Dr. W. M. Earnbardt, of Lenoir. Correspondence of The Observer.

Lenoir, June 25 .- Dr. Whitman Martin Earnhardt died at his residence in this place Saturday morning. The funeral was conducted from the Methodist church Sunday morning by Rev. D. Vance Price, assisted by Rev. Dr. C. C. Weaver. Dr. Earnhardt was one of Lenoir's oldest and best known citizens and had just reached his seventy-sixth year. He is survived by his wife, three daughters, Mrs. M. M. Courtney, Misses Rose and Lucy Earnhardt, and two sons, Mr. George C. Earnhardt, of this place, and Mr. James W. Earnhardt, of Los Angeles, Cal. Dr. Earnhardt had been not delivered, at least 50,000 bales; in feeble health for several years, but held in New York stock, 161,0000; the immediate cause of his death was pneumonia. He leaves many friends who sympathize with the bereaved members of his family.

Asheville, June 25.—Miss Jessie Rankin Brown, sister of Edward B. Brown, assistant general secretary of the Asheville Young Men's Christian Association, died at the residence of her father, 35 Grove street, Sunday afternoon, after a lingering illness. Miss Brown had been in failing health for a number of years and came to Asheville from Newton in October, 1905. She was a member of the Presbyterian church and a devoted Christian. Her faith, hope and love grew in strength and beauty during her illness and in the prospec of from all over the United foreign countries. Miss Jessie Brown, of Asheville.

Correspondence of The Observer. Newton, June 24.—News was re-ceived this morning of the sad death in Asheville yesterday of Miss Jessie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James M. Brown. All of Miss Jessie's life was passed in Newton until about three years ago when on account of the health of her younger brother the family moved to Asheville. Never very strong, for some time in her early years she was troubled with her throat, which often interferred with the use of her fine voice. After going to Asheville she became the victim of that dread disease, consumption, and after many months of patient suffering fell gently asleep yesterday afternoon. For not quite twenty-four was she spared to be the joy and comfort of her beloved parents. Gentle and lovable she had many friends in the town of her birth who to-day are saddened by the news that Jessie is no more. When quite young she joined the Presbyterian church and was ever a faithful and devoted member. She was a member of the Ransom-Sherrill chapter U. D. C., of this place and, among the beautiful flowers that were this morning sent to Asheville to place above the loved one, was a lovely wreath from this chapter. Beautiful in life Jessie has gone to that home where all is peace and happiness, leaving a void in the hearts of all those who knew and loved her. terday afternoon. For not quite twen-

The situation is one which may well afford anxious thought to those who are short of cotton. It is, I think, commercialy evident that stocks of tenderable cotton will be absolutely exhausted before the end of the season. It is for this reason, and not because of any so-called "corner," that July contracts command a premium both in New York and New Orleans. It is for this reason that the price of August contracts has already commenced express the situation, and it is for this reason that I expect that August contracts which has for many years been regarded as the jumping off place, and which option has in consequence become heavily oversold) will sell higher than any other position on the list.
