daughter, Mrs. A. J. Bynum, to-day after a short illness. Mr. Headen was the oldest citizen in the town, being in his 85th year. He lived most of his life in Pittsboro, and was always one of the best citizens. Only two months ago his son-in-law, Mr A. J. Bynum, died, with whom he had been in the mercantile business in Pittsboro for over thirty years. It was only a short while ago that Mr. Headen withdrew from the firm of Bynum & Headen, and since that time he has lived in retirement. He is survived by a wife and one son, Dr. W. E. Headen, of Morehead, and two daughters, Mrs. R. L. Stroud, of Chapel Hill, and Mrs. A. J. Bynum, of Pittsboro.
