BRIEFS.
A Few Minor Happenings in and About the City.
—Mrs. David C. Moore underwent an operation yesterday at St. Peter's Hospital. She rallied nicely and is expected to do well.
—The lovers of moving pictures ought to be happy now if they ever will be. North shows are in active operation this week and all are good.
—The Greenville, S. C., News has the following item: "Mr. James B. McRea, who has been in the city for some time, has gone to Charlotte, N. C., where he will make his home in the future."
—Those who attend the moving picture show on North Tryon for the benefit of the Martin family will be utilizing a rare opportunity to do a kindness and get one's money's worth at the same time.
—The Charlotte Music Company will give another concert at the sign of the Golden Harp on North Tryon street this evening at 8:30 o'clock. The public is cordially invited.
—The Charlotte Ministerial Association will meet in the parlors of the Y. M. C. A. this morning at 11 o'clock for the transaction of important business. All members are urged to attend.
—Rev. Harold Turner married Mr. John Parlier and Miss Hattie Jamison at the Breard Street Methodist church last night. A few friends witnessed the ceremony.
—Mr. Deil Withers, son of Mr. J. S. Withers, and a student at the University of North Carolina, underwent an operation in the city yesterday for throat trouble. The operation was successful. Mr. Withers will be here for a few days before returning to resume his studies.
—Information by telephone and telegraph from Baltimore yesterday to friends in the city was to the effect that Mrs. LeRoy Springs, who is critically ill in a Baltimore hospital, rested quietly Wednesday night and is improved.
—Several days ago The Observer printed a highly interesting story of the big hydro-electric development at Whittney. By a typographical error, it was stated that the power would be ready for use December 1, 1903, when it should have been December 1, 1907.
—"The Bad Man," which is the feature of Wonderland's new pictures, is not His Satanic Majesty, but a wild West desperado, who ties the lady station agent's husband on the track, while he makes away with the safe. She breaks loose and frees him in the nick of time. It is a good picture.
—A white man gave a negro hack driver a trunk at the Southern station a few days ago and told him that he would see him up street. The darky drove around for some time without meeting his man and then turned the trunk over to the police station where it was opened yesterday. A postal card bearing the name of Mr. Tom Crawford, of Palmersville, was found. Nothing has been heard of the owner.

The Ring candidates will meet at Sims' store in Dilworth to-night and discuss the issue of the day. Everybody is invited. The joint debate promised will not come off until Monday night.
The following letter was sent to Mr. R. J. Cochran at Dilworth last night:

At the time of her death she was at Bristol. Her remains will reach here to-day and will be interred in the cemetery at this place to-morrow. The whereabouts of her only son, Mr. Frank H.
