Jackknives, Fla., May 22.—The work of the Jackknives was the decided feature of today's game. The visitors would not have scored except for an error by McMillan.

South Carolina League.
Greenville, S. C., May 22.—Errors cost Greenville the game with Sumter. The score was close and the result in doubt to the end.

Anderson, S. C., May 22.—As was expected, Darlington took the opening game from Anderson. Several changes have been made in the Anderson team and better luck is expected to-morrow.

Orangeburg, S. C., May 22.—Orangeburg took her fourth game to-day, Spartanburg losing. The exhibition was good in spite of a bad field and errors.

Baltimore Horse Show Opens.
Baltimore, Md., May 22.—The ninth annual exhibition of the Baltimore Horse Show Association opened at the Elk Ridge kennels of Charles Street avenue to-day with a large list of entries and a fair attendance despite the threatening condition of the weather.
