to kill the bill, it being the sentiment that the enforcement of the vaccination law in Georgia, fair and colder Friday; Saturthe cities and towns will assure am-
