IN THE REALM OF NORTH CAROLINA SOCIETY

Correspondence of The Observer Carlton, whose recent return to Statesville, after some months' resi-dence in Durham, has given much pleasure to her friends, was hostess of the place, and was even when the

was a discussion of the life and works of Audubon, the naturalist and birdlover. Mrs. Leonard White gave an interesting sketch of his life, and Mrs. Henry Hall read some well-selected articles from his writings, especially one on the mocking bird. After a pleasant time spent in converse, delicious charlotte russe, cake, coffee and almonds were served. slight hoarseness on the part of

The house was tastefully decorated in evergreens and flags. The amusement for the evening was a A prize was offered to the one spelling the greatest number of words out of the letters composing the name "George Washington," and this prize, a gold hat a large national flag, was served a much enjoyed meat course, with cof-

Mrs. Webb, one of the charter members of the club, has just returned from a short residence in Salisbury, much to the delight of her family and friends, and has at once taken her old place m her club, and rious times gone forth to seek a their wandering feet homeward again members were obtained. and rested beneath our ancient elms.

On Wednesday afternoon Mrs. W. M. Barringer, in her handsome new home on West End avenue, delightfully entertained the Eclectic Book Club. The programme for the evening was most appropriate, being divided between George Washington and the poet Longfellow, the centenary of whose birth fell upon that Mrs. W. W. Walton gave an interesting talk on Longfellow, especially describing his home in Cam-salad, coffee, etc., was daintily served. Little Miss Ada Bell Barringer and Master Billie Barringer, dressed in white, assisted in the serving, while their dark eyes sparkled with interest in the occasion. The club was happy to have with them Mesdames John F. Bowles, R. L. Poston, Espey Watts, Henry Hall and Charles Turner as guests of the evening.

GREENSBORO.

Correspondence of The Observer.

Greensboro, March 2.—The centennial birthday of Henry Wadsworth Longfellow, America's favorite poet, was appropriately celebrated in Greensboro by a joint meeting of all of the content of the celebration of the sixteenth birthday Miss Mary Drew Land entertained a number of her vous and the chapel on Saturday evening. Miss Georgie Steedly, planist; Mr. Gustav Hagedorn, violinist, rendered the programme of music from the romantic school, assisted by Mrs. Wade Brown, contraito. Wednesday afternoon. and the occasion was especially en- ed. joyable to all. The programme was arranged by the ladies and the principal feature was an address by the Hay Watson Smith, a student of Longfellow's work and an author- Correspondence of The Observer. ity on English literature.

After a selection on the piano by Mr. Brown, the Rev. Mr. Smith was monthly meeting in the home of Mrs. introduced by Mrs. J. Sterling Jones. E. E. Hilliard, with Miss Nannie Leach The speaker held the closest atten- hostess. ute to the man, whom he described, as the greatest of story tellers, song gest a course of study for the club writers and painter of pictures in literature that America has produced. Longfellow, he said, was one of the world's most popular, but not one of its greatest poets. He was a lovable man, but not a man of power, the had no enemies and none had for him a passionate love—two characters. Were appointed a committee to suggest a course of study for the club retained nearly a hundred friends at progressive dominoes. Thirteen tables were arranged in a semi-circle in the bright attractive paim room of the Zinzendorf, under the of the Zinzendorf, and here skill pitted against skill, the players played to a finish. At each table a first and second prize were awarded, these consisting of the daintiest of box-hons in circle store of Yellow-store and graphic tertained nearly a hundred friends at progressive dominoes. Thirteen tables were arranged in a semi-circle in the bright attractive paim room of the Zinzendorf, under the auspices of the J. B. Gordon Chapter ted against skill, the players played to a finish. At each table a first and second prize were awarded, these consisting of the daintiest of box-hons in circle stores of Yellow-stores and graphic tertained nearly a hundred friends at progressive dominoes. Thirteen tables are arranged in a semi-circle in the bright attractive paim room of the Zinzendorf, under the auspices of the J. B. Gordon Chapter ted against skill, the players played to a finish. At each table a first and second prize were awarded, these consisting of the daintiest of box-hons in circle stores. teristics of the man of great will ments were served and the club adpower. He was the poet of child-hood and the masses. His work is admired by the highly intellectial people as it is by the masses. In concluding Dr. Smith told the in concluding Dr. Smith told the story of what Emerson had said on the day of the functal of Longfel. the day of the funeral of Longfel-low. Emerson went to the service. Mrs. J. B. Brewer, of Pulaski, VA., is the great essayist mind had become here on a visit to Mrs. R. C. Josey. The great essays that and be could not re-feeble with age and he could not re-member occurrences very well. To the servant he said of Longfellow, "I do not remember the gentleman's to Baltimore yesterday to be with her mame, but he had a beautiful soul."
"This," said Dr. Smith, "is the yer-

