Pennsylvania Editors Cannot Come.
Col. A. L. Smith and Mr. C. D. Bennett, who constituted a special committee of the Southern Manufacturers' Club, appeared before a committee of the Pennsylvania Editors' Association in Washington last Saturday to invite that body to visit Charlotte some time between May 1st and June 15th, and spend a few days here. The association is to meet at Jamestown and it was thought fit to urge them to run down to Charlotte also. The committee, after full consideration, decided that it could not accept the kind tender, believing that it would be better to confine the convention to Jamestown and adjacent points. This decision was also influenced by the fact that the National Editors' Association is also to meet at Jamestown about the middle of June, and the exposition authorities asked the State organization to make their dates conform as nearly as possible in order that the same concessions might be enjoyed by both.

Examinations Close To-Morrow.
The examinations at the North Carolina Medical College close to-morrow. The faculty will meet Friday night to pass upon the applications of the several members of the senior class for diplomas. Reports of the examinations will be received and the list of graduates made out. Announcement will be made in Saturday morning's Observer. The senior class numbers 16 young men. It is believed that almost all will pass. The commencement takes place next Monday.

Some Figures as to Cases on Criminal and Civil Dockets.
The approaching term of civil and criminal court is making Clerk of the Court Russell and his efficient corps bend to their work in good fashion. Deputy Clerk Moody was yesterday engaged in docketing the new cases and transferring the continuances. In the course of conversation he gave some rather interesting figures. Most people, when they talk about crowded dockets, have a very vague idea of the number of cases involved. The average number of criminal cases continued, said Mr. Moody, is 60 or 70. During the intervening time between the courts about 125 new cases arise. This means on the whole that about 200 to 225 criminal cases face every judge and all have to be disposed of one way or another. On the civil docket of Mecklenburg county there are at present about 400 cases, of which 40 or 50 are new.

Another Joe Klouse Rally
There is to be another Joe Klouse rally at the store of Lee Phillips & Bro., on Middle street to-night. Soup, pie and everything good, except Brother Pink's beer, will be on hand. Several old fashioned fiddlers and a regular band of musicians will enliven things with merry tunes, and a good time in general will be had. Everybody, voters, women, babies and all will be there. Mr. Klouse is conducting a unique campaign; he is a natural born hand-shaker, and has a smile for every one. If he were in New York he would be a Tammany leader.

Registration Books Close To-Morrow.
The registration books close to-morrow at sunset. All those who have not yet had their names enrolled should do so at once. After the books are sealed, they will not be opened for use until the day of the primaries. No one whose name does not appear in the registration book will be allowed to cast a vote. Hence all those who have an idea of balloting in the primaries, should have their names enrolled to-day or to-morrow.

DOING BUSINESS AGAIN.
"When my friends thought I was about to take leave of this world, on account of indigestion, nervousness and general debility," writes A. A. Chisholm, Treadwell, N. Y., "and when it looked as if there was no hope left, I was persuaded to try Electric Bitters, and I rejoice to say that they are curing me. I am now doing business again as of old, and am still gaining daily." Best of all tonic medicines. Guaranteed by W. L. Hand & Co., druggists, etc.

Flowers' Fire Escape.
The Hotel Fire at Hickory Road, the invention of Practical Escape—Young Man Has Patent That May Bring Fame and Fortune.

L. Flowers of Hickory, N. C., has patented a "necessity is the invention." On the night of the fire at Hickory town, Mr. Flowers who is a man stood and watched six of those who jumped from the burning building. Seeing one man about to leap Mr. Flowers told him to jump together and let himself be lowered by a rope. He tied a knot except in a fire, jumped and landed unconscious by the fall. Operation and helplessness of the man in that burning building young Flowers and he went home with his mind made up to invent a fire escape that could be carried by a man. After several weeks, he got a patent on what he calls "Flowers' Fire Escape" which he is now on the market. Mr. Flowers spent several days in the city, and sold to the Central Hotel 100 of his escapes and has an American Machinery & Spring Company an order for work for 1,000 more. The escape is already greater than the Flowers' escape is as simple as a bow knot. He uses a rope and metal gearing. One end of the rope is fastened in the room and the other end is to be made from a man, who would save himself by putting a foot in a loop, circles about with a cord, and turns and drops down at the rate of a minute. Any child can use the machinery and once down there is no danger of a fall. Mr. Flowers demonstrated his escape to Messrs. Perkins and the Central, Monday by himself down from the fourth floor to the ground. Mr. Flowers has hit upon something to make him famous and his fortune. The escape ready to grip or valise, weighs just a pound and ten ounces. Asbestos will carry 500 pounds in a man's arms. The inventor of the escape is a native of Mecklenburg county. He has been in the lumber business but his mind is on inventions.

Meeting Next Monday Night.
