"THE COLLEGE WIDOW" PLEASES Good-sized Audience Enjoys George Ade's Snappy Play Well Presented—Surcharged With College Atmosphere and Life.

"The College Widow" attracted a comfortably filled house at the Academy of Music last night and, if liberal applause counts for anything, pleased the gathering well. Miss Louise Rutter as "the college widow" made good. She worked hard and being apparently naturally well fitted for the part added spice to a lively play. She was well supported by Robert Kelly, as Billy Bolton, the masculine figure and crack football player around whom the story turns.

Alison as Fern, the waitress, and Wilson Deal as Elam Hicks, of Squantumville, added humor to every scene in which they figured. The play, as its name indicates, is distinctly a college play. Therein lies its advantage and a disadvantage. It makes it in its nature bright, snappy, and surcharged with youthful life and enthusiasm. Because of its setting, however, it has not, perhaps, as broad a range of appeal as to whom it can appeal as it might otherwise have. In all probability the most moving part of the play is the scene in the training room adjacent to the field whereon is being played the Thanksgiving football game. The scenes of alternate hope and despair up to the moment when Bolton seizes the ball on his own team's two-yard line and dashes the length of the field for the winning touchdown, and the period of delicious joy which follows are life-like to a thrilling degree.

A LIGHT COURT YESTERDAY.

Willie Phifer, Colored, Gets a Thrashing and is Reserved for Another—Sandy Gibson Gets Choice of Whipping and Serves Sentence for Profanity.

The statement that the recorder's court was light yesterday has no reference to the color of the defendants. They were three in number and dark of countenance. Willie Phifer, the negro boy, who threw a piece of iron at Mr. E. K. Blair, of Blair's drug store, was awarded a drubbing. The goods were delivered, but were not to Willie's liking. In fact he was much displeased. So strong was his feeling of outraged dignity that he vowed to take vengeance on the sturdy patrolman who put into the execution the edict of his honor. It was decided then to give him 24 hours to cool off and when the refrigerating process was completed to give him another dose of the rod.

Sandy Gibson, who has sworn publicly in a manner not conducive to the health of public morals, was fined $5 and sentenced to 30 days in jail. He may, however, if he so wills, accept a thrashing in lieu thereof.

Shine Andrews was arraigned on the charge of having wrongfully appropriated unto himself a valise at the Seaboard passenger station Thursday morning. The case was continued until to-day.

NEGLECTED COLDS THREATEN LIFE (From The Chicago Tribune.) "Don't trifle with a cold," is good advice for prudent men and women. It may be vital in the case of a child. Proper food, good ventilation, and dry, warm clothing are the proper safeguards against colds. If they are maintained through the changeable weather of autumn, winter and spring, the chances of a surprise from ordinary colds will become severe if neglected, and well established ripe cold is to the germs of diphtheria a menace to child life at this season of the year is the neglected cold. MR. J. B. SPENCE ENDORSED. Republican State Executive Committee Turns Down Both Mr. R. W. Smith and Mr. D. Kirby Pope—Mr. Spence Recommended for the Postmastership.

The action of the Republican State executive committee yesterday in endorsing the application of Mr. J. B. Spence for the Charlotte postoffice created considerable talk in the city last night. All those who were heard to express themselves seemed highly pleased. The announcement furnished a mild surprise for the majority believed that the present incumbent, Mr. R. W. Smith, would be able to retain the office. The fight in the committee is said to have been a warm one, Mr. Spence's endorsement being due to the active efforts of Ex-Judge Spence B. Adams in his behalf. It will be recalled that of all the Republicans in the county last summer, Mr. Spence was the only one who championed the cause of Ex-Judge Adams in his fight with Congressman Spenser Blackburn for the chairmanship of the State executive committee. Ex-Judge Adams thus repaid the debt.

In turning down Mr. Smith, the State organization completely disregarded the wishes of the county organization, of which Mr. J. F. Newell is chairman. There are some who hold that the endorsement of Mr. Smith by Mr. Newell's committee really militated against his candidacy when the matter came up before the committee of which Ex-Judge Adams is chairman. There is no love lost, so it is said, between the two men.

The surprise of the evening, however, was the announcement that Mr. D. Kirby Pope had been turned down and that Col. W. S. Pearson, of Morganton, had been recommended in his place for assayer of the Charlotte mint. Col. Pearson is one of the most accomplished men in the State. It is to be sincerely hoped that he will accept the proffered appointment.

Believes Schooner Hilda Was Lost off Diamond Shoals. Savannah, Ga., March 1.—Capt. Diehl, of the steamer Chattahoochee, of the Ocean Steamship Company's fleet, is of the opinion that the schooner Hilda, of this city, was lost off Diamond Shoals, near Hatteras, on the night of February 4th or 5th. Capt. Diehl says he saw a schooner resembling the Hilda near that point on the 4th and that as a heavy storm was on, any vessel would have had a very hard time to keep clear of the shoals.

Preach That the Earth Is Square. Martinsville correspondence Indianapolis News.

Members of the First Church of God (or Christ) are causing a revolution in religious matters in the Goose Creek neighborhood, south of this city. They preach that the earth is square, quoting from the Bible that the people are to be gathered from the four corners of the earth and that they are to carry the Gospel to all who inhabit the four corners of the earth.

They speak in strange tongues and an interpreter is required for those who talk in the meetings. They require converts to believe that Christ was not born in a manger, but under an apple tree, and they banish sickness by laying on of hands and other ceremonies. Fifty-nine converts are reported, some of whom are men well known in this city.

Had No Local Reputation. Boston Herald.

Archibald M. Howe, of Cambridge, who bears the distinction of having been once nominated for Vice President of the United States, in addressing a gathering the other evening spoke of the great value of a local reputation. He emphasized the point he told a story about his friend Judge Rockwood Hoar, of Concord. Judge Hoar was Attorney General of the United States at the time, and one day, down in Washington, a friend rushed up to him and said, "Judge, did you hear the speech of Thompson, of Indiana, yesterday? It was his maiden speech, and it was a great effort."

Turning to his friend, Judge Hoar replied: "Thompson? Thompson? Thompson? No, I did not hear it. He has only a national reputation. He has no local reputation."