On behalf of the clubs Mrs. John N. Staples thanked the speaker for the address. A splendid feature of the address. A splendid feature of the exercise were three solos from the poetry of Longfellow. Miss Kate Tate sang "The Arrow and the Song;" Prof. Peele another selection and Mrs. Foushee, with her magnificent voice, sang "The Bridge."

The Sans Souci Club held a most enjoyable meeting Monday afternoon with the Misses Sparger in Blandwood avenue. The color scheme of the decorations useds in the lovely home was pink and white. Mrs. C. T. Lipscomb and Mrs. Fred. Sparger presided over the punch lower presided over the punch lower was presided to be punch lower was presided to be a president was given a constitution of the decoration was made and lower was presided to be a president was president to the president was the cone who received the beautifully engraved invitations reading as follows:

Mrs. Geo. A. Gray

Wills receive Thursday, February twenty-first, princteen hundred seven four to six.

The beautiful home of Mr. Geo. A. Gray on the corner of South and Franklin, was a scene of givent enjoyment. The spacious halls, parlors and dining room were thrown open to more than one hundred givests. The second lower was presented to the property twenty-first, princteen hundred seven four to six.

The beautiful home of Mr. Geo. A. Gray will receive the beautiful home of Mrs. Geo. A. Gray will receive the present property twenty-first, princteen hundred seven four to six.

The beautiful home of Mr. Geo. A. Gray will receive the property twenty-first, princteen hundred seven four to six.

The beautiful home of Mr. Geo. A. Gray will receive the property twenty-first, princteen hundred seven four to six.

The beautiful home of Mr. Geo. A. Gray will receive the property twenty-first, prin

A slight hoarseness on the part of Mrs. Carlton prevented the club from enjoying her beautiful singing, which has often seemed to rival Audubon's own bird notes.

The Entre Nous Book Club was entertained by Mrs. B. B. Webb on Friday afternoon, the 22nd, it being the birthday of the Father of his Country. The house was tastefully decoration. of the American Revolution last Fri-pin, fell to the lot of Miss Carrie an interesting talk appropriate to the Hoffman. From a table covered with season, and the exercises were con-among her society intimates. In-deed, it is an old saying in States-ville, that almost all who have at va-were greatly enjoyed by all. The receptions were unique and interesting home elsewhere, have ere long turned and as a result a number of new

Invitations reading as follows have been received here:

"Mr. and Mrs. William Stafford request your presence at the marriage of their daughter, Emma, to George Wayne Patterson, on Thursday afternoon, March the fourteenth, at one o'clock. 'The Maples,' Winston-Salem, North Carolina."
Mr. Patterson was formerly a resident of Greensboro, being connected with the firm of J. W. Scott & Company for a number of years. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Pat-tion by Mrs. Letitia Morehead Walker. At the close of the evening's programme, a delicious course of Thacker and Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Spencer, of High Point.

