nington, May Id. is printed in the large and in any Id. is printed in the large of the University of Carolina Magazine and is an of vital interest to all who are in North Carolina history.

The present reviews in so far as is freshness and charm of a litpreduction, the part which played in Revolutionary history in the characteristically vivid Dr. Smith, with his discrimant apt and chaste use of the Engguage, and bearing in addition marks of careful and accurate to Harnett literature, re is too little. The situa-

PHOTO BY CLIMBOINST, WASH

Philander C. Knox.

what manner of man he was. together.

his fame. The brief in-studies impartially the which he asked to be plachis modest tomb makes no of any service, public or pri-he ever rendered. And yet.

this State during the latter will become irrestible that the eighteenth century, the htlest single force in North history during the whole of lutionary period was Cornelett, of New Hanover county."

be true," he continues later, vning says, that 'A people is attempt of many to rise to leter life of one,' then Cor-current view that the sub-no sketch was born in Eng-ent in his life having taken every position of honor and of the provisional council he was practically Govern-th Carolina. He was a mem-of Mr. Pennington, his maj-

State over the ominous 1776.

form a domestic alliance.

t was who was chosen to Philadelphia Declaration at ugust 1st. In the formation ate constitution which was there his was a dominating le did more than any one rst duty that we owe now to ling will no longer seem an hg, but an organic part of

R. H. Jordan & Co.

mptroller. He fought a grateful and devoted committee that drafted estitution of the State and to the Continental Congress Chowan county, this State. 59 to his death in 1781, "he uld bestow upon him."

onary hero of North

United States Attorney General, now a Senator from Pennsyl-who announced yesterday his willingness to become a candidate wn inditing. If a funeral ora- Hardin, D. D., pastor of the Second written about him, neither ceremony in the presence of a few relname or to plead with traveling suit of navy blue voile, with cle of friends.

Harnett is distinctively the profession, and he is an estimable

Caro-

onounced incorrect, that im- of the bride and groom, young man.

es in which Harnett's cool- body and the low summer rates on sness of consequences sav- opportunity for the agents to com-movement, knowing that we have ever held and will, no doubt, was not yet ripe to measure be both profitable and enjoyable to of the committee appointed vitation for you to attend and have live the complicated question Morrison will spend the Sunday pre-ceding the meeting of the Western

c. Harnett will rank as one is both a preacher and an executive officer of talent far above the aver-convention which met on your names enrolled at this session.

ith England, and won. He those who attend.

which resulted in the res- North Carolina with our business and adgment, quickness of action the railroads afford an exceptional ay are reviewed. He led the bine their summer outing in western hat and gloves to match.

ne down to us. There is not atives and close friends of the bride k in vain for a book, apperformed, was attractively decorated with palms and ferns, Rev. Martin D.

The bride was attired in a pretty

Immediately after receiving congra-nessed their marriage. Dr. and Mrs.

tion where they took the train for Concord. They will spend some time there after which they will return to Charlotte and remain awhile before going to their future home at Butte,

The bride is the oldest child of her

The groom is a dentist who has al-

There was a display of many beautiwhich were received from the friends

FIRE INSURANCE AGENTS.

The Tenth Annual Convention to be Held at Asheville, July 11th.

publish the following:

The Observer has been requested to

The tenth annual convention of the North Carolina Fire Underwriters' quarters, offers a special rate to our social sessions. This meeting prom-

-- the local fire insurance agents

Scotch Highlanders threat- in the State who are not already mem- court would not be a nuisance, if al-uell the spirit of revolt. As bers we extend a most cordial in- lowed to stand around in front of the Hallfax, he wrote the reso- Special agents operating in this terripowering the delegates of tory will also be most cordially well- soon thereafter adjourned, for the third time this week.

FRANCIS WOMACK.

Reidsville, June 5, 1907.

Bishop Morrison to Preach Here.

also to the Methodist churches of the city to know that Bishop Henry C.

North Carolina Conference in Char-

At the Mystick

At the Mystic yesterday afternoon Col. Peters put on "Fun in a Foto-graph Gallery," and "Moonlight Effects on the Ocean," in the way of moving pictures, and "In the Shade of the Old Apple Tree," a beautifully illustrated song. The first is a rollicking humorous picture while the second brings exclamations of della ht from the children and is almost well.

