LOCAL BANKS PROSPEROUS.

Within the Past Year, Three Charlotte Banks Have Either Purchased New Homes or Made Arrangements to Remodel Their Old. A General Condition of Prosperity Manifest—An Interesting Talk Revived.

"I read with a great deal of interest an article which appeared in The Observer several days ago to the effect that the First National Bank had decided to improve its handsome quarters on South Tryon street."

"I notice that Lincolnton is going to celebrate the Fourth in a proper way this year. Other towns should make the day one of festivity. Gastonia celebrated in becoming style in 1902. Charlotte has an independence day of its own, but the Fourth of July should not be forgotten. On the eventful Fourth Southern men were directing the affairs of the nation. The day is ours as well as the North's and the West's."

SCPTIC LORD AND ELISHA.

Sermon on Faith by Dr. E. E. Bomar—A Man's Life is Guided by His Beliefs, Whether Negative or Positive—He is a Narrow Man Who Sneers at All Things Outside His Experience—A Good Sermon, Well Delivered.

"Then a lord, on whose hand the king leaned, answered the man of God and said, Behold, in the Lord might this thing be? And he said, Behold, thou shalt see it with thine eyes, it shall not eat thereof."

It was from this text that Dr. E. E. Bomar preached last night at the Pritchard Memorial church. The context is a record of the famine in Samaria, during the days of Elisha. The king sent to have the boy man beheaded, but the prophet's life was spared because of his announcement that on the morrow food would be plenty and cheap.

The sermon was about faith and the lack of it, and the preacher took the lord on whose hand the king leaned as an example of the sceptic, who accepts nothing outside his own experience.

Introducing his argument, Dr. Bomar described a trip that he and others made through the mountains. One of the places at which they took lodgings was the home of a man 90 years old. Some of the guests were at a loss about the points of the compass, and the old man undertook to put them straight.

"You think you know more about it than I do," he sneered; "but haven't you sense enough to know that, if the earth turned over, we'd all fall off!"

This old man was a type of the class whose faith is content to rest within observation. At other places where they tarried on the journey they found people whose characters illustrated the subject, and finally they came to the old home, where the Bible was the law of the household, where faith in God was full and unchallenged, and where the immortal hope had brought peace.

LOCKETT-LINDSAY NUPTIALS.

The Marriage at "Deep Springs," Rockingham County, of a Very Popular Couple—The Bride a Society Favorite and the Groom Eminent in His Profession. Special to The Observer.

Madison, June 16.—A wedding beautiful in all its appointments was solemnized Wednesday morning, June 12th, at 11 o'clock, at "Deep Springs," Rockingham county, the home of the bride. The bride, Miss Annie Scott Lindsay, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Lindsay, is an accomplished graduate of Salem Academy and is widely known throughout the State.

This old historic country home on the Dan, noted for its beautiful location, seems provisioned by nature for romance and story. Now in the "month of roses" when the grass is greenest, the old oaks plume themselves greenest, and the birds sing sweetest, and the birds sing sweetest, and the birds sing sweetest.

hospitality to a goodly number of wedding guests.

There were present: Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Lockett, Miss Edwina Lockett, Mr. Henry Shelton, Rev. H. A. Brown, Dr. J. L. Hanes, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Blair, Dr. and Mrs. Dalton, Mr. and Mrs. D. Rich, Miss Elizabeth Nichols, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. O'Hanlon, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Lipter, and Mrs. W. A. Whittaker from Winston; Mr. Hugh R. Scott, Miss Lily Watt Penn, Mrs. Robert Harris and daughter, and Mr. John Harris, from Reidsville; Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Wray, from Spray; Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Reid, and Mrs. Jas. Scales from Wentworth; Mr. and Mrs. Frances Kemp, Rev. Alfred Berkeley and Miss Mary Lou Berkeley, from Madocan; Miss Mary Berkeley Cox from Washington, D. C.; and Miss Daisy Beesick, Mrs. R. C. Matheson, Mr. J. O. Busick and Miss Anylla Lindsay from Madison.

In the presence of these friends and relatives the ceremony was performed in the spacious old parlor which in the color scheme green and white was tastefully decorated with cut roses and pot plants. An improvised altar of white was set with palms and ferns, and above an arch entwined with smilax ranged a row of burning candles. The room was darkened and lighted by a silver candelabra with white and silver shades.

Proceeding the ceremony, Mrs. F. B. Kemp sang "All for You" and "Because," which added to the sweetness of the occasion. Rev. Alfred Berkeley and Mr. J. O. Busick were the ribbon bearers. To the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March, beautifully rendered by Miss Daisy Busick, the bride, who was elegantly gowned in a Parisian lace robe, carrying a shower bouquet of bride's roses and sweet peas, entered with her father. She was preceded by Miss Lily Watt Penn, the maid of honor, who wore a blue and lavender Paris mull and carried a huge bouquet of pink sweet peas.

The groom, a post-graduate of the University of Pennsylvania, and a prominent physician in Winston-Salem, was accompanied by Mr. Henry Shelton, his best man. Dr. Brown, of the First Baptist church in Winston, officiated in his usual impressive manner.

While heartily congratulated upon winning so fair and charming a bride, the groom himself, deservedly popular, occupies a responsible position in Winston-Salem. Many beautiful and handsome presents were displayed, attesting the popularity of the couple. The groom's gift to the bride was a bracelet set with pearls and turquoise. In the dining room, which was effectively decorated in pink and white, Sanfresco served an excellent breakfast. To each guest was given the piece of wedding cake in a souvenir box artistically hand-painted by the bride's own deft fingers.

The bride and groom accompanied by a number of guests left on the 4 o'clock train for an extensive tour

North. They expect to spend much of their time in Canada and among the mountains and lakes of New England. Upon their return they will make their home in Winston.

CURED OF BRIGHT'S DISEASE. Geo. A. Sherman, Lisbon, Red Mill, Lawrence Co., N. Y., writes: "I had kidney disease for many years and had been treated by physicians for twelve years; had taken a well known kidney medicine and other remedies that were recommended but got no relief until I began using Foley's Kidney Cure. The first half bottle relieved me and four bottles have cured me of this terrible disease. Before I began taking Foley's Kidney Cure I had to make water about every fifteen minutes, day and night, and passed a brick-dust substance, and sometimes a slimy substance. I believe I would have died if I had not taken Foley's Kidney Cure." R. H. Jordan & Co.

SO SOOTHING

Its Influence Has Been Felt by So Many Charlotte Readers. The soothing influence of relief after suffering from itching Piles, From Eczema or any itchininess of the skin. Makes one feel grateful to the remedy. Doan's Ointment has soothed hundreds.

C. V. Voll, manufacturer of harness and shoes, Mooresville, N. C., says: "I want to express my appreciation for the cure your Ointment has effected. I was led to use it from a testimonial I read in the newspaper, which stated that one application would stop a very obstinate case of itching piles and eczema, which at times almost drove me crazy. For the last fifteen years I have not had one good night's rest. I was treated by three physicians, tried ointments of many kinds and took internal remedies, with no relief. I had almost despaired of a cure or relief, but as I had a small degree of faith remaining, I bought one box of Doan's Ointment. After I had used the one box the eruption disappeared. I procured another box and used it to prevent a recurrence of the trouble. I have not used any more than a month, and believe I am permanently cured. I feel that the relief I have had is worth the price of fifty boxes of Doan's Ointment. It gives me great pleasure to recommend your remedy to all who are afflicted with any itching skin disease. You may see this letter if you wish." For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