> the evening an enjoyable course of refreshments was served. The dining room was decorated in red, white and blue, and the table with Ameri-

Greensboro by a joint meeting of all friends Friday evening at the home of the study clubs of the city in the of her parents in West Gaston street. lecture room of the public library About forty young people were pres-Wednesday afternoon. There were ent. Games were played and during about three hundred women present the evening refreshments were serv-

SCOTLAND NECK.

Scotland Neck, March 1.-The Round Table Club held its last semi- Correspondence of The Observer.

journed to meet with Mrs. A. C. Liverman two weeks hence. Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Courtney re time on a visit to her relatives here. Mrs. J. B. Brewer, of Pulaski, Va., is Also Mrs. Matilda Eastman of Baltimore, is visiting her niece, Mrs. R. C. Josey. Mrs. Bernard Allsbrook went

GASTONIA.

STATESVILLE.

Sorrespondence of The Observer.

Statesville, Feb. 28.—Mrs. Flake ariton, whose recent return to intesville, after some months resisce in Durham, has given much leasure to her friends, was hostens at set Thursday afternoon to the chursday Afternoon Book Club, at ser home on Broad street. This is no of the old and well-known homes the place, and was even when the completity and for the many good hings emanating from its cullnary peartment.

The literary feature of the evening sas a discussion of the literary feature of the such and the cover. Mrs. Leonard White gave an anteresting sketch of his life, and Mrs. Leak, J. B. Stroud, Frank Leak, J. B.

dren who sang a number of patriotic songs for the ladies which were greatly enjoyed.

Mrs. Dr. J. D. Broadnax then read a most entertaining and instructive paper on the life of Washington, followed by a chorus by the first grade from the Proximity Graded School.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Y. Warren entertained delightfully Tuesday evening at their home on Dallas street, in honor of Miss Mary Hildebrand and Miss Edith Self, of Newton, the latter being the great of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Michael. Progressive trail was played. All the creation of the progressive trail was played. School.

Mrs. Charles L. Van Noppen gave an interesting talk appropriate to the season, and the exercises were concluded with another chorus by the Proximity school children.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the West Market Street Methodist Episcopal church gave their annual reception in the ladles parlor of the church Thursday afternoon and in the evening the members of the Margaret Foster Missionary Society of the same church gave their annual reception. Both events were greatly enjoyed by all. The re-

RALEIGH

Correspondence of The Observer. Raleigh, Feb. 28.—Mrs. Joseph E. Pogue entertained at luncheon on Wednesday in honor of Mrs. Lindsey Patterson, of Winston-Salem.

Mr. John' Charles McNelll, author of "Songs Merry and Sad," and winner of the Lindsay Patterson cup, delivered a most interesting and instructive lecture before the Woman's Club on Thursday

On Wednesday morning at 10:30 o'clock a large circle of relatives and friends assembled at the First Presbyterian hurch to witness the marriage of Miss their future home.

Mrs. Erwin Holt and Miss Bertha Holt. Spencer, of High Point.

The Reviewers' Book Club was charmingly entertained Thursday afternoon by Mrs. A. B. Kimball at her home in North Elm street. The subject for the meeting was Italy and interesting papers were read by Mrs. Newell and Gilliam. During the evening an enjoyable course of North.

Friday evening at 6 o'clock Mr. J. A. Farmer, of Wilson, gave an elegani six-course dinner ta Giersch's Cafe, complimentary to his daughter, who attends reace Institute, and a number of her friends. Those enjoying Mr Farmer's hospitality were: Misses Myrile Wade, Lillian Flelds, Ione Scott, Clara Armstead, Emma Finlayson, Marguerite McChirtle, Hilda Way, Della Mae Farmer and Mrs. B. Orndorff.

