

UNIVERSITY. WAKE FOREST.

Correspondence of The Observer.
Wake Forest, April 12.—Mr. J. Richard Crozier, director of the gymnasium and coach for the ball team, left this evening for Greensboro, where he will be joined by the diamond players. The team, who are visiting the family of Mr. W. O. Haddock and from Greensboro, Mr. and Mrs. Crozier will go to Atlanta, Ga., on Monday.

President W. P. Potter, Dr. Lewis M. Gaines and Prof. J. B. Carlyle have returned from Pinehurst, where they represented Wake Forest at the Conference on Education for the South. At chapel exercises this morning Dr. Potter said a few words regarding the conference. One thing he spoke of was the death of teachers throughout so many parts of the country. He spoke of the State of Louisiana, lacking 700 teachers at the opening of the past fall and that teachers had to be sought from all parts of the country to supply the demand. There are paid from $1,500 to $2,000 a year.

Last evening the annual sophomore debate of the Euzelean Society was held at the University. The question debated was: "Resolved, That the further investment of outside capital in the South is more detrimental than beneficial to Southern people." The debate was represented by Messrs. James M. Adams, of Wake county; N. A. Melton, of Surry county; L. E. Dalley, of Camden county; and Don Crumman, of Buncombe county. The debate was presided over by William H. Hill, of Rutherford county; Edgar E. White, of Caldwell county; F. B. Coggin, of Stanly county; G. H. Joyner, of Northampton county; and J. H. Marshbanks, of Mecklenburg county, each speaking in the order named.

The successful contestant was Mr. Coggin. The speeches were all good. The question from the seniors has decided the question. To Mr. Coggin will be awarded a handsome gold medal commencing May 22-24.

The Young Men's Christian Association has appointed the following committee to represent the faculty as an advisory committee in the work of the association: Dr. James W. Lynch, college pastor, chairman; Dr. Charles E. Brown, professor of chemistry; and Dr. Watson S. Rankin, professor of bacteriology and pathology.

The Royal Cotton Mills, located north of town, have awarded to Messrs. W. A. Fries, of Greensboro, a contract for the erection of the new addition building the size of the present structure so as to permit an increase of 500,000 spindles. The mill now has 1,254 spindles. The extension will be 250 feet long and 80 feet wide and three story corresponding in height and width to the present building. The extension will be built on the south end, and is to be completed by the middle of July. The mill is in a prosperous condition as is shown from the fact that it is to be enlarged.

The music lovers of Wake Forest and nearby towns will be glad to hear that the Swiss Bell Ringers will give a concert here the evening of May 2. This is a musical troupe of wide reputation and will attract a large audience. It is under the same management as the Boston Orchestral Company which visited Wake Forest last fall and received a large hearing.

The work of raising a permanent fund to send delegates to the Southern Students Conference this spring is progressing well, and the Young Men's Christian Association here is making other arrangements and plans to have a good delegation at the conference. This gathering consists of delegates from the college associations of the South and is of great importance in the Christian work of the colleges represented. Leaders are trained at the conference by the best speakers and teachers to lead the uplifting work in the Southern institutions. The conference will meet this year at Asheville, N. C., in the Hotel Pines, about 18 miles from Asheville, June 14 to 28, and as many as 500 of the best men from the Southern colleges are expected. Messrs. Dr. D. Weatherford, of New York, and Ralph M. Harper, formerly of this State, have charge of the conference arrangements. Mr. Harper is a graduate of the State University, and Mr. Weatherford is a graduate of the University of Virginia. Mr. Harper is also a member of the Student Volunteer Movement, and Dr. F. A. Brown will lead the home mission course. There will be other valuable features, such as the ministerial institute, the normal, and the largest delegation sent so far will be more than doubled.

The Glee Club and Orchestra will give a concert here during commencement. This will be a glad announcement to many as it will add greatly to the attractions of commencement week. This year's club and orchestra is the best the University has ever had. The club will endeavor to make the concert of commencement surpass any ever before given by them.

The flag raising and Bible presentation which was to take place at the Forestville public school, two miles south of Wake Forest, was not held yesterday on account of threatening weather and became rains. At the next meeting of the local J. O. U. A. another date will be decided upon for the occasion.

Dr. James W. Lynch, college pastor, was at Wingo, Union county, yesterday, where he delivered the address of the commencement address of the Wingo High School. The exercises began Sunday and closed yesterday.

The work of Prof. John B. Carlyle in raising the increased endowment of the college is progressing well. Professor Carlyle already has in hand subscriptions to the amount of $50,000, which amount has been raised in the past three months. Prof. Carlyle announced to your correspondent this week that the prospects for the raising of the remainder in the nine months which remain in the year are very bright and very much encouraged in his work.

schools at Enfield, Halifax county, and May 12 he will deliver the address of the commencement exercises of the Edenton school.

Prof. Carlyle always makes these trips for delivering addresses conform to his work of raising the endowment of the college.

Prof. Carlyle's friends will be glad to learn that Miss Sophie Lanesau will come here from Porto Rico the latter part of next month to visit her parents, Prof. and Mrs. Lanesau. She is now teaching in a mission school at Compo, P. R. On her way home she will attend the meeting of the Southern Baptist Convention at Richmond, Va.
