BRIEFS.

A Few Minor Happenings in and About the City.

—Rev. A. L. Coburn, who has been ill for the past four weeks, is greatly improved.

—Miss Sadie Kell, of Providence township, who has been ill for some time, was slightly improved yesterday.

—Miss Lucy Ross, who has been ill at her home on North Poplar street for the past week, does not improve.

—Rev. H. M. Parker, pastor of Providence, of North Poplar street, who has been ill with the grip for the past two months, has recovered.

—The Home Mission Committee of the Mecklenburg Presbytery will hold an important meeting at the First Presbyterian church to-morrow at noon.

—The Thompson Orphanage Guild will meet in St. Peter's Episcopal church this morning at 11 o'clock. All members are urged to be present.

—Capt. W. E. Ardrey, of Pineville, who has been quite ill with the grip, was slightly improved yesterday. His condition is said to be serious.

—A meeting of the Charlotte bar will be held in the law building to-morrow afternoon at 4 o'clock. The calendar for the March term of civil court, which meets March 11, will be arranged.

—The rails on the spur track leading around by the rock quarry have not yet been placed, owing to the delay in getting the iron. As soon as a shipment is received the work will be pushed to an early completion.

—Though the weather Monday was ideal, as recorded, yesterday was anything but that. A light but steady rain fell throughout the daylight hours, and the streets of the city, as usual on such occasions, looked little enough as the thoroughfares of Mecklenburg's capital should look.

—The Home Mission Committee of the Mecklenburg Presbytery will hold an important meeting at the First Presbyterian church to-morrow at noon.

IVEY'S Sale of Muslin Skirts and Gowns at 98c Each THURSDAY

These are two big bargains. Bought some time ago to be so. A special for our customers. We secured these Skirts and Gowns at a price much less than the cost of the materials at the present time.

The Skirts are made from heavier Muslin, with wide embroidery and lace facings. Another is made from splendid Muslin tucked and hemstitched and made good and full.

35c CORSET COVERS. To give additional interest to this sale on Thursday, we will offer a big lot of new Corset Covers that are regularly worth 50c each, for 35c each.

READY-MADE SKIRTS We have just received another large lot of new Ready-Made Skirts in the latest spring styles. Again we emphasize the character of the workmanship, cut and finish of these skirts.

$5.98 SPECIAL As a leader we are offering an extra big value in regular $7.50 Skirts at $5.98 each.

These are in the latest and most up-to-date styles in Chiffon Panamas, Blue, Black and Grays; Batistes, in Blue, Black and Dark Gray; also Fancy Mixed Fabrics in Gray, Brown and Tan effects, all most carefully tailored and the price is only about the cost of the material.