WINSTON-SALEM.

week was brightened by several very the handsome State building, which tention of his audience. He gave a Miss Addie Smith, the talented agreeable functions which in decoratis in a more advanced stage of erections, national colors, hatchets and tion than any other State building. short biographical sketch of the poet president of the club, called the meet and divided his life into five periods, ing to order. Mrs. W. R. Bond read the like, suggest the very obvious impression that they were given in alluded to the poetry an literary proMerchant of Venice." and Miss Mary honor of the Father of his Country, conference with the other members of ductions of each period. He quoted from his poetry and in tender and on "Portia." Mrs. G. S. White, Mrs. and social purposes were subserved endearing terms paid a worthy tribS. C. Liverman and Miss Annie Baker at the same time. Thursday afterwhom he described, were appointed a committee to sug- noon Mrs. William N. Reynolds enhim a passionate love—two charact of Wilmington, Del. Dainty refreshcharmingly contrived hatchets, cher- to the occasion. ry trees, cocked hats and other Washingtonian devices. After the game delicious refreshments were served. Those receiving with and assisting Mrs. Reynelds in doing the honors of this elegant function were her colleagues of the local chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolu-tion, Mesdames A. H. Galloway, J. M. Rogers, W. T. Brown, Jones, J. L. Ludlow, Roan, J. Lindsoy Patterson, Mrs. C. E. Shelton, J. S. Grogan and Misses Ada Dalton and Mary Taylor.

> Friday afternoon the very attractive circle of young girls constituting the D. D. C. Club received charming compliment at the hands of their young gentlemen friends of the ninth grade. At the home of Mr. Percy Goodspeed, one of the ninth grade boys, a beautiful George Wash-ington party was given. Progressive dominoes furnished the all-absorbing pastime. After the contest, the score showed that the first prize for ladies had been won by Miss Grace Whaling, the second by Miss Irene Smith; the first prize for gentlemen had been wen by Mr. Charles Farrell and the second by Mr. Joe Dalton. The game dated Granite Company.

tertainments of the season. This was nothing more nor less than a "Children's Party," at which there were no children at all, the eighteen guests simply being arrayed as boys and girls and playing the role of children in the most amusing and enjoyable fashion. Among other noted children who came in character were Buster Brown and Mary Jane Chimmle Fadden, little Miss Muffett, etc. The games were all in keeping with the tender years of the players, blind man stealing partners, running the thimble, furnishing the diversions, while Teddy bears and other delights of tender years were not lacking on this happy occasion. The table was arand a whole menagerie of animal crackers added to the aptness and effect of the table decoration. A most enjoyable evening was the por-

The Colonial Tea, given last Friday under the auspices of the Caldwell Memorial Association, at the home of Mrs. E. B. Jones, was a most charming social success as well as a most successful financial venture. dames E. B. Jones, Henry Roan, Charles Norfleet and Miss Ellen Norfleet, charmingly gowned in colonial costumes, received and welcomed the guests. In honor of the day, February 22, the home was attractively decorated in bunting and the picture of Washington, draped with the national flag, was conspicuously in evidence. The decoration in the centre of the table was a dainty little cherry tree, the menu cards hatchets, while the salt stands were contrived of little flags. A more de-lightful occasion could hardly have been afforded. The young ladies who served the guests with such charming grace were Misses Florence and Gertrude Brown, Mary and Senah Critz, Julia Wilson, Lilla Young, Julia Briggs Charlotte Webb and Lillian

Friday afternoon Miss Eleanor Albea entertained the young friends of her club most agreeably. In the guessing contest Miss Mary Pell won the first prize, a box of bon-bons. The second prize, a cherry tree filled with maraschina cherries, was won by Miss Lily Grogan, and the consolation, a drum, also filled with cherries, was won by Miss Addie Webb. As souvenirs of the 22d, each guest was presented with a little silver hatchet tied with red ribbon. De-

Mrs. W. P. Caldwell left last week to be the guest for some time of her daughters, Mesdames J. W. Fry and J. L. Jones, of Greensboro .- Mrs. teresting talk on Longfellow, especially describing his home in Cambridge, Mass. which she had visited in 1882. This house, General Washington's headquarters during the revolution, is full of the memories of both of these great and honored men. Mrs. Coble read some selections from the admirable life of George Washington by Prof. Woodrow Wilson.