The Conference will convene

It will be of interest and pleasure the ises to be the most interesting one presents at the home to-day ready won confidence in his chosen home and is popular with a large cir-tulations from the friends who wit- other than the chief of police or the Caldwell drove to the Southern sta- property taken from prisoners should Association is called to meet in the city of Asheville, Thursday, July 11th. The Battery Park Hotel, our head- I do think that the provision about ditions.

One of Charlotte's Attractive Young Women Marries a Concord Man-To go to Montana to Live.

the 28th of April, 1781, there the town of Wilmington, at home of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Sarratt, of 58, a man whose fame as on North College street, their daughter leader finds a unique attesta- Miss Nell Sarratt, was married to the very obstacles that it has Dr. D. S. Caldwell, of Concord.

e surmount. Scholar though he | The parlor where the ceremony was

Col. T. I. Kirkpatrick then made a hot speech. "I am not in favor of going into debt." said he. "I believe in conservatism. But here as the city of Charlotte has gone and taken in a vast lot of new territory. We of the new territory have come in in good faith. We stand ready to bear our share of the city government and will pay our taxes, whatever they are, cheerfully. In return, we are entitled to some protection. If you sit quietly here and allow our property to burn down for lack of fire protection, the city and the city attorney will be called upon to face a suit in the courts some of these days."

THE COLLOQUY CONTINUES. THE COLLOQUY CONTINUES.

"It was agreed at the committee last night," said Mr. Henderson, "that no report would be tendered to-day. I want my name taken of it. opportunity called for loving ministra-tions. While adhering with unswerv-I want my name taken off it. Personally, I favor a station at Dilworth and one up this way too, but I don't believe that we are the ones to say so."

At this point Mr. Maxwell moved that the report be accepted, air save the recommendations.

"It is retreshing," said 'Alderman Haywood, "to know that the people in Dilworth intend to pay their taxes, but I don't see that that means anyin Dilworth intend to pay their taxes, conable, religious and holy hope in fa-but I don't see that that means any- your with God and in perfect charity thing. We have had too much of this with the world." The funeral services red tape mess. If we tle up the comwere conducted in the Episcopal missions with recommendations, we'll church, Rockingham, Tuesday, May never get anything done." 28. The lovely little church was filled, "It's not a question of it's being re-freshing," retorted Col. Kirkpatrick.
"We expect to pay our share. The while many stood without, with fond relatives and friends from town and point is that we have got a right to

THE LAWYERS DIFFER.

"I'd like to ask you as a lawyer, Mr.

"No, sir, not in the case of a city was that the report, so far, at least, as the recommendations are concerned, McNinch, but there was no response and the same was true for the health committee. Col. Kirkpatrick at this point, on a question of personal privi-ing from his statement about the $20,- 000 spent by the city for which it did not get value received. His reference, made at Wedn day night's meeting had evidently been interpreted by some as an allegation of crooked proceedings, but this had not been in-

REPORT ON POLICE DEPART-MENT.

city clerk each night and receive therefor a receipt. No police officer, it was provided, should receive any appearance bond or similar money.

recorder. A strict account of all be kept and returned under the proper conditions. Seven mounted police-men should be added. Patrolemen should be paid $75 a month, the desk sergeant $80. There should be an assistant chief, a rogue's gallery, two plain clothes detectives, and other ad-

One of the most interesting recommendations was that the auditorium of the city hall should be fitted up for a court room, the present court room be used for police headquarters and the present chief's office to be used

FINAL ACTION POSTPONED.

"I don't like to oppose my friend, Col. Kirkpatrick," interposed Alderman Jimmie Wadsworth, "but I shall vote against making these recommen-gone over with again, while the chair; man, now Mayor McNinch, now Messrs. Franklin or McDowell gave themselves up to the job of rememthe court room changes ought to be put into effect at once. The present arrangement is a disgrace to the city.

Even the newspapers refer to it as a 'subterranean' affair and that's what taking this action before the next meeting, when time for consideration would be obtainable. There was some question as to whether or not the crowd of loiterers who attend police municipal building. A motion to postpone action until the next meet-

It Was Not Col. Tom Black,

The following culled from a recent issue of The Richmond Times will prove of extreme interest to many Charlotte people: "Fou. d; A large man, with considerable retundity, ruddy face and blonde hair, parted fore and aft and brushed up, carrying a sack of Washington pies, bearing the name and address of 'Dr.

Fuzzy Hannon, the baker, Charlotte, N. C.' The owner will call for the gentleman makes the air hot when mad. Nothing seems to divert him, but a game cock that walks the lawn in full view of his domicile."

