New York Racing Commission Refuses an Oral Hearing. New York, July 23.—The State racing commission to day refused to give an oral hearing in the matter of the application of the Empire City Trotting Ciub for the abrogation of a certain jockey club role, which if enforced, would make "outlaws" of owners, trainers, jockeys and horses taking part in the running neeting to be held on the Empire track at Yonkers beginning August 5th, and ordered that brices be submitted by each side within 24 hours. The Empire Club officials announce that they have secured the service of Matt J. Winn as manager of the meeting. Mr. Winn, besides being the president of the American Turf Association, owns the Churchill Downs track at Louisville, and is manager of both courses at New Orleans.