Mrs. McRorie read a fine article on "The Restoration of Mt. Vernon," which restoration began in 1833, under the auspices of the then new Mt. Vernon Association, founded through the patriotic efforts of South Carolina, has from that time to the present, taken entire charge of the present were: Misses Marga and pride to the country, and a fitting memorial to General and Mrs. W. E. Patrion, in the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Patrion, in the son of Mrs. And Mrs. W. E. Patrion, in the son of Mrs. And Mrs. W. E. Patrion, in the son of Mrs. And Mrs. W. E. Patrion, of West Washington is not washington. It may be noted that Miss Alice Longfellow, a daughter of the poet, is the vice regent to the poet, is the vice regent to the poet, is the vice regent to the country for first North Carolina has been for fifty North Carolina has been for H. D. Lindsay, of Rockford, and Miss Mary Dobson, of Arkansas, are visit-Crute.—Mrs. William Hunt and little Ledbetter Smith, Charles Price, David son. Master Robert Kyle Hunt, of Franklin Cannon, Wm. White McKen-Columbus, Ga., who have been the zie, Fletcher Franklin Smith, Edwin guests of Mrs. A. H. Kalloway for Williamson-Overman, John Mamie Hinshaw returned last week tinguished, was a notable hostess to whither she was summoned by the illness of her daughter, Mrs. Whitehead .- Miss Alice Kimball, of with her cousin, Miss Robah May Kermer, last week .- Mr. James A. to the University on Monday, after spending several days with his par-ents. Mr. Gray has recently been elected manager of the University are track team, which is preparing for some interesting contests with several other teams during the spring .- Miss Margie Gray and her guest, Miss Frances Lacy, of Raleigh, have rewhite merieach versity School Music was given in the character of the Salver of Raleigh, have returned from Davidson College, where they went to attend the junior speak-

> Mrs. J. L. Ludlow and her daughter, Miss Annie, left Monday for a visit of several weeks to relatives and friends in Easton, Pa.—Miss Sadie Robins returned to the Salem Academy Monday after a visit of several days to her parents in Raleigh .- Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Marsh and son. Leland Marsh, of New York, who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wilder, West End, returned home on Tuesday.-Mrs. Lindsay Patterson returned last Thursday from a visit to Washington, D. C., and to Jamestown. Va., whither she went in reference to matters pertaining to North Carolina's exhibit of colonial relics. She Winston-Salem, Feb. 28.-Last reports most satisfactory progress on the committee in charge of the North

The moving pictures and graphic ciety folks lending, its usual prestige to the occasion. Quite a handsome sum was realized from a crowded house.

Mrs. James Plumley and little daughter, of Cynnyd, Pa., are the guests of Mrs. Plumley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James A. Gray.-Mrs. H. Willard and Mrs. Bettie Woodruff have returned from a charming visit to friends in Lynchburg, Va.

Invitations as follows have been is sued to out-of-town friends: Mr. and Mrs. William Stafford request your presence at the marriage of their daughter Emma

Mr. George Wayne Patterson on Thursday afternoon, March fourteenth at one o'clock "The Maples," Winston-Salem North Carolina.

Miss Stafford is a young lady

SALISBURY.

Salisbury, March 1.—Mrs. John Whitehead with bountiful hospitality entertained at a dinner party last Wednesday in honor of Mrs. William W. Hunt, of Columbus, Ga. The guests who were honored with this lavish entertanment were: Mesdames William W. Hunt, Fletcher Franklin Smita, Charles Price, William Murdock Wilsy, Archibald Henderson Boyden, Nettleton Payne Murpay, James Hill Ramsay, Edwin Williamson-Overman, Dr. John Whitehead.

