The Wadesboro Messenger-Intelligencer cites the following case as an example of devotion:

"There is no truer devotion than the love that exists between the old time black mammys and the white children—now all men and women—they helped to rear. An exemplification of this statement has just come to the notice of The Wadesboro Messenger and Intelligencer. Yesterday Mrs.
Bessie Little, of Lilesville township carried to Charlotte Aunt Susie Ingram, who was a slave of her father, the late John B. Ingram, to have her eyes treated. Aunt Susie was taken by Mrs. Little into a Pullman, and as it was the first time she was ever on the train, her bewilderment and awe can be imagined. On reaching Charlotte Mrs. Little did not desert her charge, but carried her to the Buford Hotel, where her every comfort was attended to while the oculist was examining and treating her eyes."

The Keeley Institute at Greensboro will send you absolute proof of the efficacy of the cure. Write for particulars.

Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup is better than any other cough remedy because its laxative principle assures a healthy, copious action of the bowels and at the same time it heals irritation of the throat and allays inflammation of the mucous membrane. Contains Honey and Tar, pleasant to take. Children like it. Sold by Hawley's Pharmacy.

Business
Integrity

There is nothing that gives the public as much confidence as square and fair dealing.

We do not use any fake schemes in our business.

We have never lowered the art of piano building to the mere level of a money-making traffic.

We have never misled the public by advertising a cheap piano as high grade.

We have never sacrificed tone quality and perfect workmanship for expense.

We have never made cheap pianos and never will.

Our reputation is maintained by merit alone; the standing of our firm by business integrity.

We cater to the public for patronage, but not on a basis of misrepresentation.
