fantry Testifies Before Senate Com-mittee—Hearing Will Not be Concluded by April 6th, as Intended. Washington, April 2.-Captain of Company D, Iwenty-fifth Infantry, was the only witness examined to-day in Brownsville investigation before the Senate committee on military affairs. It is practically certain that the committee cannot conclude the examination of witnesses now here in time to take a recess on April 6, as had been intended.

Although examined and crossexamined at length, Captain Lyon was unable to add much more than corroborative evidence. His personal view that negro soldiers did not do the shooting attracted much attention, as he said he at first was convinced of their guilt, but his opinion was changed by the report of experts who examined the shells picked up in the streets of Brownsville. It was the finding of shells of the type us in Springfield rifles that had caused white officers of the Twentyfifth Infantry to believe their men the war with Russia.

Miss West is a daughter of Rev. Dr. William A. West, pastor of the Presbyterian church at this place. She graduated from Wilson College, Chambersburg, in 1881, and from Vassar two years later, soon after which she entered upon her duties as a missionary at Tokio. She is well versed in the language of the Japanese, and by reason of her culture, fine social qualities, intelligence and the important work in which she is engaged, she has formed the acquaintance of many of the most prominent ladies of the Emprie, and the honor recently conferred on her shows the high appreciation in which she is held by the Empress.

GUILFORD'S SUPERIOR COURT.

Annual Banquet, Merchants' and Manufacturers' Club-Manager Colored Club Arrested-United States District Court Convenes. Special to The Observer.

Greensboro, April 2 .- Judge M. H. Justice is presiding over the regular term of Guilford Superior Court this week. The term is for the trial of criminal cases. The docket is not so nearly crowded as it has been for several terms of court recently. The cases are mostly for trivial offences. The charge of Judge Justice yesterday was most interesting in every way.

The first annual banquet of the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Club in the dining room of the Guilford Hotel to-morrow evening promises to be an event of more than unusual interest. President W. W. Finley and a number of other prominent men will be present as the guest of the be that by President Finley. Rothschild's Polished Floors.

The Rothschild femily are well known for their weakness for polished floors. Every Rothschild mansion has its floors glistening like glass. Some years ago, on one of these slip-pery ways, his Majesty, then Prince of Wales, slipped one morning on his way to breakfast and injured his arm rather seriously. When his Majesty's forthcoming visit to Lord Rothschild was being arranged the King wrote him saying he would be pleased to accept the invitation provided he did not expect him to walk about on "ice," as he was getting rather old for that md of thing.

Lord Rothschild replied that he would find every particle of the floors of Tring covered with carpeting for the royal visit. On the King's departure this will, however, be promptly removed, and the floors will again assume their glasslike surface.