Mrs. Archibald Henderson Boyden entertained Wednesday evening at the lovely Boyden homstead a delightful coterie of friends in honor of Mrs. William W. Hunt. Miss May Wheat Boyden showed the marvels of a chafing dish with ingenious hands providing an elaborate menu that was as delicious as informal. The honored guests yere: Mesdames Charles Price, Wm. W. Hunt, William Murdoch Wi-ley, James Hill Ramsay, Edwin Wil-liamson-Overman, F. F. Smith, Misses Mary Locke and May Wheat Boyden.

Mrs. James Preston Moore was a most distinguished hostes in the patriotic manner in which she honored Washington's birthday by its observance on Friday afternoon, to the Eliz-abeth Maxwell Steele Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution. The programme was full of pa-triotism. The ritual was read, inspiring national and State anthems were sung. Mrs. David Franklin Cannon read Lon Brougham's tribute to Wash-ington's character, Mrs. Robert Lee Mauney gave a recital of charming anecdotes, Mrs. Richard Henderson gave al. the salient characteristics of Mrs. Mary Washington, Mrs. M. C. Quinn told of the queens of the White House, beginning with Lady Washington. Mrs. F. F. Smith read an able article dealing with Mount Vernon. Mrs. William H. Overman gave the history of North Carolina's Canova's statue of Washington at Raleigh. Mrs. Edwin Overman read an account of the potrait painters of the Washingtons. Mrs. James Preston Moore read an able paper on "The American Flag" and how it was linked with brilliant traditions through whose warp and wood ran such glorious recitals of conquest and important history in land and on sea. All stood and sang "The Star Spangled Banner," with great spirit and fire. The decoration of the reception hall was in the tri-col-or, red, white and blue. The Father of His Country with Lady Washington was appropriately wreathed in cher-ry boughs, ladened with fruit. The star spangled banner floated in festoons and in wreaths from every vantage point. The menu was in red, white and blue; steaming hot crabs, sauce tartare, cheese straws; wiches, delicious tea, ices and cakes with the traditional cherries for decoration was a menu that made the guests declare "fate can not harm me, I have feasted to-day." were: Mesdames Hayne Davis, John Henderson, Richard Henderson, Willlam H. Overman, William Murdoch, Wiley Nettleton Payne-Murphy M. C. Quinn, James Hall Ramsey, Mary B. Frickey, Mary Overman Linton, Ben Sumner, Robert Lee Mauney, Miss Eleanor Watson, whose ideals are as high as her talents are disthe Twice-Seven Book Club in celebration of Longfellow's one hundredth brithday on Wednesnay afternoon at 4 o'clock. The roll call was answered by quotations from America's first poet. Miss Lethelle Boyd read a criticism of Longfellow as a poet, and his poetry. Miss Elizabeth Crump sang charmingly Longfellow's "Brook," which was followed by an absorbing and interesting description of the centenary as observed by Cambridge by the president. Miss Flora Keith Chapman, Miss Mary Ferraud Henderson read the exquisitely poetic San Dolphin duet by Miss Crump and Willie Pender Lewis. the State Normal, spent a few days with the most notable quotations from the poet's greatest works with a portrait of Longfellow, his home, and Gray, Jr., of the University. returned the "Wayside Inn" were given each guest as a souvenir and yet a test of her scholarship. Mrs. Claude Morris received a handsome picture of the poet in recognition of her successful competition by answering correctly the greatest number of quotations. A delicious collation was served to the charmed guests.

> The Old Hickory Club with generous hearts and gracious hands have ten-dered their reception and club rooms for the use of the graded school teachers for Friday evening. They are desirous of making their club rooms a popular resort for the ladies and have with lavish hospitality them one day of every week

Misses Mary Watts Wood and Mary Moon, of Charlottesville, Va., left Thursday for their homes after spending several days with Mrs. John White head on their return from Birmingham, Ala. They represent the most distinguished Virginia families. Miss Wood stands high in the calendar of Southern beauties and comes from a family famed for its beauties and helles, and is herself an unsurpassed product of Southern beauty and love-She is a niece of Mrs. John Whitehead and daughter of the dis-tinguished Major Micajah Wood.