Some one suggested that Col. Tom Black met this description, but if he was lost he found himself for he came home yesterday and had his picture made in his Confederate uni-

A Chicken Fight For Big Money. "There is going to be a big cock fight in Augusta, Ga., on the 13th and 14th," said a Charlotte fancier yearer-

There was opposition, however, to

And then the whole matter bering which motion came first.

as office of the desk seargent.

dations to this commission

"Light committee," called Mayor was withdrawn.

demand our pro rata share of proin which she as held. As the sun was sinking low in the West her body was gently laid to rest beneath a mound of beautiful and fra-grant lowers, tender and touching Maxwell," continued the colonel, "If a piece of property is burned through the failure of the city to furnish the tributes of love from those who knew her best; there to await a joyful resnecessary water pressure, do you not believe the city would be liable for damages in the courts." surrection at the last day.

Eternal rest and peace to her soul! E. A. OSBORNE.

though perhaps in the case of an incorporated company, furnishing water under contract," replied Mr. Maxwell.

"Then, sir, I am bound to disagree with you," replied Col. Kirkpatrick. The conclusion of the whole matter was that the report so far, at least as Much Interest Being Shown in

The tent meeting which is now en-tering upon its third week at North Charlotte will continue through next Sunday when there will be three services as before at 11 a. m., 4:30 p. m. and 8 p. m.

There is no estimating the amount of good which has been done during lege, said he thought an ex-planation advisable to clear up a misunderstanding resultquite numerous, there have been 45 conversions and 30 reclamations-The meeting has been interdenominational in character and the best of feeling prevails in the community. It was intended to close the meeting Wednesday night, but because of the unanimous vote of Christians and others seriously disposed who were present it was decided to continue

Col. Kirkpatrick next read the report of the police committee. This gospel talk last night and much indocument was printed in full in The terest was again manifested among Observer some weeks ago. Strict the unsaved.

Rev. Harold Turner will preach toed for the governing of the police night at 8 o'clock, the song service to system. A strict account was de-manded of all moneys passing through vited. s pronounced over him or an Presbyterian church, performed the the hands of any of the employes,

The next meeting will most proba filing of all warrants with the final ably be held somewhere between the Calvine Mill and Highland Park Mill judgement recorded, the paying out mce a statue or even a bust and groom. There were no attendants, of all money by means of checks and re of any sort to indicate to the bridal couple entering the parlor the keeping of stubs the deek seep. No 1, on Brevard street. the bridal couple entering the parlor the keeping of stubs, the desk sergeant to turn over all money to the

In a few days the Methodists will commence their new church building on the lot where the tent is now

Sunday, June 16, Mr. F. Swindell Love, a member of the next year's senior class at Trinity College and a BRICK Red and Buff, Dry Pressed and Common Building. PROMPT SHIPMENT.

Georgia-Carolina Brick Company

AUGUSTA, GA.

America is a nation

The use of lard in cooking is the main cause. For your own protection you should divorce yourself from all food cooked with lard. Instead, use Cottolene, the purest and most palatable shortening possible to produce.

It will give you better food, and food Cottolene is never sold in bulk. It comes in sealed white pails, with red label and band. wonder why you stuck a steer's head in cotton plant wreath. Cottolene is not exposed to all the odors, which surround it; lard is, because it usually comes

The quality of Cottolene is guaranteed. We stand behind it. You take no chances in Forstall dyspepsia by the use of Cottolene. Any good grocer will supply you.

A thorough trial of Cottolene will make you

COTTOLENE was granted a GRAND PRIZE (highest possible award) over all other cooking fats at the recent Louisiana Purchase Exposition, and food cooked with COTTOLENE another GRAND PRIZE.

RKISH ROPHIES CIGARETTES Cigarettes that equal their quality cost twice as much. Cigarettes at the same price are not half so good.

And every Turkish Trophies Cigarette proces it. Try them. 10c for 10 Why Pay More? S. ANARGYROS, Mfr. country, whose presence and demeanor bore witness to the love and esteem

REAL ESTATE SALE AND RENT COLUMN

Desirable Houses and Vacant Lots in the City for Sale. Stores and Dwellings for Rent.

I offer (for quick sale) the here below described properties (purchasers must bear in mind that when dealing with me direct they save the agent's commission). For Sale:

1st. 6-room house—fine well of water and excellent garden—No. 705 Smith St. 78 feet front, running back 198 feet, with room on Smith St. for another house.

