to-day were full of interest. The re-ports from all the churches were made and they are very gratifying as to their results. There is a marked increase in the contributions to the cial obligations of the local church.

The number of additions during the year is phenomenal. Rev. R. R.

Wyche, D. D., in an impressive and eloquent address made a plea for evangelistic work and the consecration so necessary for its success. Rev.

L. J. Melton, chairman of the Board of Freedmen, made a strong speech in the interest of the Freedmen's Board.

urging the Church to be more liberal

The suspension of Rev. N. Bell was impressive, C. P. Pitchford, S. C. Charles and D. B. Yongue were set apart for the Gospel ministry after a very forceful and fitting sermon by Rev. M. Ijams.

Many of the delegates are leaving to-night, while some will remain until Presbytery adjourns Sunday night.