LEAKSVILLE.

Leakesville, Feb. 28 .- The New Era Club met with Mrs. A. T. Hopper Friday and enjoyed a Washing-ton's birthday entertainment. The hostess had arranged appropriate games, pertaining to this natal day. Table one had to draw Washington in the act of cutting down the cherry tree, which proved the amusing artistic ability of the guests. Table two must write poetry, containing the names of George and Martha Washington; table three formed as refreshments were appropriate.

Friday night the two literary societies of the young men of Leaksville-Spray Institute presented a most enjoyable play at the auditorium. The

Friday night the two literary societies of the young men of Leaksville-Spray Institute presented a most enjoyable play at the auditorium. The play was well rendered and well received.

Saturday night the Current Event Club met with Miss Myrtle King. Secides the regular members, the following visitors were present: Mrs. Saturday night the Current Event Club met with Miss Myrtle King. Saturday night the Current Event Club met with Miss Myrtle King. Secides the regular members, the following visitors were present: Mrs. Secides the regular members, the following visitors were present: Mrs. Secides the regular members, the following visitors were present: Mrs. Secides the regular members, the following visitors were present: Mrs. Secides the regular members, the following visitors were present: Mrs. Secides the regular members, the following visitors were present: Mrs. Foard, Mrs. J. D. Martin, Mrs. Foard, Mrs. Walker, Mrs. Walk. Mrs. Foard, Mrs. Walker, Mrs. Walk. Mrs. B. F. Ivie, Mrs. Ould, Misses Ivie and Dyer. The interesting programme: Sayings from Washington; gramme consisted of a quiz: The Golden Age of Ireland, Miss M. L. King; duet, Mrs. A. D. Ivie and Miss D. King; Robert Emmett, "The Irish Dariling." Mrs. Goodwin; vocal solo, Mrs. A. T. Hopper.

TO STOP THOSE TERRIBLE PAINS CAUSED BY HEUMATISM

KIDNEY TROUBLE

"5-DROPS"

BOBERT W. McBRIDE, No. 3225 Boyd St. Omaha, Neb., writes: "After suffering with Rheumatism for eight years, and getting very little relief. I commenced taking "B-DROPS." I saw it advertised and grasped at it as a drowning man graspe at a straw. I was completely broken down and could scarcely lift my feet to walk. My Liver and Kidneys were in fearful shape. I thought I would never be well again; but immediately after I commenced taking your remedy I began to improve, and I am happy to say that I am now a new man, full of health and vigor. One bottle of "5-DROPS" has done the work for me, and I have told everyone that I know, who has work for me, and I have told everyone that I know, who has

E. HUBBARD, Bluff City, Kan., writes: "Your "5-DROPS" has cured me of Rheumatism, with which I suffered for three years. It also cured a friend of mine who had Kidney Trouble."

GET A BOTTLE OF SWANSON'S "5-DROPS" TODAY If you are suffering with Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Kidney Trouble, La Grippe, Colds, Coughs, Lumbago, Sciatica, Gout, Asthma, Catarrh, Neuralgio Headache or other kindred diseases. "5-DROPS" is entirely free of opium, cocaine, alcohol, laudanum and other similar ingredients.

NT FREE. A trial bottle will be mailed free of charge to every reader of this paper upon request. Write today. A trial bottle will be mailed free of charge to every Large Size Bottle (300 Doses) $1.00. For Sale By Drugglets.
Ask Your Drugglet for the "SWANSON PILL," a Cure for Constipation. PRICE 25 CTS.

SWANSON RHEUMATIC CURE CO., (Dept. 43) 160 Lake Street, CHICAGO

Does your Cash Register Make a Noise Like a Typewriter? It will if Bill Bailey is behind the counter.

CHEW BILL BAILEY.

MANUFACTURED BY BAILEY BROS., Inc.,