NORTH CAROLINA AND THE RAILROADS.

The Progressive Farmer well describes the most crying grievance of of the great transportation lines charge higher rates than they rightto make alive; to build up this town atively disinterested spectator. which the rallway magnates favored against and injure other towns. The South especially has suffered much in this respect. A shipper from Cincinnati said to us a few days ago: 'Sanford, N. C., is twenty-eight miles nearer to me than New York, but the freight rate on my goods to New York is 23 1-2 cents and to Sanford $8 1-2 cents.' And so the real freight problem is not to lower rates, but to equalize them, to prevent the discriminations that build certain sections and pull down others."

North Carolina, as one of the tions given over to other sections to be exploited, is at last fully alive to this truth, The Observer is glad to We have already likened the that the stepchild is in revolt. Some KIDNAPER HARRISON. The crime of which a jury of so en found Joshus Harrison guilty at Elizabeth City yestorday me death many times over, and it is a great pity that capital punishment cannot be inflicted. Hell yawns for the fiend who stole nine-year-old Kenneth Beasley from his loving parents to gratify a groundless revenge and inflicted upon them the torture of two century-long years of suspense -a suspense which still continues. Of course, if it can be shown that the missing child was murdered Harthe missing child was murdered Har-rison can be given his deserts. As forded.