2nd. 5-room cottage, elegantly finished, modern improvements, splendid neighborhood—No. 407 N. College St., between 7th and

3rd. 4 houses and lots on South Mint St. (opposite Garibaldi), 129 feet on Mint street, running back 251 feet to Poplar St. (That street is to be opened in the near future) thus giving two fronts. 4th. 1 vacant lot on the newly graded extension of East Ave. and 4th street, near Elizabeth College-50 front by 150 deep-with

5th. Two of the best and most desirable vacant lots on the cele-brated Boulevard, next to the elegant Dowd Flats—opposite the graded school—corner of Oak street and Boulevard, 46 8 in. by 150 feet each.

FOR RENT:

The two elegant stores, 30 by 130, No. 216-218 South College St., opposite the Southern freight depot. Now occupied by the Philip Carey Mfg. Co. Possession the first of July. Store No. 11 S. College, near E. Trade, now occupied by Sloan, Hunter & Co. Possession October 1st, perhaps sooner. Two basement offices, No. 305 South Poplar St. Possession im-

Visit The ODEON Original Picture Show

HOWARD H. STAFFORD, President. Write for Prices.

of dyspeptics

Cottolene is made from refined vegetable oil and choice beef suet, is full of richness, yet free from dyspepsia, which will agree with you.

In the center of the label is our trade mark— to hog lard so long.

a local hotel with the gas turned on fulfice for in his room. The police believe Inde-witche turned the gas on by accident. logue.

day, good to Monda Hickory and retu urday, good to return Rutherfordton and sale Saturday, good i Shelby and return urday, good to Monday Lincolnton and retur Saturday, good to Mor For full information, C. A. BLUE T. A., Charlotte, N. JAMES KER, guaranteed. Effect May 6.

1:16 a. m., No. 3i, daily, ion and points North. Pu and day coaches to Washi 3:30 s. m., No. 8, daily, and local points, connects for Winston-Salem, Raleis Nerbern and Morehead cit for Norfolk.

7:35 a. m., No. 8, daily, Pullman sleeper and day a lington to Atlants.

5:25 a. m., No. 17, daily Chester, Columbia and local points North man car and day coache Washington.

7:25 a. m., No. 14, daily ton and points North man car and day coache Washington.

7:25 a. m., No. 16, daily efor Statesville, Taylorsvill points. Connects at Manuston-Salem, and at Asheville and points west.

10:35 a. m., No. 35, daily, and Augusta. Handles Prone Washington to Augusta and Washington to Augusta and Washington to Augusta.

mond. Day coaches New Washington. Dining car nects at Greensboro for Raleigh and Goldsbora.

10:10 a. m., No. 11, daily, and local stations. Connect burg for Hendersonville a 11:00 a. m., No. 30, daily ington and points North. Ping Room sleeper to New Soaches Jacksonville to Dining car service.

11:00 a. m., No. 25, daily Salem. Roanoke and local 11:05 a. m., No. 37, daily salem. Roanoke and local 11:05 a. m., Mo. 37, daily salem. leans. Pullman Draving car, New York to 4:10 p. m. No. 41, daily of the seneca. S. C., and lo 5:30 p. m., No. 25, daily of treight and passenger, for the senecal points.

60:40 p. m., No. 34, daily ton and points worth. Fer, Augusts to New To sleeper, Charlotte to New coaches to Washington, P Salisbury to Norfolk. Dim 6:50 p. m., No. 12, daily, and local stations. Pulls Room sleeper, Charlotte 7:1b p. m., No. 24, daily for Statesville, Taylorsv points. Connects at States ville, Knoxville. Charlotte 7:1b p. m., No. 24, daily for Statesville, Taylorsv points. Connects at States ville, Knoxville. Charlotte 7:1b p. m., No. 24, daily for Statesville, Taylorsv points. Connects at States ville, Knoxville. Charlotte 18:25 p. m., No. 25, daily lotte to Atlanta.

8:05 p. m., No. 26, daily for senection of the senection of the infers Dr. Smith, "is to see in Salisbury on Wednesday, Novem-life is adequately written. ber 13, and the Sunday before that be portrayed, not as a North date he will preach in one or more of but as an American, and of the Methodist churches of this city. ary evidence must be cited Bishop Morrison is recognized as one an individual opinion. When of the ablest men in the Church and starts at early morn the wide, blue world, his strength and health the Rocky Mountain Tea.